* As part of the National Football League's agreement with NBC to televise Sunday Night Football, the NFL has implemented a flexible schedule for Sunday start times for the final eight weeks of the season.

This will allow the NFL to bring more attractive match-ups to a national audience late in the season. If any of the 49ers games are moved from the original start time, fans will be notified 12 days prior to the date of the game with the exception of a Week 17 game, where the notification will be six days to ensure a Sunday Night game with playoff implications. Starting time changes will be publicized on 49ers.com and through the local print and electronic media

DENISE DeBARTOLO YORK

JOHN YORK

CO-CHAIRMEN

Denise and John York bring long and distinguished careers in sports and business to their roles as Co-Chairmen of the San Francisco 49ers, where they combine their passion for building a championship team with their commitment to being the best possible business partners and community citizens.

A THIRTY YEAR LEGACY IN BUSINESS AND PRO SPORTS

Since Denise's father, Edward J. DeBartolo Sr., purchased the 49ers in 1977, she has been an integral part of more than three decades of 49ers football, including 38 playoff contests and five Super Bowl victories. Earlier in her career, Denise served as President of the Pittsburgh Penguins hockey team. Under her leadership, the Penguins were revitalized and transformed into a championship team winning the Stanley Cup. She is one of only 12 women to have her name engraved on the Stanley Cup.

A successful entrepreneur, John spent years as Senior Vice President/Director of Racing Operations for the DeBartolo Corporation, instituting programs designed to enhance the fan experience and raise the profile of thoroughbred horse racing. John, a noted pathologist, began his business career in 1982 as founder of DeYor Laboratories in Youngstown, Ohio. From three employees, he molded the company into a 500-person operation with facilities in three states before selling the company to Corning, Inc. in 1993.

As owners of the 49ers, Denise and John provide the resources and guidance to uphold the 49ers celebrated history and oversee the team's relationship with the Commissioner of the National Football League and other team owners.

TAKING A LEADERSHIP ROLE IN THE NFL

Denise and John's dedication to the sport of football extends to the top levels of the NFL.

Denise is an active member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Committee, where she helps to oversee the League's ongoing support of the museum that pays tribute to the triumphs of pro football's greatest stars, including 14 legendary members of the San Francisco 49ers.

John is Chairman of the NFL's Health & Safety Advisory Committee, which was established in 2011. He is also a member of both the League's Audit & Compensation and International committees, the latter of which he previously served as Chairman. Under his leadership, the 49ers became the first team to play a regular season game outside the boarders of the United States, taking on the Arizona Cardinals in front of 100,000 fans at Azteca Stadium in Mexico City. The League expanded its presence abroad with regular season games the past two years at Wembley Stadium in London, England, under his direction. During the 2010 season, the 49ers hosted the Denver Broncos in London, England.

CELEBRATING THE TEAM'S LEGENDARY HISTORY

Denise and John have played a pivotal role in reaching out to former players and coaches to help celebrate six monumental decades of 49ers football. Over the past decade, Denise and John have brought back every Hall of Fame enshrinee from the 49ers to be honored at Candlestick Park for their tremendous contributions to Bay Area sports. Under their guidance, the team enhanced its annual alumni weekend event to give all players who have donned the red and gold throughout the team's history a chance to catch up with old friends. As part of the event, the former players are recognized on the field during a half-time celebration at Candlestick Park, where so many of them made their mark on history. They have also worked with players like Joe Montana, Steve Young and Dwight Clark, and the members of the 1981 49ers defense to re-enact and commemorate some of the team's most famous plays such as "The Catch" and the goal line stand that propelled the team to its first Super Bowl victory.

ENHANCING THE FAN EXPERIENCE

Denise and John are dedicated to embracing the passion of 49ers fans everywhere. They are committed to giving fans an opportunity to experience the excitement of 49ers football year-round. From the team's annual Winter Fest Fundraiser in Lake Tahoe, to its Draft Day celebration in Santa Clara each spring, to Family Day at Candlestick Park each summer, they have made it their mission to embrace the fans as family.

In their efforts to extend the interaction between the fans and the players and coaches, Denise and John have opened a portion of the team's training camp to the public since 2005, giving more than 100,000 49ers fans the opportunity to meet the team before the first snap of the football season.

On game days, they have spearheaded the effort to create a great atmosphere for fans by making significant enhancements to Candlestick Park, from the creation of the Alumni Tailgate Party and Faithful City, to improvements inside the stadium such as new flat screen TVs, new escalators and remodeled restrooms.

They've also provided new opportunities for fans to participate in the excitement of 49ers football by giving local musicians the opportunity to sing the national anthem in front of 68,000 fans at the 'Stick, and providing opportunities to local talent to participate in half-time events on the field.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN THE LIVES OF OTHERS

Under the leadership of Denise and John, the team's community outreach programs and 49ers Foundation have grown tremendously.

The San Francisco 49ers Foundation is the non-profit community funding extension of the San Francisco 49ers. Now in its 20th year, the 49ers Foundation supports development programs for underserved youth that keep them, "Safe, On Track, and In School. The San Francisco 49ers are promoting RESPECT for schools and community by donating a significant portion of the foundation's funding toward family violence prevention programs and activities that teach youth leadership and respect. Since 1992, the Foundation has donated over $16 million to support non-profits, including $2.4 million in 2011. In 2011, 100% of players participated in one or more community program and were joined by ownership, coaching staff, executives and their families at most of these events.

In recognition of their community involvement, the couple has been honored with a number of accolades including City Year's Service Leadership Award, the 2008 Silicon Valley Exemplary Community Leadership Award by Silicon Valley FACES, Outstanding Corporate Philanthropy Award at the Catholic Charities/Catholic Youth Organization's Loaves & Fishes Dinner, and inclusion on the Top Corporate Philanthropists list for the San Jose/Silicon Valley Business Journal.

The couple's passion for community involvement extends beyond the Bay Area as well. John was recently honored with Loyola University's Strich Medal - the highest honor awarded by the school - for his ongoing contributions to his alma mater. Denise and John were honored with the Youngstown Hearing & Speech Center's Great Communicators Award in recognition of their philanthropic leadership. They were also inducted into the Curbstone Coaches Hall of Fame in Boardman, Ohio for generously giving their time and resources to the Mahoning Valley community.

PUTTING FAMILY FIRST

Though Denise and John have accomplished much in their professional careers, they first define themselves as husband, wife and parents.

Their eldest son, Jed, now carries on the family's legacy begun by his grandfather Edward J. DeBartolo Sr., his Uncle Eddie DeBartolo Jr. and his parents, by serving as CEO of the 49ers. Their son, Tony, is currently an entrepreneur in the high-tech industry in Silicon Valley, and twins Jenna and Mara are pursuing careers in oenology in the Napa Valley.

JED YORK

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

BUILDING A CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

As Chief Executive Officer of the San Francisco 49ers, Jed York oversees all aspects of the organization. York is in his third year in the position and has made bold decisions to return the team to its winning tradition and ultimately the Super Bowl. York recognizes and shares the ongoing passion of the team's faithful fans.

York has been the driving force behind the team's work to begin construction on a new stadium for the 49ers. In 2011, his leadership produced what some are calling extraordinary results to get "shovels in the ground" for the new stadium in Santa Clara. The 49ers have not only secured all the necessary approvals to begin construction of the new venue in early 2012, the team also has an $850 million construction loan and $200 million in NFL support with all financing in place. The team plans to build a stadium that will quickly be recognized as the world's premium outdoor sports and entertainment venue.

2011 was a very good year for York's 49ers. His promotion of Trent Baalke to General Manager and the hiring of Jim Harbaugh as Head Coach provided instant results. Both Harbaugh and Baalke were named Coach of the Year and Executive of the Year respectively, the highest honor they can receive in their respective positions. The team also made it to the playoffs for the first time in nine years advancing to the NFC Conference Championship and an impressive 14-4 record.

RECOGNIZING THE 49ERS FAITHFUL

A 49ers fan since birth, York recognizes that the success of the 49ers hinges on the team's faithful fans, and he is committed to honoring them for their passion and enthusiasm. One of his most popular moves was to direct the organization to create new uniforms for the 49ers that connect the team's future aspirations to its championship glory years of the 1980s and 1990s. He also created the ticket sales and services department to give each season ticket holder a personal representative and point of contact within the organization. To give fans a forum to interact directly with the team's leaders, he instituted a public "State of the Franchise" meeting for season ticket holders, where they have an opportunity to listen to the team's plans for the future and ask questions of the 49ers management team.

Under York's leadership, the team established the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame in 2009, to commemorate the significant accomplishments of some of the team's biggest stars and key contributors. Named for his grandfather and the beloved patriarch of the 49ers, the Hall of Fame automatically inducted those 49ers greats that had either had their jersey numbers retired by the team or have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. York, shortly thereafter, announced the Hall of Fame's inaugural inductee, his uncle, Edward J. DeBartolo Jr., who was enshrined during the 2009 season.

CARRYING ON THE FAMILY'S LEGACY

York's roots with the 49ers run deep. He is the oldest child of Denise and John York, the co-chairmen of the team. York's uncle and godfather, Eddie DeBartolo, also known to fans as "Mr.D", has long served as a mentor.

York began his career as a financial analyst at Guggenheim Partners, a diversified financial services firm. He worked in the firm's New York office in several areas, including private wealth management, hedge funds risk analysis, and collateralized debt obligations.

Born and raised in Youngstown, OH, York was a student athlete at Cardinal Mooney High School where he was captain of the baseball team as well student body president. After high school, York decided to carry on a family tradition by attending the University of Notre Dame, where he earned a degree in both finance and history. York was a member of Phi Alpha Theta, the National History Honors Society.

York credits his parents, his uncle Eddie, and his grandfather Edward DeBartolo Sr. as being positive role models and for teaching him character values such as integrity, a strong work ethic, and respect for others. He is pleased to carry on his family's commitment to community by serving as a board member at Tipping Point Community, the Common Wealth Club, Bay Area Council, and Silicon Valley Leadership Group. In 2011 & 2012, York served as the Co-Chair of the Second Harvest Food Bank's Annual Holiday Food and Fund Drive, which services Santa Clara and San Mateo counties.

Besides his tremendous passion for the 49ers, York enjoys traveling, fishing, and playing cards, which he learned from his grandfather.

GIDEON YU

PRESIDENT & CO-OWNER

Gideon Yu was named President & Co-Owner of the San Francisco 49ers by CEO Jed York in February, 2012 after serving nearly a year as Chief Strategy Officer.

In his time with the 49ers, Yu has played a key role in the team securing an $850 million dollar stadium construction loan, the largest ever in professional sports, and a $200 million financing package from the NFL, the largest sum for a team in league history.

Prior to his career in professional sports management, Yu was a high-technology executive, most notably as the Chief Financial Officer of both Facebook and YouTube. He has also worked at such companies as Yahoo, Disney and Hilton.

In the fall of 2011, Yu was named to the "Executive Dream Team" by Fortune Magazine.

Yu earned his BS in Industrial Engineering and Engineering Management from Stanford and his MBA from Harvard. He is active philanthropically, sitting on the boards of the UCSF Foundation, Tipping Point Community and BUILD.

A native of Nashville, Tenn., Yu and wife, Susie, have a 5-year old son Jonathan and infant daughter Emily.

TRENT BAALKE

GENERAL MANAGER

Trent Baalke was a rookie General Manager in 2011, charged with the task of navigating one of the most trying offseasons the NFL had ever experienced. A year later, Baalke was named NFL Executive of the Year by Pro Football Weekly and the Pro Football Writers of America, and subsequently rewarded with a contract extension that keeps him with the team through the 2016 season. A veteran of 15 NFL seasons, he enters his eighth year with the 49ers, his second as the team's General Manager.

"Without question Trent has distinguished himself as the man to direct our football operations for years to come," said CEO Jed York upon extending Baalke's contract in February of 2012. "Since taking over as General Manager last January, we have made great strides on the football field under Trent's leadership. It gives me great pleasure to watch Trent and Jim work arm-in-arm with the common goal of leading the 49ers to championships."

Faced with the unprecedented task of constructing a roster without an offseason, Baalke proved to be up for the challenge, in 2011. As the doors of free agency would not open until early July, he and his staff needed to act quickly and decisively. Between a draft class and a collection of free agents, Baalke signed 24 players beginning in July that would remain on the team's 53-man roster at the completion of the season. Three of those signees – K David Akers, FS Dashon Goldson and CB Carlos Rogers – earned Pro Bowl selections, while five others were named Pro Bowl alternates – special teamer Blake Costanzo, C Jonathan Goodwin, DT Ray McDonald, FB Bruce Miller and SS Donte Whitner. In all, 12 of those 24 players logged starts for the 49ers in 2011.

Since 2010, when Baalke served as the team's Vice President of Player Personnel, overseeing all player acquisitions including the draft, he acquired 32 players who remained on the 49ers active roster at the end of 2011. Among that group were 13 draft picks, four of which were regular starters and another five who were key contributors. Prior to leading his first 49ers draft, he orchestrated a trade with the Miami Dolphins for WR Ted Ginn Jr., who went on to be a stand-out return man and reserve receiver. Baalke has since extended the contracts of Pro Bowlers LB Patrick Willis, TE Vernon Davis and RB Frank Gore, as well as Pro Bowl alternates DT Ray McDonald and OLB Ahmad Brooks.

Prior to his promotion to Vice President of Player Personnel, Baalke was the 49ers Director of Player Personnel from 2008-09, where he oversaw both the college and pro personnel departments. He first joined the franchise in 2005 as the team's Western Region Scout, a position he held through 2007.

Baalke spent four years as a member of the Washington Redskins scouting staff, serving as the College Scouting Coordinator in his final season. From 2001 to 2003, he served as Washington's National Scout and traveled throughout the country in search of rising talent. Before joining the Redskins, Baalke spent three seasons (1998-2000) as a scout with the New York Jets.

From 1990 to 1995, Baalke held the position of defensive line/strength and conditioning coach at South Dakota State. In that role, he helped promote players such as former Pro Bowl guard Adam Timmerman and current NFL kicker Adam Vinatieri to NFL scouts. Baalke then spent time as the athletic director at Shanley High School in Fargo, ND, before moving on to the Jets.

Baalke began his coaching career as a graduate assistant defensive line coach at North Dakota State, in 1989. The team finished with a 14-0 record and a Division II National Championship.

A double major at Bemidji State (MN), Baalke received his bachelor's degree in health and physical education. He went on to earn his master's degree in secondary education and sports administration while coaching at North Dakota State. Baalke played outside linebacker and was an All-Northern Sun Conference and All-Midwest Region honoree at Bemidji.

Trent and his wife, Beth, have two daughters, Katy and Cassie.

JIM HARBAUGH

HEAD COACH

4th NFL Season | 2nd with 49ers

Attack each day with an enthusiasm unknown to mankind. That is the mantra that Jim Harbaugh lives by, played by and now coaches by … one that was instilled in him by his father, Jack, at a very young age. That enthusiasm permeated the San Francisco 49ers organization immediately upon his hiring as the 18th Head Coach in the storied history of the proud franchise on January 7, 2011.

In his first season as head coach, Harbaugh led the 49ers to a 13-3 regular season record, its best since 1997, and a NFC West Division title, its first since 2002. The consensus NFL Coach of the Year also led his squad to its first appearance in the NFC Championship game since 1998. Harbaugh's 13-3 record made him just the fourth rookie head coach in NFL history to take a team to 13 wins, and the first coach to do so after the team had a losing record the previous season. Harbaugh's record also stands tied for second among all 49ers rookie head coaches. He joined George Seifert (1989) and Steve Mariucci (1997) as the only head coaches in 49ers history to win the NFC West Division in their first year at the helm.

Known to routinely deflect all credit for success to his players, Harbaugh had a great deal to be proud of in 2011. San Francisco boasted a league-high five First-Team Associate Press All-Pros - DT Justin Smith, LB Patrick Willis, LB NaVorro Bowman, K David Akers and P Andy Lee (Justin Smith as a DE , LT Joe Staley and CB Carlos Rogers were named to the Second Team). The 49ers also posted a NFL-high nine Pro Bowl selections – Smith, Willis, Akers, Lee, Rogers, Staley, S Dashon Goldson, RB Frank Gore, and LS Brian Jennings.

Led by Willis and Smith, both finalists for NFL Defensive Player of the Year, the 49ers defense possessed the most dominant front seven in the game, a unit that produced 40 of the team's 42 sacks, and a Defensive Rookie of the Year finalist, OLB Aldon Smith, who set the franchise's rookie sack record (14). The unit began the year without allowing a rushing touchdown in its first 14 games, a feat never before achieved in league history. The defense's NFL-high 38 takeaways allowed the 49ers to lead the league with a team-record turnover differential (plus-28). By the end of the year, the defense ranked first in the NFL against the run, second in points allowed, and fourth in total defense.

The San Francisco offense played a physical brand that controlled the tempo of games, rarely made mistakes and produced plays when it was ultimately needed. Six times in 2011, QB Alex Smith, RB Frank Gore and the Niners offense mounted come-from-behind wins. The unit tied NFL single-season records for fewest turnovers (10) and interceptions (5). Smith put together his finest year as a pro, finishing the season with a 90.7 QB rating, a 61.4 completion percentage and the NFL's lowest interception percentage (1.1). The quarterback also tied the franchise record with four, 4th quarter come-from-behind wins on the road (QB Joe Montana – 4 in 1989). Gore also became the franchise's all-time leading rusher, surpassing Joe "The Jet" Perry.

Special teams lived up to its name for the 49ers in 2011, as the unit finished the season ranked atop the NFL. The team featured two record-setting specialists in Akers and Lee. Akers set the NFL record for most field goals made (44) and most points in single-season, no touchdowns (166), while Lee registered a 44.0 net punt average, also setting a new NFL record.

Harbaugh's pedigree is one littered with the names of some truly great football minds. That list starts with his father, Jack, a veteran of 43 seasons in the coaching ranks, and ends with his brother, John, the current head coach of the Baltimore Ravens. The heart of that list contains the likes of Bill Walsh, Bo Schembechler and Lindy Infante, all men he credits with contributing to his coaching repertoire.

A 15-year NFL veteran quarterback, Harbaugh possesses 18 years of coaching experience, which includes spending seven years as a head coach (58-27) in the collegiate ranks. He joined the 49ers after an impressive four-year stint as the head coach at Stanford University, where he guided the Cardinal football program to the biggest turnaround in school history over a four-year span.

Among Harbaugh's many accomplishments while at Stanford was the orchestration of two of the highest scoring teams in school history, three of the top four rushing teams in program history and back-to-back bowl appearances for the first time since 1995 and '96. He also coached back-to-back Heisman Trophy finalists in running back Toby Gerhart and quarterback Andrew Luck.

As Stanford's head coach, Harbaugh led the Cardinal to a 29-21 overall record, including a 20-6 record over the past two seasons. It was in stark contrast to the program he inherited in 2007, which had compiled a 16-40 record in the previous five seasons, including a 1-11 mark in 2006. After leading the Cardinal to records of 4-8 and 5-7 in his first two seasons, Harbaugh guided Stanford to an 8-5 overall mark and an appearance in the Sun Bowl in 2009, followed by a historic 12-1 season and an Orange Bowl win, in 2010.

Harbaugh fielded one of the greatest teams in Stanford football history in 2010, as the Cardinal posted a school record of 12 wins on the season, suffering its only setback to the Pac-10 champion Oregon Ducks. The Cardinal proceeded to win its final eight games of the season, which was capitalized by a 40-12 victory over Virginia Tech in the first Bowl Championship Series bowl appearance in school history.

The Cardinal offense set a school record with 524 points on the season, having scored 30-or-more points in all but one game, to finish the season ranked 9th nationally in points scored (40.3) and 14th nationally in total yards per game (472.5). Harbaugh played an instrumental role in developing Luck, who completed 70% of his passes for 3,338 yards and 32 touchdowns. Stanford's ground game also proved productive as the team ranked 17th in the nation in rushing yards per game (213.8).

The team's defensive unit was just as impressive, ranking 10th nationally in scoring defense (17.4). The Cardinal posted three shutouts on the year and finished ranked in the top-25 nationally in five defensive categories.

In 2009, Harbaugh was able to effectively transform the Cardinal into one of the most productive offensive units in the nation, as the team finished the season ranked 19th in total offense (427.6 yards per game), while setting single season records for total yards (5,559) and rushing yards (2,837). The year culminated in a trip to the Sun Bowl, a 31-27 loss to Oklahoma, marking the program's first bowl appearance since the 2001 season.

Harbaugh came to Stanford from the University of San Diego, where he guided the Toreros to an impressive three-year overall record of 29-6 (.829), including back-to-back 11-1 seasons that netted a pair of Division I-AA Mid Major national titles in 2005 and 2006.

Prior to joining the University of San Diego, Harbaugh spent two seasons (2002-03) as an offensive assistant with the Oakland Raiders. In his first season, the Raiders posted an 11-5 regular season record, won the AFC Western Division title and advanced to Super Bowl XXXVII.

Harbaugh laid the groundwork for his coaching career while he was still competing as a player in the NFL, serving as an NCAA-certified unpaid assistant coach at Western Kentucky, where he worked with his father and Hilltoppers head coach Jack Harbaugh, from 1994-2001. Jack is a 43-veteran of the coaching ranks who led his Hilltoppers team to a Division I-AA National Championship in 2002.

As a first round draft pick by the Chicago Bears in 1987, Harbaugh played for five teams over 15 seasons, including the Chicago Bears (1987-93), Indianapolis Colts (1994-97), Baltimore Ravens (1998), San Diego Chargers (1999-2000) and Carolina Panthers (2001). He racked up 26,288 passing yards to go along with 129 touchdown passes, while completing 2,305-of-3,918 passes in 177 career games (140 starts). Harbaugh ranks in the NFL's top-50 in two career passing categories - completions (41st) and pass attempts (45th).

Success is no stranger to Harbaugh. A product of nearby Palo Alto High School, he enjoyed a storied career at the University of Michigan, where he played for legendary coach Bo Schembechler and helped lead the Wolverines to two bowl appearances, garnering Big Ten Player of the Year honors.

Jim and his wife, Sarah, have two daughters, Addison and Katherine. Jim also has three children, Jay, James Jr. and Grace. He is the son of Jack and Jackie. His brother, John, is the head coach of the Baltimore Ravens, and his sister, Jackie, is married to Indiana University Men's Basketball head coach, Tom Crean.

BRAD SEELY

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

24th NFL Season | 2nd with 49ers

Considered one of the most successful special teams coaches in NFL history, Brad Seely is in his second year with the 49ers after being named assistant head coach/special teams coordinator on January 25, 2011.

Under Seely's direction in 2011, the 49ers special teams unit emerged as one of the best in the NFL. K David Akers set the NFL single-season record for most field goals (44) and points with no touchdowns (166). P Andy Lee set the NFL record with a 44.0 net punting average, while the 49ers led the NFL in average starting field position (33.5-yd. line) and opponents average starting field position (24.3-yd. line). Seely was named Special Teams Coach of the Year by Rick Gosselin of the Dallas Morning News, whose special teams rankings are widely regarded.

Seely brings 22 years of NFL special teams coaching experience to the 49ers. Most recently, Seely served as the special teams coordinator for the Cleveland Browns from 2009-10, where he worked with WR/KR Joshua Cribbs, who earned Pro Bowl selections in each of the last two seasons. Seely's special teams unit led the NFL in kickoff coverage, while ranking fifth in the NFL in punt coverage in 2010.

In 2009, Seely was named Special Teams Coach of the Year after leading the Browns to a league best special teams ranking according to the formula comprised by Rick Gosselin of the Dallas Morning News. It marked Seely's fifth top-five finish for his special teams units since 1990.

Prior to joining the Browns, Seely spent 10 seasons as the New England Patriots special teams coach (1999-08), where he was part of three Super Bowl championships. Over the span of his tenure in New England, the Patriots led the NFL in kickoff return average (23.5), were fourth in field goal percentage (83.4%) and ranked eighth in punt return average (9.9). In addition, his units registered 11 returns for touchdowns, including eight on kickoffs, a figure that tied for second in the NFL over that 10-year stretch. Seely also helped produced a total of 3 special teams Pro Bowlers (K Adam Vinatieri - 2004, LB Larry Izzo - 2004 and K Stephen Gostkowski - 2008). He also tutored the AFC's leading kickoff returner on two occasions (WR Bethel Johnson – 2003 and RB Kevin Faulk - 2002) and leading punt returner (WR Troy Brown - 2002).

Seely worked with the Carolina Panthers from 1995-98, where he helped coach an expansion team to an NFC Championship Game appearance in just its second season. In 1996 and 1997, Panthers kickoff returner Michael Bates became the first player in 35 years to lead the league in kick return average in consecutive seasons, earning two consecutive trips to the Pro Bowl for his efforts. In 1996, Seely earned Special Teams Coach of the Year honors. He also had the league's best kicker, as John Kasay set a then NFL single-season record with 37 field goals. In addition to the success of Bates and Kasay, Carolina also boasted one of the league's top coverage units as the Panthers led the NFL in opponents average punt return (5.4 avg.) and ranked fifth in opponents average kickoff return (20.1 avg.).

Seely began his NFL career in 1989 with the Indianapolis Colts, serving as their special teams/tight ends coach for five years (1989-93). During his time with the Colts, he assisted in the development of two Pro Bowl special teamers, P Rohn Stark and WR Clarence Verdin. In 1992, the Colts had the NFL's top specials teams unit based on rankings by the Dallas Morning News. Seely then coached the Jets' special teams for one year (1994), and in that season, New York ranked fifth in the league in kickoff return defense (19.6 avg.) and sixth in punt return defense (6.8 avg.).

Seely's collegiate coaching career began as an assistant coach at South Dakota State in 1978. He then moved on to become a graduate assistant at Colorado State in 1979, before being named the Rams offensive line coach in 1980. Seely then served as the offensive line coach at Southern Methodist (1981), North Carolina State (1982), University of Pacific (1983) and Oklahoma State (1984-88).

A native of Vinton, IA, Seely earned all-conference honors as an offensive guard at South Dakota State University while majoring in economics and physical education. He and his wife, Patti, have three daughters, Sarah, Hannah and Brynn.

GREG ROMAN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

15th NFL Season | 2nd with 49ers

Greg Roman is in his second year with the 49ers after being named the team's offensive coordinator on January 14, 2011.

Under Roman's direction in 2011, the 49ers notched a 13-3 record as the offense ranked in the NFL's top 10 in points per game (23.8 - tied for 10th), rushing yards per game (127.8 - 8th) and time of possession (32:04 - 4th). Additionally, the offense commited just 10 turnovers (5 fumbles, 5 interceptions), which ranks tied for first in NFL history for the fewest turnovers in a season, also setting a franchise record.

In Roman's first year with the 49ers, RB Frank Gore was named to his third career Pro Bowl and surpassed Hall of Famer Joe "The Jet" Perry as the franchise's all-time leading rusher. QB Alex Smith flourished in Roman's system, setting career highs in completions (273), passing yards (3,144) and quarterback rating (90.7). Smith also set the franchise record for fewest interceptions thrown in a season (5).

TE Vernon Davis grew in the offense throughout the season. He took his game to the next level in the playoffs, registering 10 receptions for 292 yards and four touchdowns in two games. Davis became just the fifth player in the Super Bowl era to register at least two receiving touchdowns in consecutive postseason games in the same season. T Joe Staley also flourished under Roman, as he was named Second-Team All-Pro and was selected as a starter in his first career Pro Bowl.

In what marks his 15th season coaching in the NFL, Roman has been a member of the coaching staffs of the Carolina Panthers (1995-2001), Houston Texans (2002-03) and Baltimore Ravens (2006-07). He also spent two seasons (2009-10) on Jim Harbaugh's coaching staff at Stanford.

Roman joined the Cardinal in 2009 as the running game coordinator, with position responsibilities of tight ends and offensive tackles. In 2010, he kept those responsibilities, but also added the duties of associate coach and assistant head coach of the offense.

During his time at Stanford, the Cardinal posted a 20-6 record, which was the best over a two-year span in the University's history. He mentored two Heisman runner-up candidates in QB Andrew Luck (2010) and RB Toby Gerhart (2009). Over those two seasons, the Cardinal allowed a total of 13 sacks on offense, which marked the fewest over that time span in the nation. Stanford allowed just seven sacks in 2009 and six sacks in 2010, ranking 2nd in the nation both years.

Roman oversaw a Cardinal offense in 2010 that ranked 9th nationally in points scored (40.3 points/game), 14th in total yards per game (472.5), 17th in rushing yards per game (213.8) and 1st in time of possession (34:34). Under his guidance, Stanford offense produced a school-record 524 points. Roman mentored a tight end trio of Coby Fleener, Konrad Reuland and Zach Ertz, who combined for a total of 833 receiving yards on 65 catches with 13 touchdowns.

A year prior, Roman's sophisticated blocking schemes and knowledge of the running game were major factors in the Cardinal amassing a single-season school record of 2,837 yards on the ground in 2009. At season's end, all five members of the offensive line garnered postseason honors, while Stanford's tight ends combined to catch 38 passes for 557 yards and four touchdowns.

Prior to arriving at Stanford, Roman served as the assistant offensive line coach for a Baltimore Ravens team that captured the 2006 AFC North Division title with a regular season mark of 13-3. He helped the Ravens improve to 17th in the NFL in total offense and 2nd in fewest sacks allowed with 17, setting a franchise record. Baltimore also led the NFL in time of possession and set team records for completion percentage (62.6%), third down conversions (96), fourth-down percentage (72.7%) and fewest turnovers (23). The offensive line helped quarterback Steve McNair set a team record for pass completion percentage (63.0%) and most passes without an interception (162). In addition, left tackle Jonathan Ogden was voted to his 10th-straight Pro Bowl.

Prior to joining the staff in Baltimore, Roman enjoyed a four-year coaching stint with the Houston Texans, serving as the team's tight ends (2002-03) and quarterbacks coach (2004-05). As tight ends coach, Roman tutored Billy Miller, who led the Texans with 91 receptions over two seasons. He also guided former 2002 NFL first round draft pick David Carr, who had his best season under Roman in 2004 when he passed for 3,531 yards and an 83.1 quarterback rating.

Roman launched his coaching career with the Carolina Panthers in 1995, the team's inaugural season in the NFL, when he was named the strength and conditioning assistant/defensive quality control coach, while also working with the defensive backs and the linebackers. In 1996, the Panthers set a NFL record for most wins by an expansion team, as Carolina won the NFC West crown and advanced to the NFC Championship game. He then moved to the offensive side of the ball as Carolina's offensive quality control coach for two seasons (1997-98) before assuming the role of offensive assistant for the 1999 and 2000 campaigns. As the team's offensive assistant, he worked with both the run-and-pass game strategy and implementation, helping the Panthers finish 2nd in the NFL in passing offense and 5th in yards per rush. Roman worked as the team's assistant offensive line coach in his final season with the Panthers in 2001.

A three-year letter-winner and two-year starting defensive lineman at John Carroll University from 1990-93, Roman earned All-Ohio Conference honorable mention honors following his senior season. He also helped the Blue Streaks capture a share of the OAC championship.

During his junior year at John Carroll, Roman participated in Project H.O.P.E. (Helping Others Through Physical Education) which aids the developmentally disabled in northeast Ohio.

A native of Ventnor, N.J. and a graduate of Holy Spirit High School, Greg and his wife, Dana, have three children, Connor, Gregory and Emily Grace.

VIC FANGIO

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

26th NFL Season | 2nd with 49ers

With an extensive coaching background that spans more than two decades, Vic Fangio is in his second season as defensive coordinator of the San Francisco 49ers.

In 2011, Fangio led a 49ers defensive unit that ranked first in the NFL against the run (77.3 yards per game), tied for first with 38 takeaways and second in points allowed (14.3 points per game). The defense did not allow a rushing touchdown through the first 14 games of the season, setting a new NFL record. The unit allowed just three rushing touchdowns all season, which is the lowest total allowed since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978. The 49ers defense also led the NFC in points allowed (14.3), yards allowed per game (325.9), opposing quarterback rating (73.6), first downs allowed (267) and ranked second in red zone defense (41.2 pct.).

Under Fangio's direction, the 49ers defense had four players named to the All-Pro team and four selected to the Pro Bowl. DT Justin Smith became the first player ever to be named First and Second-Team All-Pro at different positions in the same phase of the game (First-Team All-Pro at defensive tackle; Second-Team All-Pro at defensive end). Smith was also selected to his third consecutive Pro Bowl.

LB NaVorro Bowman led the team with 173 tackles and was named First-Team All-Pro. LB Patrick Willis ranked second on the team with 121 tackles and set career-highs with four forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and 12 passes defensed. Willis was also named First-Team All-Pro and was selected as a starter in the Pro Bowl. LB Aldon Smith set the franchise rookie sack record, tallying 14.0 sacks on the season. CB Carlos Rogers was named Second-Team All-Pro and a starter in his first career Pro Bowl, while S Dashon Goldson made his first trip to Hawaii.

Fangio, enters his 26th season coaching in the NFL, which includes 12 years of experience as a defensive coordinator for four NFL teams - Carolina (1995-98), Indianapolis Colts (1999-2001), Houston Texans (2002-05) and San Francisco (2011). As a defensive coordinator, Fangio has directed defensive units that have led the NFL or ranked among the top three teams in seven or more major statistical categories.

Fangio was the defensive coordinator for Stanford in 2010, where he led one of the nation's top defenses. He was unanimously selected as college football's Defensive Coordinator of the Year by three different media entities.

The Cardinal defense made significant strides under Fangio's guidance, improving from a 90th ranked unit nationally in 2009 to a defense that ranked in the top-25 nationally in six major defensive categories in 2010. Stanford finished the year ranked 10th in scoring defense (17.4 points/game), 11th in sacks (36), 16th in passing defensive efficiency (112.79), 19th in rushing defense (120.8 yards/game), t-19th in interceptions (18) and 21st in total defense (322.8 yards/game). Within the Pac-10 Conference, the Cardinal improved from 8th to 1st in both scoring defense and sacks, while moving from 9th to 2nd in takeaways and yards allowed. In addition, Stanford posted three Pac-10 shutouts on the year; marking the first time ever the Cardinal had held opponents scoreless in three contests in a single season.

Prior to joining Stanford, Fangio served on the Baltimore Ravens coaching staff from 2006-09 as a special assistant to the head coach and linebackers coach. In his four seasons with Baltimore, the Ravens led the NFL in total defense in 2006, ranked second in 2008 and third in 2009.

Fangio spent the previous four seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Houston Texans (2002-05). His 2002 defense ranked eighth in the AFC overall and fourth in the conference in pass defense. The Texans scored three defensive touchdowns against the Pittsburgh Steelers at Heinz Field in Week 14 en route to a 24-6 victory.

In 2004, the Texans set a team record and ranked fifth in the NFL with 22 interceptions, five of which were returned for touchdowns. Houston did not allow a touchdown for 13 straight quarters from Week 13 to 16, posting the longest stretch by any team in the league that season.

Fangio served as the defensive coordinator of the Indianapolis Colts from 1999-2001. The Colts posted a 13-3 record in Fangio's first season after going just 6-26 the previous two years. Indianapolis won its first division title in 15 years, while the Colts defense improved from last to 15th under his guidance. The 2000 Colt defense tallied 42 sacks and made strides in all other statistical categories.

In 1995, Fangio was named defensive coordinator of the expansion Carolina Panthers. The Panthers tied for seventh in total defense and ranked sixth in scoring defense, 10th in rushing defense, fifth in takeaways and second in defensive passer rating in its inaugural season.

In 1996, the Panthers won the NFC West title and reached the NFC Championship game in just their second year of existence. The Panther defense allowed just 218 points on the year, ranking second in the NFL. Carolina also yielded just five touchdowns and 56 points in the second half of games for the entire season, breaking an NFL record set by the 1985 Chicago Bears that still stands today. The Panthers defense also led the NFL in sacks and 3rd down defense. Fangio's defense featured three All-Pro linebackers in Lamar Lathon, Sam Mills and Kevin Greene.

Fangio spent nine seasons as the linebackers coach of the New Orleans Saints, starting in 1986. In his second year, the Saints advanced to the playoffs for the first time in franchise history and came back the following year to finish with a 10-6 record. Fangio coached the vaunted "Dome Patrol," which included All-Pro linebackers Rickey Jackson, Pat Swilling, Sam Mills and Vaughan Johnson. The group was the only linebacking unit from one team voted to the Pro Bowl on the first ballot. That group was later voted the best linebacking unit in NFL history by NFL Network.

After attending East Stroudsburg University, Fangio began his coaching career in 1979 as the linebackers coach at his alma mater, Dunmore (PA) High School, and was later promoted to defensive coordinator in 1980. He spent 1982 as the defensive coordinator at Milford (CT.) Academy before landing his first collegiate coaching position at the University of North Carolina, where he served as a graduate assistant in 1983.

Following a one-year stay in Chapel Hill, Fangio spent the 1984 and 1985 seasons as a defensive assistant with the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL, helping the team to back-to-back league titles.

Fangio was inducted into the Northeast Pennsylvania Hall of Fame in 1993. Vic has one son, Christian, and one daughter, Cassie.

QUARTERBACKS

20th NFL Season | 2nd with 49ers

Geep Chryst is in his second season with the 49ers after being named the team's quarterbacks coach on January 19, 2011.

Chryst helped guide QB Alex Smith to his best NFL season in 2011. Smith set career highs in passing yards (3,144), completions (273), and passer rating (90.7). He also set the franchise record for fewest interceptions thrown in a single-season with just five. Smith's five interceptions are tied for third in NFL history (min. 400 atts.) and his interception percentage of 1.1 also ranks third in NFL history (min. 400 atts.). Most importantly, he posted a 14-4 overall record as the starter, in 2011.

With over 20 years of coaching experience, including 18 years in the NFL, Chryst most recently served as the tight ends/offensive quality control coach for the Carolina Panthers (2006-10). In 2009, Chryst was part of an offensive coaching staff that helped the Panthers become the first team in the history of the NFL to garner two running backs with more than 1,100 yards rushing in the same season. His tight end unit also posted the most productive receiving season for Panthers tight ends in a decade that year.

Before joining Carolina in 2006, Chryst served as the Arizona Cardinals quarterbacks coach (2001-03) and San Diego Chargers offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (1999-2000). Chryst implemented the no-huddle offense in San Diego in 1999, which led to Harbaugh enjoying the second-highest passing output (2,761 passing yards) of his 15-year career. The Chargers also completed the most passes (332) in 13 years with Chryst directing the offense and Harbaugh became the first quarterback in team history since Hall of Famer Dan Fouts to pass for 400 yards in a game, that year.

Chryst spent three seasons with the Cardinals, serving as the team's tight ends coach from 1996-97 before becoming the quarterbacks coach in 1998. He began his NFL coaching career with the Chicago Bears in 1991 as the director of research/quality control, a position he held until 1995. In the spring of 1992, Chryst, after being out of uniform for eight years, took a 15-day hiatus from the Bears to long snap in three playoff games for the short-handed Orlando Thunder of the World League. Interestingly, he had made his professional coaching debut with the Thunder in 1991, serving as the wide receivers/running backs coach.

Chryst began his coaching career at University of Wisconsin-Platteville in 1987 before moving over to the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1988. Chryst then spent two years at the University of Wyoming, serving as the offensive line coach in 1989 and the quarterbacks coach in 1990.

Under the direction of Drevno and Solari, the 49ers offensive line helped pave the way for RB Frank Gore as he became the franchise's all-time leading rusher in 2011. Members of the offensive line were also honored as T Joe Staley was named second-team All-Pro and was selected to his first career Pro Bowl, while G Mike Iupati and C Jonathan Goodwin were selected as alternates.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Drevno served as a member of Jim Harbaugh's coaching staff at Stanford from 2007-10. Over the course of his final two seasons with the Cardinal, Drevno coached a Stanford offensive line that allowed just 13 sacks during that span, ranking 2nd in the nation in both 2009 (7) and 2010 (6). In addition, the Cardinal offensive line led the way for a ground game that set a school record with 2,837 rushing yards (11th nationally – 218.2 yards/game) in 2009, followed by 2,779 yards in 2010.

Drevno mentored center Chase Beeler, who earned first-team All-American AFCA, AP and Sporting News, and second-team Walter Camp All-America in 2010. A year prior, all five members of the offensive line garnered postseason honors following the 2009 season. Prior to taking over the Cardinal offensive line in 2009, Drevno served as tight ends coach from 2007-08.

Prior to his arrival at Stanford, Drevno was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at the University of San Diego (2003-06). The Toreros won back-to-back NCAA Division I-AA Mid-Major national titles and Pioneer League championships in 2005 and 2006. Under his direction as offensive coordinator, the Toreros led the nation in total offense twice, finished 3rd once and 9th on the other occasion.

The 2006 San Diego squad that finished 11-1 overall led all NCAA Division I-AA teams in passing offense (293.3 yards/game), total offense (494.25 yards/game) and scoring offense (42.83 points/game). Quarterback Josh Johnson was one of four offensive All-Americans on the team and led all NCAA Division I-AA quarterbacks in passing yards (3,320), passing efficiency (169.0), touchdown passes (34), and total offense (336.7 ypg). He also posted 721 yards and 11 touchdowns rushing and one touchdown receiving. Johnson went on to be selected by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the fifth round of the NFL draft in 2008.

San Diego set numerous offensive school records in 2005, including points per game (42.6) and total offense (485.2 yards/game). In 2004, the Torero offense averaged 432.4 yards of total offense per game to rank 9th in the nation. The Toreros were also 11th in scoring offense (36.1 points/game) and 12th in passing offense (275.4 yards/game). Drevno directed USD's West Coast offense to 483.3 yards per game to lead the nation and a Pioneer Football League best 39.9 points per game in 2003, when the squad finished 8-2 and was co-champs of the Pioneer Football League's North Division.

Drevno was the offensive line coach at Idaho for three seasons (2000-02) prior to joining the USD staff. The Vandal offense ranked 6th in the nation in 2001 and 8th in 2000. He coached three NFL players while at Idaho, including Jake Scott, Rick Demulling and Patrick Venzke.

Prior to his tenure at Idaho, Drevno's previous coaching stops included San Jose State (offensive line - 1999), UNLV (running backs - 1998) and Montana State (tight ends - 1993-95; running backs 1996-97).

Drevno began his collegiate playing career at El Camino College, where he helped lead his club to a national title in 1987 and earned All-Mission League honors the following season. He then went on to start on the Cal State Fullerton offensive line for two seasons. Drevno was an all-league player at South Torrance High School.

Drevno earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Cal State-Fullerton in 1992. Tim and his wife Shannon are the parents of three children, McKenna, Zachary and Baylee.

JIM LEAVITT

LINEBACKERS

2nd NFL Season | 2nd with 49ers

With over 30 years of coaching experience in the collegiate ranks, Jim Leavitt is in his second season as the linebackers coach for the 49ers after being hired on January 19, 2011.

In 2011, Leavitt led a linebacking corps that featured two, First-Team All-Pro selections, LB Patrick Willis and LB NaVorro Bowman. Bowman, in his first year as a starter, led the team with 173 tackles, while adding two sacks and two fumble recoveries. Willis ranked second on the team with 121 tackles and set career-highs with four forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and 12 passes defensed. The 49ers also ranked first in the NFL in run defense, in 2011.

Prior to joining San Francisco, Leavitt was the head coach at the University of South Florida, a position he held since the program's inception in 1995. In 13 seasons, he led the Bulls to a 95-57 record.

The program began play in 1997 at the division I-AA level and immediate success propelled the Bulls to a national ranking for 24 consecutive weeks. In 2001, South Florida became a Division I-A independent before moving to Conference USA, in 2003. Leavitt's continued success helped South Florida move into the Big East prior to the 2005 season. That year, Leavitt led the Bulls to their first ever Bowl appearance.

Since becoming a member of the Big East Conference in 2005, Leavitt led the Bulls to a 40-24 record, including five consecutive Bowl appearances, posting a 3-2 record in those games. South Florida's ascension into the top 25 from entry into I-A/FCS was the fastest in NCAA history, surpassing Boise State's rise by a mere seven weeks. The Bulls achieved another record on September 30, 2007, when they became the fastest program of the modern era to reach the top 10, landing at No. 6 in the AP Poll and No. 9 in the Coaches' Poll. On October 14, 2007, South Florida received its first ever BCS ranking as the No. 2 team in the nation behind only the Ohio State Buckeyes. That week, the team was also ranked No. 2 in the AP Poll and No. 3 in both the Coaches' and the Harris Interactive Poll.

Prior to becoming the head coach at South Florida, Leavitt worked under legendary coach Bill Snyder at Kansas State from 1990-95. Leavitt served as the linebackers coach for two seasons before becoming the defensive coordinator. He was instrumental in building a Wildcat defense that improved from 93rd in the nation in 1993 to the number one ranked unit in 1995.

His coaching career began as a graduate assistant at the University of Missouri (1978-79). Leavitt followed that by serving as the defensive coordinator at the University of Dubuque (IA) from 1980-81. He then spent five seasons at Morning Side College (IA), working as the special teams coordinator for one year before being named the defensive coordinator in 1983.

In 1988, Leavitt turned his attention towards obtaining his Ph.D in psychology from the University of Iowa, an endeavor he had been pursing sporadically since 1982. By 1989, Leavitt simply needed to complete his dissertation when Iowa head coach Hayden Fry offered him a graduate position. With the coaching bug in his blood, Leavitt jumped at the opportunity and was able to fast track his coaching career in I-A football. Following the '89 season, Leavitt was named to Bill Snyder's staff at Kansas State.

A native of Harlingen, TX, Leavitt is married to his wife, Jody, and the couple has two daughters, Sofia and Isabella. Leavitt also has another daughter, Deandra.

Morton originally signed with Oakland as an undrafted rookie wide receiver in 1993, and spent part of the next two seasons (1993-94) on the Raiders practice squad. He also spent time with Green Bay in 1993 and was in training camp with the Jacksonville Jaguars in 1995. Morton returned to training camp with the Raiders again in 1996. He played for the CFL's Toronto Argonauts in 1995 and 1996, and later with the World League's Frankfurt Galaxy in the spring of 1997.

TOM RATHMAN

RUNNING BACKS

15th NFL Season | 10th with 49ers

Tom Rathman rejoined the 49ers as the team's running backs coach in 2009 after serving the previous two seasons in the same capacity with the Oakland Raiders. It marks Rathman's second coaching stint in San Francisco, having also coached the running backs for the team from 1997 to 2002.

Under Rathman's tutelage, RB Frank Gore has solidified his reputation as one of the premier backs in the league. In 2011, Gore was selected to his third career Pro Bowl as he became the franchise's all-time leading rusher, surpassing Hall of Famer Joe "The Jet" Perry. Gore also became the first player in franchise history to rush for over 100 yards in five consecutive games. Rathman also played a key role in developing starting FB Bruce Miller as he made the transition to the offensive side of the ball after starring at defensive end in college. The offense finished the season with the league's eighth-best run game.

Gore was having one of the best seasons of his career in 2010 before being placed on Injured Reserve with a hip injury. Despite playing in only 11 games, he earned Pro Bowl recognition as an alternate at season's end. At the time of his injury, Gore ranked fifth in the NFC in rushing yards (853) and second in yards from scrimmage (1,305).

A year prior, Gore became the first player in 49ers history to rush for more than 1,000 yards in four seasons (2006-09), as the fifth year veteran posted 1,120 rushing yards and a career-high 10 rushing touchdowns on the season, despite missing two games due to injury. For his efforts, Gore was named an alternate for the 2010 Pro Bowl, and eventually played in the honorary game. He also was twice named NFC Offensive Player of the Week (2 & 14).

While with the Raiders, Rathman oversaw a rushing attack that ranked 10th (124.2 ypg) in the NFL in 2008 after ranking 6th (130.4 ypg) a year prior. Rathman played an instrumental role in developing RB Justin Fargas, who rushed for 1,009 yards in 2007 and 853 yards in 2008.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Rathman served as the running backs coach for the Detroit Lions from 2003 to 2005. In 2004, Rathman tutored RB Kevin Jones, who rushed for 1,133 yards, including an NFL-leading 825 yards on 153 attempts (5.4 avg.) over the final seven games of the season. Jones' performance in his first NFL season was tops among rookies in the NFL that year and the best rookie season by a Lions running back since RB Barry Sanders in 1989.

During Rathman's first coaching stint with the 49ers, San Francisco's rushing attack finished in the top 10 among NFL teams in five of the six seasons under his guidance, including top-ranked seasons in 1998 (159.0 ypg) and 1999 (130.9 ypg), to go along with a 2nd ranked unit in 2001 (140.3).

In 2001, Rathman was instrumental in guiding RB Garrison Hearst, the two-time NFL Comeback Player of the Year, to his second career Pro Bowl selection. He coached RB Charlie Garner to his second consecutive 1,000-yard season and his first career Pro Bowl selection in 2000 after gaining 1,142 yards on 258 carries and a career-high seven touchdowns. Garner also eclipsed his career-highs with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns.

Prior to his coaching career, Rathman enjoyed an NFL playing career of his own that spanned nine seasons (1986-94) as a fullback. He entered the league as a third round pick by San Francisco, where he spent the first eight years of his career helping the 49ers capture two World Championships (Super Bowl XXIII and XXIV) and seven NFC West titles. In 1989, he led all NFL running backs in receiving with 73 receptions for 616 yards. Rathman played his final season in the NFL with the Los Angeles Raiders in 1994, closing out his NFL career with 2,020 rushing yards, 320 receptions for 2,684 yards and 34 total touchdowns.

In between his playing and coaching career in the NFL, the Grand Island, Nebraska native helped rebuild the Menlo College (CA) program by serving as the team's offensive coordinator in 1996 after serving as the running backs coach at Serra High School in San Mateo (CA) in 1995.

A three-year letterman at Nebraska, Rathman rushed for 1,425 yards and averaged more than six yards per carry.

Rathman and his wife, Holly, have three daughters: Nicole, Alexandra, and Samantha.

Staley was named second-team All-Pro and was selected to his first Pro Bowl as a starter, while Iupati and Goodwin were named Pro Bowl alternates.

The offensive line led the way for RB Frank Gore as he became the franchise's all-time leading rusher, surpassing Hall of Famer Joe "The Jet" Perry. Gore, who was also selected to the Pro Bowl, set the franchise record rushing for over 100 yards in five consecutive games. He finished the season ranked sixth in the NFL with 1,211 rushing yards in 2011. The offense finished the season with the league's eighth-best run game.

In 2010, Solari relied on his extensive experience as he helped shuffle an offensive line that was plagued by injury, while also integrating first round draft picks T Anthony Davis and G Mike Iupati into the starting lineup. After a season-ending injury to starting center Eric Heitmann in training camp, Solari was able to quickly find a replacement in David Baas, who hadn't started a game at center since college. Baas went on to start all 16 games for the 49ers and earned the coveted Bobb McKittrick Award as voted upon by his teammates.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Solari spent two seasons (2008-09) as the offensive line coach for the Seattle Seahawks. Under his direction, tackle Walter Jones was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2008.

Following his initial stint with the 49ers, Solari spent nine seasons as the offensive line coach for Kansas City (1997-2005). With Solari directing the Kansas City offensive line, the team averaged 126.8 rushing yards per game, ranking fourth in the NFL during that time span.

Solari's line produced a trio of Pro Bowl offensive linemen in 2004 and 2005, in guards Will Shields and Brian Waters, as well as tackle Willie Roaf. Kansas City became the first club to accomplish that feat since Dallas from 1993-96. As a result of his offensive line's dominance, the Chiefs offense led the league in total offense in 2004 (franchise-record 418.4 ypg) and 2005 (387.0 ypg).

The Daly City, CA, native was later promoted by the Chiefs to offensive coordinator in 2006. During his 11-year tenure in Kansas City, the team finished in the top 10 in rushing on seven occasions, in the top five four times, and ranked 6th in the NFL in total offense (359.2 yards per game) over that span. Solari was one of just six assistant coaches in team history to record more than a decade of service with the franchise.

While with the 49ers from 1992 to 1996, Solari was largely responsible for the development of tight end Brent Jones, who made four Pro Bowl appearances, and was instrumental in the team's successful Super Bowl XXIX season.

Solari began his NFL coaching career with the Dallas Cowboys in 1987, where he was the assistant offensive line/special teams coach for two seasons. He moved on to the Phoenix Cardinals to work with Gene Stallings for one season, before joining him at the University of Alabama (1990-91).

In 1976, Solari's coaching career began at Mission Bay (CA) High School, followed by stints at Mira Costa Junior College (1978) and U.S. International (1979). The following year, he helped lead Boise State to the NCAA Division I-AA Championship. He spent additional time on the collegiate level at Cincinnati (1981-82) and Kansas (1983-85), and later served as the offensive coordinator at the University of Pittsburgh (1986).

A former offensive lineman at San Diego State, Solari was a teammate of former Chiefs head coach and current ESPN analyst Herm Edwards, as well as Carolina Panthers head coach John Fox.

Solari is married to wife, Patti, and the couple has three children, Tamara, Stephanie and Michael.

JIM TOMSULA

DEFENSIVE LINE

6th NFL Season | 6th with 49ers

Jim Tomsula is in his sixth season with the 49ers as the team's defensive line coach, after having also served as San Francisco's interim head coach for the final game of the 2010 season.

Since Tomsula's arrival, the 49ers run defense and pass rush have steadily improved. During his five seasons with the team, the defense has allowed a mere 3.64 yards per carry, to rank second in the NFL during that span. In terms of yards per carry allowed, San Francisco's defense ranked 5th (3.8) in 2007, 8th (3.8) in 2008, 3rd (3.6) in 2009, 2nd (3.5) in 2010 and 1st (3.5) in 2011, a notable improvement from ranking 16th (4.1) in 2006 prior to Tomsula's arrival.

In 2011, the 49ers set the NFL record by not allowing a rushing touchdown in their first 14 games of the season. The team only allowed three rushing touchdowns all year, the fewest allowed in the NFL since the league went to a 16 game schedule in 1978. The 49ers finished the season ranked first in the NFL against the run (77.3 yards per game), first in yard per carry allowed (3.5) and fourth overall, allowing just 308.2 yards of offense per game. The unit also finished second in the league in points allowed per game (14.3 and tied for seventh in sacks (42).

Tomsula led a defensive line that was anchored by DT Justin Smith. Smith was named to his third consecutive Pro Bowl as a starter, in 2011, and was First-Team All-Pro at defensive tackle and Second-Team All-Pro at defensive end, becoming the first player ever named First and Second-Team All-Pro at different position in the same phase of the game.

In 2010, the 49ers ranked 6th in the NFL in run defense, allowing just 1,547 rushing yards (96.7 ypg), marking the lowest rushing total allowed by the team since 1997 (1,366 yards). DT Justin Smith was named to the Pro Bowl for the second consecutive year after recording 8.5 sacks, the most since his rookie season.

A year prior, the 49ers ranked 6th (97.0 ypg) in the NFL against the run, as Smith finished the year among the team leaders in tackles (90), while also posting 6.0 sacks, 2 FFs and 2 FRs. For his efforts, he appeared in the 2010 Pro Bowl as an alternate.

Also charged with the development of the team's pass rush, Tomsula has helped the 49ers increase their sack totals from 65 over his first two seasons to 80 the past two years. After ranking tied for 3rd in 2009 with 44 sacks, the 49ers posted 36 in 2010 for a two-year total that ranked 7th in the NFL over that span.

The epitome of a journeyman, Tomsula has coached 28 seasons of football at the high school, college and professional levels since the Fall of 1989. During that span he spent one entire year out of football (1996) and has held a multitude of coaching titles including - head coach, assistant head coach, defensive coordinator, special teams coach, linebackers coach, defensive line coach and strength and conditioning coach.

Tomsula joined the 49ers after enjoying one of the most successful stints in NFL Europa history. Prior to being named the head coach of the Rhein Fire in 2006, which made him the youngest coach in NFLE history at age 38, Tomsula served as the Berlin Thunder's defensive coordinator for two seasons, winning World Bowl XII in his first season with a defense that ranked first in the NFLE against the run.

Tomsula joined the NFLE in 1998 as the defensive line coach of the England Monarchs. He then went on to serve in the same capacity for five seasons with the Scottish Claymores, where he established a reputation for producing some of the league's most dominant lines. He also played a leading role in mentoring and teaching young talent in the league's National Player Development program.

Between NFL Europa seasons, Tomsula spent each fall as a member of Division II Catawba College's coaching staff, as coaching in the NFLE was not a year-round post. While at Catawba, he was part of numerous college all-star games in a coaching capacity.

Tomsula was a defensive lineman at Catawba College in Salisbury, NC, after transferring from Middle Tennessee State. In 1989, he started his coaching career as an assistant at his alma mater after a knee injury ended his playing career. He went on to coach the defensive line coach at Woodland Hills (PA) High School in 1990.

Interestingly, Tomsula spent two seasons out of football. He served as a sales rep for Thera-Kinetics, a medical equipment company, in 1991, until he landed a job as an assistant at Charleston Southern University, SC, (1992-95). In order to make ends meet in Charleston, Tomsula held many odd jobs such as delivering newspapers for The Post and Courier, serving as a night janitor at an insurance agency, and cutting firewood. After his stint at Charleston Southern, he returned to his hometown of Pittsburgh, PA, where he cleaned the floors at a department store until landing a job as a sales rep at Cisco Foods. Tomsula returned to the coaching ranks in 1997, as the volunteer assistant defensive line coach at Catawba. With no income from his coaching passion, he again picked up a part-time job as an entry-way carpeting salesman and even lived out of his car at times.

He and his wife, Julie, reside in San Jose with their daughters Britney and Brooke, and son Bear.

// GOLDMINE

- A vocal leader on and off the field, it didn't take Akers long to fit in with the 49ers. "I've seen a lot of leadership from David in the locker room," said 49ers head coach Jim Harbaugh. "I knew he was a great guy and a high-character guy, but I didn't anticipate what kind of a leader he was and what kind of impact he'd have on our team. I don't know if I've ever seen a kicker be as much of a leader as David has been. He's just an interesting guy. He works, he loves his family, he trains dogs. There's a lot to him. He takes the time and works to get to know the other players on the team. I can't say enough about him. A class act all the way."
- In 1997-98, Akers worked as a substitute teacher at Westport Middle School in Louisville between stints with Carolina and Atlanta. After being released by Washington in 1998, he returned to Atlanta because his wife, Erika, had found a job with Lucent Technologies. David then picked up a part-time job as a waiter at Longhorn Steakhouse in Lawrenceville, GA, until signing with the Eagles on 1/11/99.
- Akers founded Kicks for Kids in 2001, to provide assistance to the patients and their families at The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. "David's Locker" program directly assists families with unexpected emergency needs such as medical supplies, meals, clothing, utilities, mass transit and cab vouchers. KFK helps fund the staffing at The Little Rock Resource Center at CHOP, which helps the blind and visually impaired. "I have been visiting CHOP once a week since my rookie season," said Akers. "Over the years, I have seen so many families struggling to care for their sick children and I want to help them in any way I can." For more information visit DavidAkersKicksForKids.org.

// GOLDMINE

- Bakhtiari realized he was in a very fortunate situation when he entered the league in 2008. He wanted to find ways to give back to the community, and after a passionate conversation with then San Diego Chargers teammate Jamal Williams, Bakhtiari found his way. He decided to grow out his hair and donate it to Locks of Love, a non-profit organization that provides hairpieces to disadvantaged children suffering from long-term medical hair loss. "Jamal told me 'You have no idea how much it means to the kids," Bakhtiari said. "To be 14 years old and to not have hair can be kind of embarrassing for them, so I decided I was going to grow my hair out." Fast forward two years later, Bakhtiari's hair grew to the appropriate length. At the end of the 2010 season he made the big donation to Locks of Love. His mission was complete.

STANFORD | 1ST YEAR
BORN 12.28.87 | JENKS, OK
ACQUIRED IN '11
JENKS HS, JENKS, OK

A three-year starter under then-head coach Jim Harbaugh at Stanford, Chase Beeler spent his rookie year on the 49ers practice squad in 2011 with former Cardinal teammates T Derek Hall and TE Konrad Reuland. Signed as an undrafted free agent on 7/27/11, Beeler possesses a quick first step and a high football IQ. An AP First-Team All-American in 2010, Beeler played in and started all 32 games at Stanford after transferring from Oklahoma following his freshman year.

// TRANSACTIONS

- As a freshman at Oklahoma, Beeler was confronted with an issue that appeared to have no solution. He managed to balance athletics and academics from childhood throughout high school, but based on the path he saw in front of him, it looked impossible to be both a high caliber athlete and a serious, devoted scholar. "After much reflection, I made the only decision that seemed right," said Beeler. "I would have to give up organized sports, an element that had formed a core part of my identity for, at the time, more than 15 years in order to follow my intellectual aspirations." At the last moment, however, an alternative presented itself in the opportunity to transfer to Stanford and continue his athletic career there. Four and a half years later, Beeler reconciled the athletic and intellectual components of his identity. "I have also learned that, far from being incompatible, the two are actually different sides of the same coin." Beeler went on stating, "If properly managed, the relationship between the two is actually mutually beneficial and reinforcing. The same values and mindset that foster success in the classroom can be applied on the field of competition as well." Beeler's instincts about the Stanford program proved correct. During his senior year at Stanford, he was selected to the 2010 ESPN Academic All-America team and named a first team All-American by the Associated Press. "It took me less than 24 hours to see what might not have been apparent to everyone else at the time, that good things were happening here."

// 2011

- Spent the season on the 49ers practice squad.

// COLLEGE

Beeler played in and started all 32 games at Stanford. In 2010, he was named AP first-team All-American, first-team All-Pac-10 and second-team All-American by the Walter Camp Football Foundation. In his first season as Stanford's starting center, he earned second team All-Pac-10 Conference honors (2009). He started all 13 games and played a key role on a line that allowed the fewest sacks (7) in the Pac-10, helping pave the way for the top rushing attack in school history (2,837). Was also a recipient of the Vardell Award as the player who best combines athletics and academics. Made seven starts at left guard in 2008. Suffered a high-ankle sprain at Washington (9/28/08) and missed the next 3 games. Sat out the 2007 season to satisfy NCAA transfer rules. In 2006, Beeler saw action in 5 games (1 start) as a true freshman at Oklahoma.

ACQUIRED FA IN '09
ST. EDWARD HS, CLEVELAND, OH

Alex Boone reached a significant milestone in his career when he took the field in the team's season-finale against the Arizona Cardinals in 2010. The game marked his first regular season action as a pro, which was an achievement many would have felt far-fetched two years ago. Boone was originally signed as a rookie free agent by the 49ers in 2009 and spent his entire rookie season on the team's practice squad. When Boone reported to mini-camp the following year, he had lost 40 pounds of fat and replaced it with 25 pounds of lean muscle. He competed at both right and left tackle, and eventually proved his worth as he earned a spot on the 53-man roster. In 2011, Boone entered each game in short-yardage situations, and contributed on special teams. Boone was rewarded with a four-year contract extension on 12/8/11, through 2015.

// AWARDS & HONORS

2011: Madden Most Valuable Protectors Award (Week 5)

// GOLDMINE

- During the 2010 offseason, following his rookie season, Alex returned home to Lakewood, OH, where he began working out with former NFL O-lineman LeCharles Bentley. With Bentley's help and guidance, Alex returned for training in the best shape of his life, dropping 40 pounds before putting 25 pounds of muscle back on. "LeCharles helped me realize what it takes to be successful in the NFL," Alex said. "He has helped me with my footwork, my initial burst and my quickness. I know I'll be ready for whatever the coaches throw at me this season."
- The one person Alex always admired and wanted to be like was his grandfather. "My grandfather raised my brother and I with good morals and good values," said Alex. "He was always there for us." Alex saw him as the smartest of people who everyone looked up to. A very religious man, the two of them prayed together regularly and attended church every Sunday. His grandfather passed away when he was young, which left a void in his life. "It crushed me. I never really had to be by myself." Alex vividly remembers the moment he heard the news. "I remember I was eating pizza and I was 13 years old." Talking to his grandmother about him has been a breath of fresh air, reassuring Alex that his grandfather will always be with him. "He was a funny guy who loved to laugh. He was real jokester. I try to be like him every day."

- Supported the 49ers offense in rushing for 203 yds. at Det. (10/16), marking the first time the team has rushed for over 200 yds. in back-to-back games (10/9 vs. TB, 213 yds.) since 12/6/98 at Car. (236 yds.) and 12/14/98 vs. Det. (328 yds.).

PENN STATE | 3RD YEAR
BORN 5.28.88 | DISTRICT HEIGHTS, MD
ACQUIRED D-3 IN '10
SUITLAND HS, FORESTVILLE, MD

Talent, hustle, toughness and determination are all attributes 49ers linebacker NaVorro Bowman displayed during his first two seasons in the NFL. In 2011, Bowman was a rock in the middle of the defense, leading the team with 173 tackles and was named AP First-Team All-Pro. Growing up in a crime and drug-infested neighborhood, Bowman relied on sports and a strong support system to keep him pointed in the right direction.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally a 3rd-round (91st overall) draft choice by SF in 2010.

// AWARDS & HONORS

2011: AP First-Team All-Pro, All-Pro Team by Sports Illustrated's Peter King, Defensive Player of the Year & All-Pro Team by Dallas Morning News' Rick Gosselin, USA Football All-Fundamentals Team

// GOLDMINE

- NaVorro was born and raised just outside of Washington D.C. in a high-crime area. It was a tough environment to avoid, but sports became his outlet and a means for not giving into the streets and drugs. "My parents had been with me since day one. Also, having a support system like my high school coach - he really let me know early on that I had something special and I shouldn't mess it up."
- NaVorro earned his degree in criminal law and justice, and one day would like to use that to help out his hometown. With all of the violence and drugs in District Heights, MD, he believes being from that area will help others listen to him and understand that there are other ways to live life than what they currently know. "That's one of the reasons I got in that field - to open doors and possibly be able to get into a young child's head from my neighborhood."
- Two important and influential people in NaVorro's life recently and abruptly passed away. His father passed away from a blood clot that reached his heart, while his high school coach died in a car accident before Penn State's bowl game in 2009. "Dealing with as much adversity as I have in a short period of time has made me the man I am today. It's made me stay on track and strive to do those things that will possibly help me be successful, not just on the football field, but off the field also."

TRAMAINE BROCK 26

CORNERBACK
5-10 | 197

BELHAVEN | 3RD YEAR
BORN 8.20.88 | GULFPORT, MS
ACQUIRED FA IN '10
LONG BEACH SR. HS, LONG BEACH, MS

A quick and physical cornerback, Tramaine Brock became the first undrafted rookie free agent to make the 49ers opening day roster in 2010, since WR Otis Amey in 2005. In 2011, Brock saw extended action on defense, setting a career high with two interceptions. A converted strong safety out of Belhaven University, Brock only played a dozen of snaps at cornerback during his collegiate career, which also included stops at Mississippi Gulf Coast Junior College and the University of Minnesota.

Originally signed by SF as an undrafted rookie FA on 4/26/10... Waived by SF 9/14/10...Signed to the practice squad by SF on 9/15/10...Signed to active roster by SF on 9/20/10...Waived by SF on 10/12/10...Signed to the practice squad by SF on 10/14/10...Re-signed to active roster by SF on 10/27/10...Re-signed one-year contract as exclusive rights free agent on 3/12/12.

// GOLDMINE

- Brock's path to the NFL was not an easy one by any means. From the small country town of Gulfport, MS, he traveled 30 miles north to Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College in Perkinston, MS, where he spent two seasons before transferring to the University of Minnesota. Why would a southern boy decide on Minnesota? "I wanted to see what a big city felt like," Brock said. After one year, he transferred back down south to Belhaven University in Jackson, MS, a small Christian NAIA school.
- In February of 2011, Belhaven retired Brock's jersey for his accomplishments on both the collegiate and professional levels. He is the only player in the history of the school's program to have played in the NFL.

// 2011

- Registered his first career INT vs. Sea. (9/11 - QB Tarvaris Jackson), leaping into the air on a hail mary pass to end the 1st half.
- With an INT vs. Dal. (9/18), Brock became the first 49er to register an INT in consecutive games (9/11 vs. Sea.) since CB Dre' Bly (12/20/09 at Phi. and 12/27/09 vs. Det.).

// 2010

- Made his NFL debut vs. Den. (10/31).
- Saw extended action at defensive back in season finale vs. Arz. (1/2), posting 3 tackles.

Totaled 72 tackles, 7 INTs and 2 FFs in 17 games at MGC. Spent his junior season at Minnesota, totaling 73 tackles, 6 PDs, 1 INT, 3 FFs and 1 FR, before transferring to Belhaven. In 11 games as a senior at Belhaven, posted 51 tackles, 13.5 TFLs, 2.5 sacks, 6 INTs, 10 PDs and 1 FR, while also returning 29 kicks for 505 yds.

// AWARDS & HONORS

2007: Thomas Herrion Award

// GOLDMINE

- In 2007, Tarell was the recipient of the Thomas Herrion Award, honoring the rookie or first-year player who has taken advantage of every opportunity, turned it into a postive and made their dream come true like Thomas Herrion. The award is voted on by the coaches.
- Tarell is a tremendous example of perseverance. At the age of 9, Tarell's mother was killed as she was getting into her car to go to work early one morning. Following his mother's death, Tarell moved in with his father, Robert, who not only saw football as an escape for his son, but also as an opportunity for him to earn a scholarship and a solid education. Just prior to the NFL Draft, his father died of a heart attack on Valentine's Day. "A day doesn't go by that I don't think about my mother and father. Everything I do nowadays is dedicated to my parents. I know without them, I wouldn't be where I'm now."
- Tarell won the Punt, Pass & Kick Championship at Texas Stadium as a 9-year-old after advancing through the city and regional finals. He was then flown to San Diego for the National Championships, where he placed 3rd.
- When his NFL career is over, Tarell is looking forward to working with kids. "I want to open up a gym and train athletes, train kids. I like to be around kids and I still want to be surrounded by sports. Maybe have a little AAU basketball team and travel around to different cities and states."
- Tarell hosted his 3rd Annual Summer Sportsfest in Dallas in June of 2010. The highlights of the weekend included free football and cheerleading camps, in addition to a celebrity basketball game featuring a large group of NFL players. Proceeds raised through the raffle and celebrity basketball game benefitted Tarell's Born Again Foundation. The foundation is dedicated to becoming the nation's foremost full-service, ex-offender program. It provides an opportunity for all ex-offenders who desire a significant change to make a positive transition into a new life. The foundation offers job counseling, educational and vocational training, and personal and family support to all who desire to not be defined by negativity in their past. Visit tarellbrown.net for additional information.
- In June 2010, Tarell was recognized for his contributions to his hometown, receiving a proclamation from the city of Mesquite.

NATE BYHAM 82

TIGHT END
6-4 | 264

PITTSBURGH | 3RD YEAR
BORN 6.27.88 | FRANKLIN, PA
ACQUIRED D-6B IN '10
FRANKLIN HS, FRANKLIN, PA

Nate Byham stepped into action immediately as a rookie, playing in 14 games with three starts after being selected in the 6th round of the 2010 NFL Draft. Unfortunately, Byham suffered a knee injury during training camp the follwoing year and was placed on IR for the 2011 season. Byham is known primarily for his blocking abilities as both a tight end and fullback, but he's also showcased his reliable hands as a receiver. He caught a pass in four consecutive games to start his rookie campaign. Raised under the watchful eye of his grandfather, Byham's personal background can be described as one of perseverance and resiliency, as he overcame a variety of obstacles on his path to the NFL.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the second of three 6th-round (182nd overall) draft choices by SF in 2010...Placed on Injured Reserve on 9/3/11 (knee).

// GOLDMINE

- Nate's grandfather played a huge role in raising him and he continues to be someone he looks up to, but Nate also credits his mother for making him the man he is today. "I saw a lot of things as a child that most grown men haven't seen in their lives. I've seen a lot of eye opening things that made me mature at a young age." By second and third grade, Nate was already taking care of himself and knew what he was going to have to do to get by. "That adversity molded me and helped me become a man."
- Nate was raised by his grandfather, Ron, from the time he was born. Nate's mom became pregnant with him when she was a junior in high school. Although she tried to raise Nate, her battle with drug and alcohol abuse was too difficult. Nate's grandparents intervened and offered to raise him. Tragically, a short time after taking him in, his grandmother passed away, leaving Ron with a baby boy. Nate stayed with his grandfather up until high school when he was able to have his own car. At that point, Nate's grandfather lived 15 minutes outside of Franklin, which was in another school district and they didn't have a football team. "During high school I lived at friends' houses. There were 2-3 families that kind of took me in. I had bedrooms at all of their houses and I lived there and out of my car."
- Nate had an amazing high school career at Franklin High School and they retired his jersey in 2005. "Coming from a small town like Franklin, I didn't realize the numbers that I was putting up." The only other player to have their jersey retired at Franklin is former NFL quarterback and head coach, Ted Marchibroda.
- Nate and his wife, Erica, are very involved in community events with the 49ers. His wife has done a lot of the events with him and has helped with the 49ers Academy and other women's events. "Hopefully after football I'll be able to get into non-profit organizations and charities because that means a lot to me since I grew up kind of a lost youth. That stuff is good for the kids."
- Nate took advantage of his time being on IR last season by studying the game of football. "It's really slowed down for me, that's the most important and the hardest thing to learn about football. Physically everything happens so fast, but mentally everything has to slow down. 2010: Commitment To Excellence Award

2011: Commitment To Excellence Award

// GOLDMINE

- Rock loves to play golf during the offseason. "After the season, I give my body about a month to rest and then I hit the golf course in late February. I usually play 2 or 3 times a week, but have been playing every day lately." While he loves playing the game, he also enjoys attending golf tournaments. "I went to the Masters this past year which was my second time attending that. I have my tickets to the Masters for next year too. I also went to the U.S. Open when it was at Congressional."
- Rock has a unique training method that he does every offseason in Arizona called Dannyball. The game is essentially volleyball but with a 19-lb medicine ball and two guys on each side. The game is played to 11 and the ball is thrown over the net instead of hitting it over. "It's a full body workout especially in that Arizona heat. It's definitely good training."
- Rock was the recipient of the Commitment to Excellence Award for his outstanding character and determination in 2010 and 2011, as voted upon by his teammates in Oakland. Cartwright's leadership on and off the field have earned him the respect of his former teammates and coaches over the years. "I try to be accountable to everybody, my teammates, accountable to the community, to the organization, and I think that's what this is about," said Cartwright during his acceptance speech at an award dinner. Proceeds from the event, including a silent and live auction, were donated to Cartwright's charity of choice - the OWIN Foundation.

Chisolm made the team as an offensive lineman and after earning his first start in early November 2009, Chisolm's quick rise to the starting lineup for an SEC squad was described as "one of the best stories in the league." Reminding the press that Chisolm had not even joined the team until two weeks before the season started, South Carolina's offensive line coach Eric Wolford told The Post and Courier: "I wouldn't think that's ever happened in the history of the SEC. It may have, but it was probably a long time ago." During the 2009 season, Chisolm established himself as one of the best players on the squad. Chris Low, SEC specialist for ESPN.com, said of Chisolm: "He really is one of the best success stories in this league, starting his career as a walk-on, working his way up to where he's not only a part of that offensive line, but he's an integral part of that offensive line and now starting."

MICHAEL CRABTREE 15

WIDE RECEIVER
6-1 | 214

TEXAS TECH | 4TH YEAR
BORN 9.14.87 | DALLAS, TX
ACQUIRED D-1 IN '09
CARTER HS, DALLAS, TX

As the 10th overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft by San Francisco, Michael Crabtree has showcased his rare combination of size, hands and run-after-the-catch ability during his first three seasons with the 49ers. A reliable receiver, Crabtree has caught a pass in each of his 44 NFL games played, which includes recording at least three receptions in 37 of those contests. Crabtree excelled in 2011, as he led the team with 72 receptions for 880 yards, both career highs, and four touchdowns. Widely considered one of the most prolific receivers in college football history, Crabtree earned the coveted Biletnikoff Award - given to the nation's best receiver - in each of his two seasons played at Texas Tech.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally drafted in the 1st-round (10th overall) by SF in 2009.

// GOLDMINE

- A nationally-ranked basketball player at Carter HS in Dallas, TX, Michael was rated among the top 50 prospects in Texas and received several scholarship offers from major colleges. As a senior, he averaged 20.8 points, 6.7 rebounds and 3.1 assists per game. Michael limited his college options to those that would allow him to play both basketball and football. He chose Texas Tech because both Bob Knight and Mike Leach recruited him.
- Michael has so many pairs of shoes he can't put a number on it. Shoes take up his parents' garages, his house in Dallas, and any other place he can store them. Some may say that's excessive, but they may not know the real reason behind his shoe collection. "Growing up I didn't have many shoes. I used to love shoes and cherish the ones that I had. I'd clean them up every day and polish them." Crabtree has big plans for a shoe rack at his home in the Bay Area so he can put them all on display. The shoes are not in boxes though, "I want to see them, my closet is going to look like Niketown."
- A Jordan brand athlete, Michael has big plans for unveiling some cleats during the 2012 season. Michael knows fashion and really gives his input on the details of the shoe design, "I tell them what material and color I want and where. I may tell them that I want this leather, this part suede and this part mesh." He hopes to set his own trends, "If everybody is doing it, then I'm not going to wear it."
- Michael received a basketball scholarship as well as football coming out of high school, so it's understandable how humbling it is to wear the Jordan brand. "It's the best of both worlds right now. Jordan is real big on who represents him with his brand. He looks for sharp guys with good character."

[WR Jerry Rice (143 rec. yds.) and WR J.J. Stokes (130 rec. yds.)].

(41), shattering the previous school record (30). His 231 career recepts. and 41 career TDs, which came in 2007-08, set NCAA records for catches and TDs in a two-year span. A model of consistency, put together a string of 13 consecutive games with at least one TD and 5 recepts., tying an NCAA record. In 2008, registered 1,165 yds. rec. (97 recepts.) and 19 TDs. # VERNON DAVIS 85

TIGHT END
6-3 | 250

MARYLAND | 7TH YEAR
BORN 1.31.84 | WASHINGTON D.C.
ACQUIRED D-1A IN '06
DUNBAR HS, WASHINGTON D.C.

Vernon Davis solidified himself as one of the most productive and versatile tight ends to ever play the game. Selected by the 49ers with the 6th overall pick in the 2006 NFL Draft, Davis registered 10 catches for 292 yards and four touchdowns in his first postseason trip in 2011. He is just the fifth player in the Super Bowl era to register at least two receiving touchdowns in consecutive postseason games in the same season. Davis led the team in both receiving yards and touchdowns in 2009 and 2010, and was given a five-year contract extension on September 11, 2010. Davis is just as active off the field as he is on the field, pursuing everything from curling and painting to humanitarian trips overseas.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the first of two 1st-round (6th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2006...Signed a five-year contract through 2015 on 9/11/10.

// AWARDS & HONORS

2009: NFC Pro Bowl, Len Eshmont Award

// GOLDMINE

- After a breakout season in 2009, Vernon was named the recipient of the Len Eshmont Award, the 49ers most prestigious annual honor. The Len Eshmont Award honors the player who best exemplifies the "inspirational and courageous play" of Len Eshmont and is voted on by the players.
- Vernon started an interior design company about a year ago, Modern Class Design. He recently was hired by a current teammate. "I'm helping with Ray McDonald's house right now which is pretty cool. I really enjoy looking at different rooms and putting ideas and designs together. I love being creative and putting my touch on the houses. It's pretty cool and a lot of fun." Ray isn't the only current teammate who will be using Modern Class Design, safety Dashon Goldson is having Vernon do his house in Los Angeles.
- Vernon was named an honorary captain of the USA Curling Team at the 2010 Winter Olympics in Vancouver, BC, Canada. He attended the games and served as an ambassador for the team in order to help gain support for the sport.
- Vernon is not one to sit back and relax during the offseason. In March of 2010, he joined his younger brother, Vontae, and six other NFL players on a humanitarian trip to Uganda and Rwanda. The crew spent 10 days distributing 22,000 hearing aids throughout the African regions as part of the Pros for Africa organization. "It was amazing. It was breathtaking because you look at these kids who can't hear anything and you plug these hearing aids in their ears and all of a sudden they're responding. You can't do anything but be thankful to be able to help them hear and respond. It brought a lot of emotion. I'm already an emotional guy."
- During the 2010 offseason, Vernon and Vontae hosted a football and mentoring clinic at Howard University in their native Washington, D.C. "It means a lot to me, because I know how important it is to go out and give back and share some of the lessons and just the gifts that you always wanted as a kid," Davis said. "Growing up in a low-income, poverty area in the inner city of Washington, D.C., I know what it's like. When I think of the kids, it touches me in ways you can't even imagine."
- During the 2010 offseason, Vernon also traveled to Afghanistan with five fellow NFL players as part of the NFL-USO tour. They first stopped at Al Udeid Air Force Base, 40 miles outside of Doha, Qatar, then traveled on to Bagram Air Force Base in Afghanistan. The trip gave Vernon perspective and knowledge of the efforts being put forth by our military in the Middle East.
- Vernon has always had an affinity for art and is an avid admirer of Michelangelo and the Renaissance period. In 2010 and 2011, he got the opportunity to give back to his passion for art. Director of Cultural Affairs for the San Francisco Arts Commission Luis R. Cancel, in conjunction with the Young at Art Festival, a project of the San Francisco Unified School District and the Fine Arts Museum of San Francisco, announced the launch of "Art Impact." Vernon was the inaugural speaker for Art Impact, and the San Francisco Unified School District created a scholarship in Vernon's name, called the Vernon Davis Visual Arts Scholarship, which will provide tuition support to a San Francisco youth interested in pursuing a career in the visual arts. In May of 2011, he handed out his first scholarship to San Francisco high school student, Sheryl Quock, a promising fashion designer.
- When Vernon was a freshman in college he wanted to honor the person who raised him to be the person he is today, his grandmother, Adaline. He decided to get a tattoo on the inside of his left arm with her name. His grandmother's reaction wasn't a good one at first, but she understood why he did it because in Vernon's words, he could look onto the inside of his left arm just to think of her. "She's really influenced me and really pushed me, made me open my eyes and see that besides football, there are other things that I can get involved with if I don't make it." Adaline was the one who raised most of his siblings and gave Vernon direction in his life, teaching him to set goals and molding him into the person he is today.

// CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Set single-season career highs with 78 recepts., 965 rec. yds. and 13 TD recepts., in 2009. He was one of only two TEs to lead their team in all three categories (Kellen Winlsow, TB). His rec. yds. and TD totals were both single-season records among 49ers TEs all-time.

ANTHONY DIXON 24

RUNNING BACK
6-1 | 233

MISSISSIPPI ST. | 3RD YEAR
BORN 9.24.87 | JACKSON, MS
ACQUIRED D-6A IN '10
TERRY HS, TERRY, MS

A strong and athletic running back, Anthony Dixon is deceptively agile and quick for a back his size. He appeared in every game in 2011, recording 87 yards on the ground and 2 touchdowns, while making significant contributions. Dixon had to overcome a variety of obstacles growing up, which included being homeless for quite some time. He and his three brothers have proved resilient, as each has gone on to have successful athletic careers.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the first of three 6th-round (173rd overall) draft choices by SF in 2010.

// AWARDS & HONORS

2010: Thomas Herrion Award (Co-recipient with DT Will Tukuafu)

// GOLDMINE

- Anthony was put in a unique situation when he was 10 years old. His parents had divorced the previous year and debts piled on to where the family became homeless. "As soon as we hit rock bottom, I knew what time it was," explained Dixon. "It was time for me to step up and become the man of the house. I'm just trying to provide for my family and provide for my momma so she doesn't have to go through that again. I'm really just sacrificing my body for them." Dixon had a lot of free time on his hands growing up while his mom worked three different jobs. It was his responsibility to watch his younger brothers until his mom got home from work. "I had to grow up before it was my time, but it made me stronger today just seeing that and going through that."
- Anthony was the co-recipient (with DT Will Tukuafu) of the 2010 Thomas Herrion Award. The award is presented annually to a rookie or first-year player who has taken advantage of every opportunity, turned it into a postive and made their dream come true.

DEMARCUS DOBBS 96

DEFENSIVE TACKLE
6-2 | 282

GEORGIA | 2ND YEAR
BORN 11.30.87 | SAVANNAH, GA
ACQUIRED FA IN '11
CALVARY BAPTIST HS, SAVANNAH, GA

Demarcus Dobbs signed with the 49ers as an undrafted free agent out of the University of Georgia on July 27, 2011. A tough, hard-nosed defender, Dobbs took advantage of every opportunity presented to him throughout training camp to earn a spot on the 49ers 53-man roster, and later saw action on defense and special teams in 2011. With Dobbs, QB Scott Tolzien and NT Ian Williams making the 2011 opening day roster, it marked the first time since 2001 that the 49ers had at least three undrafted free agents make the team (4 in 2001 - DT John Schlect, LB Quincy Stewart, LB Shane Elam and P Jason Baker).

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally signed as a undrafted free agent with SF on 7/27/11.

// GOLDMINE

- After growing up in foster care and overcoming a multitude of obstacles that would discourage almost anyone, Dobbs poured himself into his schoolwork and vowed to graduate high school – something no one in his family had yet accomplished. While working diligently in school, he managed to shine on the football field as well, earning a football scholarship to the University of Georgia. Dobbs excelled academically at Georgia, just as he had done his whole life. He majored in consumer economics and earned his degree a year early so that he would be able to have internships and job experience during his final year of football eligibility. After graduation, Dobbs was hopeful – but always realistic – about his chances of playing in the NFL. Many speculated he would be drafted, but when he did not receive a phone call from a team on draft night, Dobbs did not give up. He and his agent looked over NFL rosters and decided that he would fit best in San Francisco. They could not have been more accurate. Dobbs worked tirelessly during 49ers training camp and preseason. He impressed players, coaches and staff with his determination and athletic ability. "I've always been a guy to work hard," Dobbs said. "I was voted the Defensive Leadership Award by the coaches at Georgia. I've always been a guy that gave great effort on the field. When I got here, I knew each day I was going to push hard and whatever happens, happens. As long as I can say that I gave my all and I did all I could do."

// 2011

- Made NFL debut vs. TB (10/9) at DT.
- Saw extended action on defensive line vs. Cle. (10/30) in place of injured DT Ray McDonald.
- Notched his first tackle of his career vs. StL (12/4), posting 2 stops.

// COLLEGE

Saw action in 52 games (27 starts) for the Bulldogs, accumulating 78 tackles, 41 QBPs, 11 TFLs, 7.5 sacks, 6 PDs, 4 FFs, and 2 INTs. As a senior, appeared in 13 games (10 starts), recording 28 tackles and 15 quarterback pressures. In 2009, started all 13 games, notching 39 tackles including 4.5 sacks and 14 quarterback pressures. Also was the recipient of Joseph E. Espy Football Scholarship. As a sophomore, appeared in 13 games (4 starts), recording 19 tackles, eight quarterback hurries and an INT (returned for a TD). As a freshman, appeared in 13 games providing depth on the defensive line and played on special teams. Redshirted in 2006.

// GOLDMINE

- Growing up in Cleveland, Ted had the benefit of having his father, Ted Sr., as his coach and mentor. His father has been the football coach at Glenville High School in Cleveland since 1997 and the track coach there since 2002. In 1999, Glenville became the first Cleveland Municipal School to reach the State Playoffs and made six subsequent appearances from 2000 to 2005. Ted Jr. played for his father during his prep career and credits his father with preparing him for the future. "It helped a lot," said Ted Jr. of having his father as a coach. "It prepared me well for all different sorts of situations. He never showed any favoritism towards me. In fact, he might have been harder on me to make me an example. It prepared me well for the next levels and now, because I played for him, I feel as though I can adjust to any type of coach."

// GOLDMINE

- The Highest Point Foundation was created in 2009 by Dashon to provide motivational outlets for youth through sports programs, such as camps and clinics, in order to take them off the streets and onto the field, making more productive use of their time and physical abilities. In many communities throughout Southern California, where Dashon grew up, young people are plagued with issues such as dropping out of school, drug use, tobacco use, underage drinking, gang violence, poverty, parental neglect and homelessness. Many of these issues have caused them to make the wrong choices in life, where they oftentimes end up in a far worse place – and possibly jail. Dashon has seen far too much happen to the communities around him and he wants to do his part to give back – utilizing the resources that he has acquired as a professional athlete to help make a difference in people's lives. Whether it's assisting with preventative measures to ensure a child does not take the wrong path in life, or transitional measures to help someone who was previously incarcerated adjust to life as a responsible adult, Dashon vows to encourage individuals to reach "the highest point" in life through the lessons he has personally learned in the sport of football, as well as through various programs and initiatives under his foundation.

As the heart of the 49ers offense for the past seven seasons, three-time Pro Bowl running back Frank Gore has established himself as one of the premier running backs in the NFL. In 2011, Gore earned Pro Bowl honors after setting a new 49ers career rushing record (7,625) and posting a new team record by hitting the century mark in five consecutive games. In 2010, despite suffering a season-ending hip injury in Week 12, Gore joined LB Patrick Willis as the only two-time recipients of the Bill Walsh Award, which is voted on by the coaches, and given to the 49ers team MVP, honoring his outstanding individual performance. The former 3rd-round pick is the first 49er in team history to record four consecutive 1,000-yd. rushing seasons (2006-09).

// GOLDMINE

- In 2006 and 2010, Frank was named the recipient of the 49ers Bill Walsh Award. The Bill Walsh Award is voted on by the coaches and awarded to the 49ers team MVP. Frank is one of two players in franchise history to win the award twice (LB Patrick Willis).
- Frank was named 15th winner of the annual Garry Niver Award by reporters covering the team who represent the SF Chapter of the Pro Football Writer's Association in December of 2007. The award is given in honor of the late Garry Niver, the San Mateo Times reporter, and goes to the player who shows "cooperation and professional style" in dealing with Pro Football writers on the job.
- Frank's determination to run over defenders comes from his tough upbringing in Miami, FL. Some considered his football career over when he suffered two serious knee injuries at the University of Miami; however, he relied on his mother Liz's strength to help him through. "She had been on dialysis (awaiting a kidney transplant) since I was in the 11th grade and raised three kids as a single woman," Frank said. Unfortunately, Liz lost her battle with kidney disease before the 49ers second game of the 2007 season against the St. Louis Rams. Playing with a heavy heart, Frank responded by rushing for 81 yds. and 2 TDs, including a 43-yd. score on a 4th-and-1 carry, helping the 49ers to a 17-16 victory.
- During the 2010 offseason, Frank tried his hand at coaching for the first time as the defensive coordinator of the Little 49ers in a Miami youth league. Although his players were only 4 years old, Frank was still teaching them what's important. "The most important part is that the kids enjoy it. You can see how excited they get when they do something right."

// GOLDMINE

- Derek lost his mother a few years ago, but her passing helped him to rededicate himself to push even more for his mother. "While it brought me down, I pushed myself to new levels to make her proud. I hit some points in the early years of my college where I was getting too complacent or not doing things to my full potential. Losing my mom made me want to push myself to new levels, new commitments and new responsibilities that I had never done before."

  When Derek was in 4th grade, he wanted to quit football after the first week because he wasn't' doing well. His coach was getting on him a lot and he was beginning to get frustrated. His mother told him there was no way he could quit since they had already paid the money for him to play, so she made him finish his commitment for the year. She told him, "If you make a commitment, you always have to finish it. You can never leave early." Those words from his mother have stuck with him his entire life.

- Derek took up boxing during the 2012 offseason. It was the first time he had incorporated that type of training in his offseason workouts. "It's been an incredible benefit for me. It's allowed me to improve my quickness, hand placement, hand-eye coordination and hand-strike. It's been awesome." Derek also enjoys doing yoga to help with his flexibility. "I got into yoga a lot last offseason and it was really helpful."

// GOLDMINE

- Parys' diligent work ethic was instilled at the age of 14. While growing up in Flora, MS, his uncle and grandparents gave him an early introduction to life in the real world. He worked with his uncle at Sun Belt Bolts and Screws until he was 18 years old. After that, he labored in his grandfather's junkyard. Parys says his family helped instill the blue-collar foundation he leans on now as an NFL player. "You had to have a strong work ethic because it was an 8-hour job in the hot Mississippi sun. Sometimes I didn't want to go, but my grandparents made me go because if I didn't work for what I wanted, they weren't going to give it to me." Those lessons taught Parys that good things don't come without hard work and perseverance.
- Thanks to the upbringing by his mom and grandparents, Parys will always remember where he came from – and now it's his opportunity to give back. Parys aspires to start his own foundation to benefit the children in his hometown of Flora, MS. "There are a bunch of kids in my hometown. They are athletic, but they just run around and play football. No one really teaches them the techniques and the specialized training for each position." When he goes home, Parys spends time working out at his old high school and his middle school, taking time to show the students everything it takes to be successful. "You can see how excited the kids get when I walk in. I know that they look up to me and I take that responsibility seriously. I want to show them everything it takes to be successful and show each of them that they have the ability to be successful." As part of his foundation, Parys is looking to run a football camp, teaching kids the importance of eating healthy and staying in shape, while also teaching them proper football techniques.

WASHBURN | 2ND YEAR
BORN 5.5.87 | WICHITA, KS
ACQUIRED FA IN '11
BISHOP CARROLL HS, WICHITA, KS

Joe Hastings made quite the impression during training camp practices after the 49ers signed him as an undrafted rookie, in 2011. Solid hands along with his ability to contribute on special teams made him a valuable commodity as a rookie. His promotion to the 49ers active roster from the practice squad on December 31, 2011, led to his NFL debut at St. Louis on New Year's Day. Hastings flew under the radar during his time at Washburn University in Topeka, KS. He led the conference in receiving as a senior with 87 receptions for 1,546 yards, both school records. He also had 15 touchdown receptions, averaging 128.8 yards a game and 17.8 yards per catch.

// GOLDMINE

- Volunteering at the local Children's Mercy Hospital during his rookie season with teammate LB Blake Costanzo, left a lasting memory for Hastings. "Seeing the looks on all the kids' faces is priceless," noted Hastings. "As some of them are unable to be outside for months at a time due to their illness, playing with them and especially seeing them laugh and smile, is a great experience." It's not uncommon to see the wide receiver volunteer at team events or during his personal time. "To be able to bring a little brightness to somebody's life is a blessing," added Hastings. That is why Hastings participated in nearly every community relations event since the start of training camp of 2011.

CURTIS HOLCOMB 41

CORNERBACK
5-10 | 190

FLORIDA A&M | 2ND YEAR
BORN 9.3.88 | MIAMI, FL
ACQUIRED D-7C IN '11
MIAMI SOUTHRIDGE HS, MIAMI, FL

Curtis Holcomb was regarded as a shutdown corner at Florida A&M, but a torn Achilles halted his 49ers rookie campaign before it had a chance to start. A third-team All-America selection in 2010, he posted 12 INTs in 37 career starts with the Rattlers. The oldest of 8 children, Holcomb was a natural leader at Florida A&M, being named a four-time team captain.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the third of three 7th-round (250th overall) draft choices by SF in 2011...Placed on Injured Reserve on 8/7/11 (leg).

// GOLDMINE

- Growing up in the Richmond Heights, a tough section of Miami, FL, Curtis felt like being successful at sports was the only way to move on to bigger and better things. He was just five years old when he began to play football competitively. Although Curtis played baseball and basketball, football was his love. His mother, Beatrice, competed in track as a youth, while his father, Wendell, played football. With athletic parents, Curtis and his seven siblings either competed on the field or were cheering alongside it. It didn't take long for him to find the appropriate position on the field. After playing running back in elementary school, Curtis fell in love with playing cornerback as soon as he got to high school.
- How does a true freshman on the Florida A&M football team get voted a team captain? Curtis Holcomb is the one person who has that answer, "When I got to FAMU I wrote down my goals – start as soon as possible, become an All-American and get drafted. I knew the only way to do that was to do everything right from the time I got there. Win every sprint. Be at the front of every line." He did just that, and his new teammates and coaches noticed right away. Just two months after arriving on campus for preseason training, his teammates and coaches voted him a captain, a post he held throughout his Rattlers career. "I was scared of it at first. There were a lot of expectations, but I always wanted to be in pressure situations anyway."
- Worked at a local Winn Dixie grocery store as a junior and senior in high school and during the summers throughout college. "I really enjoyed working there. I was a bagger, I stocked shelves and even worked the register a couple of times. The tips were pretty good when I helped people with their bags."
- Holcomb refused to allow his season-ending injury derail him from accomplishing personal goals in his first year in the professional ranks.. While on IR, he completed his degree at Florida A&M and walked in December. "It was overwhelming," Holcomb said. "My family came up and it was a big thing. The school president talked to me for five minutes on stage, too." Holcomb was slated to walk across the graduation stage over the summer, but once the NFL's offseason work stoppage subsided, Holcomb had to postpone his involvement in the ceremony. "I thank everybody here (49ers) for allowing me to go there and do that. This is a great organization. I love this place."

// 2011

- Spent the season on IR after suffering a leg injury during training camp.

- Has seven siblings; Shada, Wendell, Michael, Casena, Brandon, Natari and Shakeyla.

MIKE IUPATI 77

GUARD
6-5 | 331

IDAHO | 3RD YEAR
BORN 5.12.87 | AMERICAN SAMOA
ACQUIRED D-1B IN '10
WESTERN HS, ANAHIEM, CA

Selected 17th overall in the 2010 NFL Draft, Mike Iupati showcased his rare combination of size and athleticism as he was named the team's starting left guard during training camp his rookie season. He has started all 32 games, and both postseason contests, since his rookie year in 2010. Iupati, along with T Anthony Davis, are two of only five players from the 2010 Draft Class to start every game in each of the past two seasons. A mild and polite native of American Samoa, Iupati plays with a nasty mean streak on the field. Following his rookie season, Iupati was named to The Sporting News and PFW/PFWA All- Rookie teams.

// AWARDS & HONORS

2010: The Sporting News – 2010 All-Rookie Team, PFW/PFWA All-Rookie Team

2011: Madden Most Valuable Protectors Award (Week 5)

// GOLDMINE

- Growing up in the village of Nuuli in American Somoa, Iupati took English as a second language, but was still way behind the curve when he arrived in the United States prior to his freshman year of high school. When it came time to head to college and pursue a football career, he was behind academically due to the language barrier. Iupati began looking into junior colleges. While at a recruiting barbecue at Ceritos College, he met Johnny Nansen, an assistant coach at Idaho, who later convinced him to sign with the Vandals as a Prop 48. Four years later Iupati was a first round NFL draft pick.
- When Iupati entered the NFL his hair was very long, reaching the middle of his back. He had not cut it since the summer before his sophomore year at Idaho. When he returned the Bay Area to begin the 2012 offseason program, he was sporting a buzz cut. "I needed a new start and thought now was the right time. I donated my hair to Locks of Love so that some kid would be able to make good use of it."
- Mike's brother did all of the tattoos on his arm and leg. All of the art on his body is reflective of Samoan culture. "Some of them are Fala, the centipede, the waves, the ocean, fish. It goes back to what we normally use." The lion on his leg was artwork that Mike liked and asked his brother to put a Polynesian design around it.
- Although Mike has not lived in American Samoa for several years, his mother will never let him forget his culture. "My mom was tough on us, but it's discipline. That's why a lot of Polynesians are disciplined when they come to the U.S. You have to always respect your elders. It's our culture."

RICKY JEAN FRANCOIS 95

DEFENSIVE TACKLE
6-3 | 295

LOUISIANA STATE | 4TH YEAR
BORN 11.23.86 | MIAMI GARDENS, FL
ACQUIRED D-7B IN '09
CAROL CITY SENIOR HS, MIAMI GARDENS, FL

Ricky Jean Francois is a versatile defender who is able to lineup at all three of the 49ers defensive line positions, and is referred to by the coaching staff as the fourth starter on the team's defensive front. A seventh-round draft choice in the 2009 NFL Draft, Jean Francois saw extensive action in the defensive line rotation in 2011, posting a career-high 32 tackles and two PDs. Born of Haitian decent, Jean Francois has worked to help rebuild Port-Au-Prince, Haiti, following the devastating earthquake in early 2010.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the second of two 7th-round selections (244th overall) by SF in 2009.

// GOLDMINE

- Jean Francois has made it his goal to give back to his Haitian heritage. Though he has not been able to travel to Haiti yet, his behind the scenes work is an ongoing process. "I'm trying to link up with other Haitian athletes or Haitian business men to provide as much as possible to the country right now. Just because you don't hear about it on CNN doesn't mean it's perfect over there, it's not." Teammate Brandon Jacobs, who is also Haitian, has been a welcome addition for Jean Francois. He plans to talk with Brandon about working together and is also trying to get in contact with past presidents who are lending a helping hand, including George W. Bush and Bill Clinton.
- With relatives in Haiti, Ricky felt obligated during the 2010 offseason to help his family and fellow countrymen following the earthquake that left nearly one million people homeless. Unfortunately, Ricky lost some family to the earthquake, but that didn't deter him from trying to make a difference in the wake of the disaster. "I want to obviously help because I have family there, but also if the shoe was on the other foot, I would want other people to help out the same way." He first worked to obtain donations for Haiti, getting GMC to donate 50 brand new 2010 trucks.
- Ricky's older brother, Celhomme, had meningitis as a child and it has affected him in many ways now in his adult life. "Just watching him trying to grasp for life day-by-day, trying to learn how to read and write, how to do certain things. I'm trying to find him as many opportunities as I've had myself." Ricky's goal is to get his brother to the point where he can live life on his own without the help of others. "I'm trying to get him to stay around me a lot so I can teach him things. He'll catch on quick."
- When his playing days are overs, Jean Francois wants to start his own developmental sports league for ages 8-18 year olds. The league would help teach the kids what playing sports is all about while also holding them accountable in the classroom. Right now Ricky envisions having sports leagues for football, volleyball, basketball and track.
- Ricky worked at Habitat for Humanity throughout college, helping in a variety of areas. "There were things that were ripped out of houses and walls. There was a point where we had to move some concrete and we were ghosts. I'm a dark guy and when I walked out I was white."

BRIAN JENNINGS 86

TIGHT END / LONG SNAPPER
6-5 | 242

ARIZONA STATE | 13TH YEAR
BORN 10.14.76 | MESA, AZ
ACQUIRED D-7B IN '00
RED MOUNTAIN HS, MESA, AZ

A two-time Pro Bowl selection, most recently in 2011, Brian Jennings has snapped to 9 different placekickers and 4 different punters throughout his professional career. Jennings has been the mark of consistency for the 49ers since being selected in the 7th round of the 2000 NFL Draft. Jennings is the longest-tenured player on the roster and ranks t-4th among active NFL players for most consecutive games played. One of the most accurate and efficient long snappers in the NFL, Jennings has been charged with only one fumble in his career, in 2001, on a good snap that went right through the punter's hands.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the second of two 7th-round (230th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2000...Signed a five-year contract extension through 2014 on 6/6/09.

// AWARDS & HONORS

2004: NFC Pro Bowl
2011: NFC Pro Bowl

// GOLDMINE

- Brian has touched the lives of numerous people as a member of the 49ers, taking part in dozens of speaking engagements and charity events throughout his career. He looks to continue inspiring people once his playing days are over as well. Over the past four years, Brian has been working on his own book. "I believe everyone can find their purpose and live an inspired life. I feel my life has been blessed in so many ways and I want to share it with people. No matter what troubles come your way, you can realize your potential. In my writing, I combine examples throughout history with my own personal story, while using spiritual health and wellness as the vehicle."
- Brian doesn't spend much time relaxing during the offseason. He earned his certification as a yoga instructor in 2008 after taking part in a 200-hour program that lasted five months. With a modern approach, Brian cranks up lively music in the classes he teaches in Scottsdale, AZ. He has plans to open his own yoga studio in the near future.
- Jennings formed his own company, Jennings 141, which among various efforts has produced instructional videos for long snapping. Visit BrianJennings.com or Jennings141.com to learn more.
- Over the past two offseasons, Brian has hosted a long snapping camp with about 20 participants. This allows him to teach the intricacies of the position on a one-on-one basis. "During the camp I deconstructed the long snap. So, we go through stations of the pieces of the long snap and I teach them how to do each piece. Then it's for them to put it all together and master it on their own."
- Jennings developed a new idea that has been in demand now that colleges are offering scholarships for long snappers. He and his designer created a long snapping football, appropriately titled 'The Jennings141 grip-trainer football.' "It's a regulation size football, either college size or junior, but the instructions are written on the ball which is unique. The instructions on the ball will teach how to build the proper grip." The ball is currently being manufactured as he just received a patent a short time ago, but he plans to make the ball available through his website.
- Brian believes the sky is the limit when it comes to his knowledge base. "I really see the value of education and continual learning. Every offseason, I try to pursue some kind of intellectual academic project that is measurable. I want to be powerful intellectually." Still undecided on whether to pursue an MBA degree or become a chiropractor once his playing days are over, Brian has been taking classes in both areas at Arizona State and Scottsdale Community College over the past several offseasons. He's also taken part in the NFL's Business Management and Entrepreneurial Program at Harvard and Stanford, and has plans to attend the NFL's Broadcast Boot Camp in the near future. "I'm like a sponge when it comes to educating myself. I'm constantly reading the Wall Street Journal and various financial magazines, which has sparked a better understanding of how politics effects the economy and business world."

JOSH JOHNSON 1

QUARTERBACK
6-3 | 205

SAN DIEGO | 5TH YEAR
BORN 5.15.86 | OAKLAND, CA
ACQUIRED FA IN '12
OAKLAND TECH HS, OAKLAND, CA

A product of then-head coach Jim Harbaugh at the University of San Diego, Josh Johnson is in his 5th pro season. Johnson completed 96 of 177 passes for 1,042 yards and 5 touchdowns while with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers the last four seasons. A 25-year-old native of Oakland, CA, Johnson owns four USD career passing records including touchdown passes (113), completions (724), attempts (1,065) and passing yards (9,699).

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally a 5th-round (160th overall) draft choice by TB in the 2008 NFL Draft...Signed a two-year contract with SF on 3/22/12.

// GOLDMINE

- Says Johnson of his time playing for Jim Harbaugh at the University of San Diego. "He started it for me. He took me from playing the quarterback position to a different level. He opened my mind up a lot on how to play the position. He taught me how to play the position. He showed me so many different things that I didn't even know I was capable of doing. He always challenged me daily." While he was there, Johnson set four USD passing records in touchdown passes (113), completions (724), attempts (1,065) and passing yards (9,699). Johnson took over as USD's starter his sophomore season in 2005 and earned consensus first-team All-America recognition in 2006. When Harbaugh was first hired by USD in 2003, the first player he recruited was Johnson. When Johnson left USD four years later, he was the all-time NCAA pass efficiency leader and a Walter Payton Award finalist.
- As with most major cities, Oakland has some rough neighborhoods to navigate, but Johnson wouldn't change his hometown for anything. "It's hard, but it makes you get on that right path right away or you have to go the other way. It's that simple. Now as an adult, I appreciate that. There are no gray areas, you can't play both sides. You have to decide from an early age what path you want. For me, it kept me on the straight and narrow. It kept me focused and pursuing all of the dreams I wanted." Those dreams fueled the fire in him to work hard and pursue his lifelong goal of playing in the NFL.
- Josh helped his mom at a summer camp for 4-12 year olds each summer growing up. He started as a counselor's aid which ignited his passion for developing the Josh Johnson Youth Center. The Center will help teach kids to develop various necessities in life including how to open a bank account, learning to read and write and other opportunities for all age groups. "It will be a one-stop-shop for these kids because they don't always have a place to go. We want the kids to be able to come to one place to explore and open up their minds to more." The plan is to open this youth center by 2014 after the necessary funds are raised.
- Josh and his cousin, Seahawks RB Marshawn Lynch, hosted their 6th annual Family First Football Camp this past summer. The free camp provides 600 youth ages 6 – 18 years old the opportunity to work on their football skills, sportsmanship, and teamwork skills, while building self-esteem both on and off the field.

COLIN KAEPERNICK 7

QUARTERBACK
6-4 | 230

NEVADA | 2ND YEAR
BORN 11.3.87 | MILWAUKEE, WI
ACQUIRED D-2 IN '11
PITTMAN HS, TURLOCK, CA

San Francisco made Colin Kaepernick the 36th overall selection in the 2011 NFL Draft. The former University of Nevada signal caller spent his rookie season learning the nuances of the NFL game and the 49ers offense. As the only player in the NCAA history to throw for over 10,000 yards and rush for over 4,000 yards, Kaepernick has an excellent work ethic that allows him to make the transition from the pistol offense he ran in college to the 49ers West Coast Offense.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally a 2nd-round (36th overall) draft choice by SF in 2011.

// GOLDMINE

- In the summer of 2010, Colin was drafted by the Chicago Cubs in the 2009 MLB Draft and was offered $30,000 to go to Arizona for a month and throw a few bullpen sessions. Looking ahead to his senior season as Nevada's quarterback, he declined the offer saying, "What would that say about me as a leader of the team?"
- Colin was born in Milwaukee, WI. His mother was 19 years old and worked in retail sales. She was in a tough situation and thought that adoption would be the best way to give her young son a good life. She had three requirements for the adoptive family - siblings, financial stability and a sports background. She decided that the best fit for Colin would be with Rick and Teresa Kaepernick and their two children, Kyle and Devon.
- One of Colin's hobbies and favorite activities off the field is collecting and watching movies. "I own around 250 movies," said Colin. His favorites are no surprise, action and comedy, specifically the movie Step Brothers. What might be a surprise to some people, is the 6-4, 250 lb QB, also enjoys watching cartoons and Disney movies. "Some movies I own that most people wouldn't think I like are The Incredibles, Finding Nemo, Despicable Me and How To Train Your Dragon."
- Even as a 4th grade student at Dutcher Elementary School in Turlock, CA, Colin knew he was going to play for the 49ers. In a letter that students had to write to their future selves, that despite his small stature at the time, Colin saw something special in himself. He wrote, "I'm 5-2, 91 lbs and a good athelte. I think in 7 seven years i will be between 6 ft. to 6-4, 140 lbs. I hope I go to a good college in football, then go to the pros and play on the Niners or the Packers, even if they aren't good in seven years."

- Made his 49ers debut at Phi. (10/2). Saw action on one play in the 2nd qtr. in which he handed off.
- Recorded first career completion for 11 yds. to TE Delanie Walker vs. TB (10/9). Led the offense on an 11-play, 90-yd. drive that was capped off by a RB Anthony Dixon rushing TD.

// COLLEGE

- As Daniel was preparing for the NFL Draft in spring 2011, he was also serving as a student-teacher at Harden Park Elementary School working with special-education students in adaptive physical education classes. The day following his graduation from Appalachian State, Daniel hosted a field trip for his special-education students at ASU. The field trip included a tour of the school's athletic facilities, activities in the Sofield Family Indoor Practice Facility, lunch on the club level of the Appalachian Athletics Center and taking in a few innings of the Appalachian State-Western Carolina baseball game. While football is Daniel's next chapter in life, he aspires to be a coach and special-education teacher following his NFL career. "I'm very happy that I was drafted, but I absolutely love working with these kids," said Daniel. "I have had a great student-teaching experience and I know when my NFL career is over, I will get to work in another field that I love and that is working with special-education students and coaching."

- Andy never attended an NFL game growing up in South Carolina. Even when he went on to become a standout punter on the collegiate level at the University of Pittsburgh, he was still a stranger to live NFL action. The first professional game he ever attended was as a player with the 49ers in 2004. In fact, Andy didn't even set out to play football at all. "I was more of a baseball guy growing up. I actually wanted to be a Major League Baseball player. I played quarterback in 8th grade, and the coach asked, 'Who wants to try out for the punting position?' I didn't know you were supposed to spiral a punt, or turn it over, or any of that."

DEFENSIVE TACKLE
6-3 | 290

FLORIDA | 6TH YEAR
BORN 9.2.84 | PAHOKEE, FL
ACQUIRED D-3B IN '07
GLADES CENTRAL HS, BELLE GLADE, FL

A 3rd-round pick in 2007 by the 49ers, Ray McDonald was a first-year starter at LDE after signing a lucrative 5-year deal with the 49ers on 7/29/11. In 2011, McDonald played a significant role in the defense posting a career-high in tackles (93), sacks (5.5) and forced fumbles (2). A model of determination and resiliency, he has missed just two games to injury during his five year career, after having overcome multiple significant knee injuries while in college. Over the past two seasons, he is one of only three NFL defensive linemen to score two touchdowns (Min. DE Jared Allen and Atl. DE Kroy Biermann).

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the second of two 3rd-round (97th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2007...Signed a 5-year deal with SF on 7/29/11.

// GOLDMINE

- Ray comes from an athletic family as his father, Ray Sr., played wide receiver for the Florida Gators in the mid-80s and was featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated (Nov. 11, 1985) after catching both scores in a 14-10 victory at Auburn in 1985. Ray's grandfather, Willie McDonald, played running back at Bethune Cookman and his uncle was a cornerback at UCF. Ray didn't have strong aspirations of playing football professionally until later in high school, when his father began to prepare him for the pro game. "He didn't really push me into playing football when I was growing up, but I told him I really wanted to take off with football. So he dedicated his whole year to me working out."
- Ray has had his share of success growing up playing football. While in high school, he won a state championship four straight years, and then a national title at Florida, but still strives to achieve the ultimate prize of an NFL championship. "I have individual goals, but it all comes down to winning. I come from a winning tradition. All I'm missing out on is an NFL Championship."
- Since the 2008 offseason, Ray has looked for other ways to improve himself as a pass rusher. He has been boxing with the 49ers training staff in order to add more moves to his pass rushing repertoire. "It's something that I can add to my tray with hand-eye coordination. It helps with my endurance and my hand placement and I have enough force to knock someone off balance."
- Despite entering the NFL with great concerns regarding the health of his knees, which hurt his draft stock and forced him to be selected in the 3rd round in 2007, McDonald has missed just two games in his five-year career to injury.

// CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Recorded his first career TD after scooping up a QB Kyle Boller fumble on the Rams 11-yd. line, returning it for the score vs. StL (10/4/09).
- Registered his first career INT and returned it 31 yds. for a TD at Car. (10/24/10).

// 2011

- Registered his 7th career sack vs. Dal. (9/18), marking the first time he recorded sacks in multiple weeks since 9/13/09 at Arz. and 9/20/09 vs. Sea.

BRUCE MILLER 49

FULLBACK
6-2 | 248

CENTRAL FLORIDA | 2ND YEAR
BORN 8.6.87 | CANTON, GA
ACQUIRED D-7A IN '11
WOODSTOCK HS, WOODSTOCK, GA

A standout defensive end in college, Bruce Miller made the transition to fullback for the 49ers as a rookie, and earned a starting role by Week 3. Known for his quickness off the edge, Miller started running routes with the tight ends during training camp without a single college reception to his name. Miller recorded the first touchdown reception of his career at Was. (11/6) and finished the season with 11 catches for 83 yards. A two-time Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year, Miller led all active collegiate players during his time at Central Florida with 35.5 sacks.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the first of three 7th-round (211th overall) draft choices by SF in 2011.

// GOLDMINE

- Bruce wasn't the most touted player coming out of high school. In fact, saying he was under the radar was an understatement; Bruce wasn't even on the radar. UCF defensive coordinator Dave Huxtable, however, was evaluating other Georgia players and noticed Bruce on film. "He was playing tight end," Huxtable said. "Running and catching balls and making players miss. He was on the kickoff cover team and he was the first one down there on the kickoff cover team plays. Then I got to watch him play basketball. He's a 6-2 center, but he's underneath there just battling on the boards. He's a special guy." Huxtable was one of Bruce's major infulences in becoming the two-time Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year. "He played a huge roll for me," said Bruce. "I always looked at him for motivation and help. I went to Coach Hux because of the bond we made during recruiting and then playing for him at linebacker. Coach Hux, the things that he does the time and effort he puts in, is just unbelievable."
- One of Bruce's biggest attributes is his gritty attitude. "The biggest thing is he's just relentless," said Miller's former UCF Defensive Coordinator and current Knight linebacker coach John Skladany. "He really enjoys that part of the game. He goes and looks for the contact. He just keeps going and going and going. You're going to have to shoot him to stop him. If he's going to be blocking, some linebacker is going to have a long day." The 49ers are looking to have him transition from defensive end to fullback. "They said they wanted to bring somebody in who was tough and could bring a hit every play," said Bruce. "And i think I fit that description pretty well."

// GOLDMINE

- After graduating from high school, Carlos attended Hargrave Military Academy (VA) in 2000. Hargrave's Football program is not the simple route, but the path to success for many young men looking for stronger college qualifications and the opportunity to test their football skills to the limit. "It opened up my eyes and I realized life shouldn't be all about football, but also about getting a good education," Carlos said. From learning how to march, to putting on a uniform, he experienced some military training and discipline every morning before class. "I lived in a dorm and for an hour of the day, we would march." His clothes, along with his bed sheets, needed to be neatly folded and placed at the foot of the bed every morning. "It was important for me to learn their ways. The instructor taught us how to clean our room, fold our clothes and clean dust from under our bed." Carlos believes the program helped him build a vastly stronger knowledge base and better self-discipline for further success at college. "It made college so much easier. You get a sense of what the military go through and I gained a lot of respect for them."
- One of the things Carlos misses most about his hometown of Augusta, GA, is the southern food. "Being from the South, I love soul food," said the veteran cornerback. Anything from collard greens, mac 'n' cheese, sweet cornbread and chicken, Carlos looks forward to his parents cooking every year during the holidays. For Thanksgiving, Carlos' parents whip up black eyed peas, pecan pie and sweet potato pie, his favorites. After re-signing with San Francisco in March 2012, Carlos is determined to find a restaurant that reminds him of his southern roots. "The one thing I miss most is soul food and if I find a place out here, they will see me a lot."

ALDON SMITH 99

LINEBACKER
6-4 | 258

MISSOURI | 2ND YEAR
BORN 9.25.89 | KANSAS CITY, MO
ACQUIRED D-1 IN '11
RAYTOWN SENIOR HS, RAYTOWN, MO

Aldon Smith became one of the most feared pass rushers in the NFL as a rookie, in 2011. Smith registered 42 tackles and led the team in sacks with 14, a total that led all NFL rookies, set a new 49ers rookie sack record and fell just shy of the NFL single-season rookie sack record set by Jevon Kearse in 1999 (14.5). Smith finished 2nd in the voting for AP Defensive Rookie of the Year, but earned the same title from Pro Football Weekly. He twice earned NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month and NFL Rookie of the Week honors, in 2011. Smith holds the Missouri single-season sack record (11.5 in '09), which was previously held by fellow 49er DT Justin Smith (11.0 in '00).

// GOLDMINE

- In recent years, Aldon has dabbled in boxing and mixed martial arts training, both of which he said are helpful with his pass-rush technique and mental endurance. "Imagine someone trying to get their hands on you in a fight," Aldon said. "It's just like a tackle trying to get his hands on you. It all translates to how you move your hands."
- When Aldon was 10 years old, his parents divorced. Aldon remained with his mother, Kembrya, in Iowa as his father moved to Kansas City. But five years later, when his mother moved to Atlanta, Aldon moved to Kansas City with his father, Thurston. Until that point, Aldon had never played an organized sport, but that all changed. He joined the football and basketball teams at Raytown HS, but only under strict conditions enforced by his father. "He had to make good grades, nothing less than a 3.0 GPA," said Thurston, a former member of the US Army. "And he had to be responsible and respectful." As a junior, Aldon resisted his father's mandate, but everything began to click for him as senior. "I wasn't going to bend the rules, and he knew what the rules were," Thurston said. "The transition was difficult at first, but we got through it."

ALEX SMITH 11

QUARTERBACK
6-4 | 217

UTAH | 8TH YEAR
BORN 5.7.84 | SEATTLE, WA
ACQUIRED D-1 IN '05
HELIX HS, LA MESA, CA

After having battled through injuries and scheme changes early in his career, last season Alex Smith displayed the skills that made him the No. 1 overall pick in the 2005 NFL Draft. Despite not being under contract with the 49ers during the 2011 offseason, Smith was one of the key orchestrators of the players' organized workouts and camps at San Jose St. That leadership is one of the special qualities Jim Harbaugh saw when he and the franchise designated Smith its starting QB, in 2011. Smith completed 445 passes for 3,144 yds. and a QB rating of 90.7. He threw 17 TDs and just 5 interceptions in 2011, setting the franchise record for fewest interceptions in a season (min. 400 atts.). His interception pct. of 1.1 on the season, ranked 1st in the NFL and 1st in franchise history (min. 400 atts.). Last season, he set a career high with a QB rating of 82.1. In 2006, he established the Alex Smith Foundation, which provides foster teens with the tools and resources needed to transition to successful adulthood.

// TRANSACTIONS

// AWARDS & HONORS:

2011: Comeback Player of the Year by Dallas Morning News' Rick Gosselin, Ed Block Courage Award, USA Today All-Joe Team, Samsung Next Level Player of the Week (Week 5)

// GOLDMINE

- During the 2012, Alex spent a week in Los Angeles working with former Major League Baseball pitching coach Tom House on his throwing motion. Smith's goal was to clean up his mechanics and come out of it with a healthier throwing motion. "I've been in the NFL for seven years now and I'm trying to do things to constantly get better. In the offseason, I feel like you're either getting better or getting worse." Other NFL quarterbacks working with House included Saints Drew Brees, Chiefs Matt Cassel, Patriots Tom Brady and Raiders Carson Palmer.
- In early 2007, Alex committed $500,000 to the University of Utah's athletic department. The generous donation was the lead gift for the Alex Smith Strength and Conditioning Facility—a $1.5 million expansion of Utah's varsity athletics weight room. The money kicked off a campaign to raise the remaining funds for the project. Plans called for the expansion of the Dee Glen Smith Center, which houses the strength and conditioning room, as well as the football coaching offices, meeting, training and equipment rooms. The facility covers 11,000 square feet—a 3,500 square foot improvement from its current size, and features new lifting stations and cardiovascular conditioning space.
- Alex graduated college in three years with a bachelor's degree in economics and scored one of the highest scores (40) on the Wonderlic Test prior to the NFL Draft.
- One of the main reasons Alex chose to attend Utah was his love for winter sports. "I've skied since I was one-and-a-half. My dad was a ski instructor at one time and my parents have a condo in Montana. When I was 12 I took up snowboarding and that's why I loved Utah."
- Alex has always played with the idea of going to law school at some point in life. With that in mind, he chose to pursue a degree in economics. When he arrived at the University of Utah, his high school workload made him eligible to start his studies as a junior and start his major studies. "I am not going to be able to help you plan for your retirement, but I enjoyed the part of my classes that allowed me to better understand the philosophy of economics and how different economies worked."
- In 2006, Alex established the Alex Smith Foundation (www.alexsmithfoundation.org), which provides foster teens with the tools and resources needed to transition to successful adulthood. As of this year, 30 kids have been fully funded completely through college. The four-year scholarship includes tuition, mentoring, counseling and other tools they may need to come out of school debt free.

A relentless and explosive defender who has never missed a game to injury, Justin Smith anchors the 49ers defensive front. A candidate for 2011 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, Smith registered 105 tackles, 11 TFLs, 3 FFs and 1 FR. He posted 7.5 sacks and became just the third player in franchise history to register at least 6 sacks in four consecutive seasons. Since joining the 49ers in 2008, Smith leads the team with 29.0 sacks and ranks 1st in the NFL among defensive tackles over that span. His 29.0 sacks rank 2nd in franchise history to DT Dana Stubblefield (46.5) for most sacks by a defensive tackle. In 2010, Smith tied his career high with 8.5 sacks, matching the total from his rookie year in 2001.

- Justin was one of the most sought-after free agents in the 2008 offseason. When the 49ers brought him in for a visit, they knew they had to sell the Midwesterner on the California lifestyle. Justin, who often wears cowboy boots and grew up on his father's cattle ranch in Missouri, discussed the 49ers defensive philosophy in depth with the team's coaches. Although Justin enjoys the Bay Area, he looks to eventually return to his roots. "When I'm done playing ball, I'll probably move to Missouri or Texas and get a ranch. That's how I grew up. I think it teaches you survival."

ISAAC SOPOAGA 90

DEFENSIVE TACKLE
6-2 | 330

HAWAII | 9TH YEAR
BORN 9.4.81 | AMERICAN SAMOA
ACQUIRED D-4A IN '04
SAMOANA HS, PAGO PAGO, AMERICAN SAMOA

Isaac Sopoaga has been a key component of the 49ers defensive line rotation since being drafted in the 4th-round of the 2004 NFL Draft. His size, versatility and athleticism make him an ideal fit for the 49ers 3-4 scheme, as he can play both defensive tackle and nose tackle. Sopoaga moved from LDE to nose tackle in 2011, and went on to post 68 tackles and absorbed countless double-teams to free up his teammates to make plays. A native of American Samoa, Sopoaga brings his island flair to the 49ers locker room, from his traditional tribal face paint to his unique pregame rituals.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the first of two 4th-round (104th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2004...Signed a 5-year contract extension through the 2012 season on 2/27/08.

// AWARDS & HONORS

2010: USA Today All-Joe Team

// GOLDMINE

- Growing up in American Samoa, Isaac's first sport was rugby. Part of his conditioning routine was to strengthen his arms by lifting bags filled with coconuts and logs from harvested trees. His leg workout was also geographically oriented. Said Isaac, "Have you ever seen a 325-pound guy climb a coconut tree?"
- Sopoaga's unique training methods prior to entering the NFL have been well documented. What people don't know about is the fact that for the past several years it has included an annual trip back to American Samoa in April to represent his village of Fagasa in the annual Fautasi Race during the Flag Day celebration, the Samoan equivalent of Independence Day. It is seen as an honor to be selected to represent your village in the race. Interestingly, the current captain, an even greater honor, of the Fagasa boat is Sopoaga's father, Tupuola Laniselota. A Fautasi race consists of long fiberglass boats containing 40 rowers. The boats row seven miles offshore, get set at a buoyed starting point and race back into Pago Pago Harbor.
- The youngest boy in his family, Isaac didn't have the easiest childhood, but he credits his brothers for shaping him into the man he is today. "I really thank my brothers for staying on me when we were growing up. Since I was the youngest, I was responsible for all of the chores. It was hard, but my brothers taught me the value of hard work and the success that can come of it." Today, Isaac takes pride in handling a bulk of the chores at home with his wife and four children.

CENTRAL MICHIGAN | 6TH YEAR
BORN 8.30.84 | ROCKFORD, MI
ACQUIRED D-1B IN '07
ROCKFORD HS, ROCKFORD, MI

Joe Staley has showcased his abilities on the 49ers offensive line since being chosen as the second of San Francisco's two 1st-round draft picks in 2007. He earned his first career Pro Bowl berth following the 2011 season after his stellar play. Staley was part of an offensive line that helped the team rush for 1,928 yards, ranking 7th in the NFL. During the 2011 offseason, Staley increased his role as a leader in helping to orchestrate the player-organized workouts and camps. As a rookie, he started all 16 contests at right tackle before switching to left tackle in his second year. A product of Central Michigan, Staley became the first player in school history to be drafted in the 1st round of the NFL Draft. Although he plays with a mean streak on the field, off the field, the charismatic Staley keeps his teammates and the fans entertained as the host of The Joe Show, on 49ers.com.

// GOLDMINE

- Following his rookie season, Joe got a suprise call from a marketing company looking to create a bobblehead in his likeness for a hometown baseball promotion. The former Rockford High School and Central Michigan star was taken back by it. "It's pretty crazy," said Joe. "It's kind of crazy to have something that has your likeness on it. It kind of freaked me out." His bobblehead was given out to the first 1,000 fans at Fifth Third Ballpark when the West Michigan Whitecaps faced the Lansing Lugnuts. On the bobblehead, Joe is holding a helmet and is decked out in his high school uniform including his No. 84 jersey. "I think they were going for my retro-Rockford days. In the current day, you would have to put 200 pounds on that doll," said Joe, who was a relay runner and tight end in high school.

SCOTT TOLZIEN 3

QUARTERBACK
6-3 | 208

WISCONSIN | 2ND YEAR
BORN 9.4.87 | ROLLING MEADOWS, IL
ACQUIRED WAI. IN '11 - SD
WILLIAM FREMD HS, PALATINE, IL

Scott Tolzien was claimed off waivers by the 49ers on 9/4/11, after having spent training camp with the San Diego Chargers, who had signed him as an undrafted free agent that July. He went on to be inactive for all 18 games. Tolzien starred at Wisconsin and studied at the time under quarterbacks coach Paul Chryst, the brother of 49ers quarterbacks coach Geep Chryst. Along with DT Demarcus Dobbs and NT Ian Williams, it marked the first time since 2001 that the 49ers had at least two undrafted free agents make the team (4 in 2001 - DT John Schlect, LB Quincy Stewart, LB Shane Elam and P Jason Baker).

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally signed as an undrafted free agent with SD on 7/26/11... Waived by SD on 9/3/11...Claimed by SF on 9/4/11.

// GOLDMINE

- Scott made a lifelong friend during the 2009 football season, a six-year old boy named Jaxson Hinkens. Hinkens had recently been diagnosed with stage four high-risk neuroblastoma and tumors riddled his body. Following surgery to remove tumors from his spine, Jaxson was invited to visit a Wisconsin Badgers football practice. The first person to greet him on the field was Tolzien. A bond immediately formed. Following Jaxson's second round of chemotherapy, Scott began a long string of hospital visits to spend time with his new friend. Along the way, Jaxson taught Scott to "Fear Nothing," a motto the friends adopted. "I never once heard him complain. He wasn't just fighting for a victory, he was fighting for his life." The two still keep in touch, more than three years after first meeting on the football field.
- Tolzien lists coaching as his post-football career goal, but at a very young age he took to the athletic fields in a much different capacity than coach or player. In the 8th grade, he took a test that would launch his youth baseball umpiring career, a post held until college. "It was a great learning experience for me and good money for a young kid. It was tough for those kids to throw strikes and you had to keep you composure with the coaches always barking."
- Tolzien is one NFL player who will never forget where he came from, especially because he still keeps in touch with his elementary school, his 2nd grade teacher and her students. During Scott's sophomore year, Barb Grisaffe asked her former pupil if he would like to take part in Willow Bend Elementary School's "No Excuses" program, which tries to educate the kids on the benefits of going to college and getting their education. He gladly agreed and shortly thereafter created a blog where he would share with the 1st and 2nd grade students his college experience through words and photos. To this day he continues to make visits to the school and trade emails with the students.

He has been active in the commercial construction industry since college and says that once his playing days are over, he would like to have a more active role in it. # DELANIE WALKER 46

TIGHT END
6-0 | 242

CENTRAL MISSOURI | 7TH YEAR
BORN 8.12.84 | POMONA, CA
ACQUIRED D-6A IN '06
POMONA HS, POMONA, CA

Delanie Walker provides the 49ers an explosive receiving threat at the tight end position, posing several match-up problems for opposing defenses. Walker scored a career-high 3 touchdowns in 2011, adding 19 catches for 198 yards. Originally a 6th-round selection by San Francisco in 2006, Walker has put his deceptive speed on display not only on offense, but also on special teams, totaling 58 special teams tackles over the past five years (2007-11). Walker is one of only three players to be drafted out of Central Missouri since 1990 (DL Colston Wetherington - 7th round by Dal. in 1999 and DE Roderick Green - 5th round by Bal. in 2003).

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the first of three 6th-round (175th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2006... Signed a three-year extension through the 2012 season on 6/22/08.

// GOLDMINE

- Over the years, Delanie has owned quite a selection of cars, ranging from classics to newer models. His collection has included a 1964 Chevy Impala, 1972 Buick Skylark, 1989 Camaro IROC-Z28, 2008 Mercedes-Benz CL63 AMG and 2010 F250 truck. Delanie's passion for cars can be traced back to his childhood, where he would spend countless hours refurbishing old autos with the help of his friend's father, who was a mechanic. "Growing up we didn't have much money, so we would buy cars from the junkyard and fix them up. We'd spend all day taking off parts and replacing them, just like new. The most important lesson I learned was 'the way you take it off is the way you put it back on.'" Delanie admits that cars these days have become more advanced and that he is only comfortable working on models that are pre-1990. After his playing days are over, he envisions owning a car restoration shop.
- Having grown up in a tough neighborhood, Delanie knows first-hand how difficult it is to overcome obstacles in order to achieve one's goals. Throughout the past several offseasons, Delanie has visited delinquent youths across the Bay Area, making it a point to share his story and give positive reinforcement to those who can relate to him. "It's very important that people know about what I've been through. You can grow up in the worst neighborhood and still make it to the NFL. That's why I want kids, especially in the Bay Area, to understand that you can overcome those situations, because I did."
- For a 240-pound tight end, Delanie sure makes a lot of tacklers miss. His speed on the field can be linked to his success on the track as a high school senior. Despite lettering only one year, Delanie won the Division III 100m (10.6) and long jump (21-5) titles, while also serving as a member of the winning 4x100m relay team at the 2002 Miramonte League Meet. Delanie's younger brother, Anthony, competed in the 400m and 4x400m at the collegiate level, and has his hopes set on making the Olympic team one day.

DONTE WHITNER 31

SAFETY
5-10 | 208

OHIO STATE | 7TH YEAR
BORN 7.24.85 | CLEVELAND, OH
ACQUIRED FA IN '11
GLENVILLE HS, CLEVELAND, OH

A physical presence in the defensive backfield, Donte Whitner spent his first five NFL seasons as the Buffalo Bills starting strong safety before joining the 49ers in 2011. Along with 91 tackles, he recorded a career-high 3 forced fumbles, while tying a career-best 2 interceptions. Whitner won the Garry Niver Award during his first year in San Francisco, which is given to the player who displays the most professionalism and cooperation in dealing with media. Whitner was originally selected 8th overall in the 2006 NFL Draft by Buffalo and went on to help the Bills finish in the top 10 in pass defense in three of his five years (7th in '06, 2nd in '09, 3rd in '10) with the team.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally a 1st-round (8th overall) draft choice by Buf. in the 2006 NFL Draft...Signed as an unrestricted free agent by SF on 8/6/11.

// AWARDS & HONORS

2006: Defensive Rookie of the Month (September), All-Rookie Team

2011: Garry Niver Award, USA Today All-Joe Team

// GOLDMINE

- Watching Donte sprint from sideline to sideline on Sundays makes it hard to believe there were doubts on whether he would be able to walk again after suffering a near fatal accident as a youth. At the age of 6, Donte was run over by a car after darting into the middle of the street after a ball. For the next three months, Donte's mother, Deborah, carted her son around their Cleveland neighborhood in a wagon. Donte, who suffered multiple fractures to both legs, was forced to wear a body cast and doctors cautioned Deborah that her son might not be able to walk normally again. Obviously, Donte has since proved the doctors wrong.
- Upon his arrival to the 49ers in August, it didn't take long for Donte to reconnect with a familiar face. Both Donte and WR Ted Ginn Jr. attended Glenville High School in Cleveland, playing for Ginn's father, Ted Ginn Sr. Donte graduated from high school alongside former 49ers QB Troy Smith, while Ted Jr. followed close behind a year later.
- When Buffalo drafted Donte in 2006, he was just 20 years old. He had left for the NFL following his junior year in college, only after graduating several months early from high school to attend Ohio St.

HIGHLAND PARK HS, TOPEKA, KS

Michael Wilhoite signed with the Omaha Nighthawks of the UFL as an undrafted free agent in 2011 before being signed to San Francisco's practice squad on 12/14/11, where he remained for the rest of the season. Wilhoite starred collegiately at Washburn University as an in-the-box safety. He was named honorable mention All-MIAA, as a senior.

// TRANSACTIONS

Signed as an undrafted free agent to SF practice squad on 12/14/11... Signed to SF Reserve/Future contract on 1/24/12.

// GOLDMINE

- Wilhoite's early life growing up in a trailer park in Manhattan, KS, may sound tough to some, but not him, "It was actually really good. We weren't blessed with cash, but I had parents who loved and cared for me. I enjoyed life and was always outside playing football, basketball, baseball and swimming."

  Following his junior year in high school, Michael decided to move to Topeka to live with his grandparents, Shirley and Orville Buchheim, so that he could play basketball at highly rated Highland Park HS for head coach Ken Darding.
- Wilhoite took an interesting road to the NFL that began at Division II Washburn University in Topeka, KS. With two redshirt years, one due to an injury, Wilhoite spent six years developing his skills as a safety. Despite playing in the Cactus Bowl, the Division II all-star game, he did not latch on with a NFL team following his final season, in 2010. He later signed with the nearby Omaha Knighthawks of the UFL. "I had never played linebacker in my life until I got to the UFL. I used that experience as a research project. There were former first round picks on the team that I could learn what the NFL was like. The coaches had all worked in the NFL, so I made sure to pay attention to them in case I ever got a shot."

// 2011 (SAN FRANCISCO)

- Spent the remainder of the season on the 49ers practice squad after signing on 12/14/11.

// 2011 UFL (OMAHA NIGHTHAWKS)

- Signed with the Nighthawks as an undrafted free agent and appeared in 4 games.

// COLLEGE

Wilhoite played in 44 games (35 starts) at Washburn University and recorded 211 tackles and 3 interceptions. A three-year captain (2008-10), Wilhoite was an honorable-mention all-conference pick in 2010. As a senior, he posted 81 tackles for the Ichabods after missing the 2009 season due to a stress fracture in his right shin. In 2008, he started 11 games recording 57 total tackles en route to honorable mention all-MIAA honors. Started all 12 games in 2007 and recorded 58 tackles, 3 INTs, 3 PDs, 2 FRs, and a FF. He became the first Ichabod to return an INT for a TD in a post-season game as he picked off a pass returning it 27 yds. against West Texas A&M. Played in 9 games after making the switch from free safety to outside linebacker in 2009, recording 6 stops. Sat out the season as a redshirt freshman in 2005.

IAN WILLIAMS 93

NOSE TACKLE
6-1 | 305

NOTRE DAME | 2ND YEAR
BORN 8.31.89 | ALTAMONTE SPRINGS, FL
ACQUIRED FA IN '11
LYMAN HS, LONGWOOD, FL

Ian Williams joined the 49ers as an undrafted free agent out of Notre Dame, in 2011. He earned a spot on the 49ers 53-man roster, along with DT Demarcus Dobbs and QB Scott Tolzien. It marked the first time since 2001 that the 49ers had at least two undrafted free agents make the team (4 in 2001 - DT John Schlect, LB Quincy Stewart, LB Shane Elam and P Jason Baker). Williams appeared in one game in 2011.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally signed as an undrafted free agent with SF on 7/27/11.

// GOLDMINE

- Ian expressed how important it is to have relationships with people who have played in the league. Former 49er Bryant Young coached Ian his junior year at Notre Dame. "Just to have him as a reference and to be able to talk to him about stuff is huge, especially since he was out here for so long. He's like a legend and is going to be a Hall of Famer. It's great to have somebody like that who you're able to talk to, just run things by him and stuff like that." Ian talks to Bryant about once a month.
- Ian learned that one of the most important things you have to learn when entering the NFL is time management and attributes much of the early lessons he's learned to the older veteran players. "Just seeing the older players has helped me. You'd think once you've been in the League for a few years, guys start to relax and stuff like that, but that's not the case here, especially with Justin Smith. Those are the guys who I'm around every day, Justin, Ray McDonald, Isaac Sopoaga, and Ricky Jean Francois. Those guys are going hard every single day. They're coming in and doing extra stuff all the time. So, that was one thing I didn't expect when I got here. These guys are going even harder every day."

// 2011

- Made his NFL debut vs. TB (10/9) and recorded 1 tackle.

Played in 13 games (7 starts) as a sophomore and tallied 40 tackles, 2 TFLs and 1 PD. ## // GOLDMINE

- In 2007 and 2009, Patrick was named the recipient of the 49ers Bill Walsh Award. The Bill Walsh Award is voted on by the coaches and awarded to the 49ers team MVP. Willis is one of three players in franchise history to win the award twice (RB Frank Gore, DT Justin Smith).
- Patrick and his siblings were separated from his biological father when he was 16. He moved in with his guardians, the Finleys, who were in their 20's when they took in Patrick and his three other siblings. Chris Finley was a math teacher and Patrick's basketball coach in high school. Julie Finley taught 5th grade. He refers to Chris and Julie as mom and dad.
- Tragedy struck Patrick's family right before his senior year at Ole Miss. His brother, Detris, drowned in a swimming hole when he was just 17 years old. Detris was a talented FB/LB who was heading into his senior year at Central High School and was a Division I-A prospect. In memory of his late brother, Patrick had the Superman shield tattooed on his chest. "We both loved Superman growing up. We were strong no matter what, but also had our weaknesses." Below Patrick's Superman tattoo reads, "My brother shall rise again." "I believe someday when my time on earth is over, I'll see him again."
- Patrick has a variety of tattoos, with each carrying its own special meaning. One of his most inspirational tattoos is the word 'Believe' on his forearm. "When a person says 'I think,' I feel that leaves room for doubt. If I want to do something, I want to 'believe' I can do it, not just think." Patrick has three tear drop tattoos, which signify three significant people that have passed away in his life – his grandfather, uncle and brother.
- One of Patrick's biggest influences growing up was his uncle, Arthur Joe Willis, who was a professional light-heavyweight boxer from 1989-2000 and competed in 33 pro fights. Patrick looked up to his uncle because he was able to make a name for himself as a successful boxer. Arthur matched up against James "Lights Out" Toney in 1990, and Toney later went on to beat former heavyweight champion Evander Holyfield in 2003.
- One would think growing up in a small town of 1,500 people wouldn't provide much of a fan spotlight for young athletes. However, this was not the case for Patrick during his childhood in Bruceton, TN. "Growing up in such a small town, sports would turn into these big events, whether it was football, baseball or basketball. Everybody would come out to see you play."
- Competition is what has driven Patrick throughout his life. "I love to compete, no matter what sport it is. Basketball, baseball, football, golf, bowling, fishing, whatever. Basketball was my first love…I played everything, guard, forward, center. In baseball, I played everything too, except for catcher." Patrick set the record for most home runs in Little League. He started playing golf with his dad, Chris Finley, when he was 16. "Even though I'm not too good, I love to compete."

- Patrick was a standout basketball player at Central High School, where he averaged close to 20 points and 10 rebounds per game throughout his career. An all-district, all-region and All-West Tennessee selection, Patrick played every position on the court and was named the district's Most Valuable Player. It wasn't on the blacktop where he crafted his game, but rather on the dirt in front of his house. At the age of 7, Patrick, his brother and his dad constructed a basketball hoop from cedar planks. For the next 10 years, one could often find Patrick and his family playing toe-to-toe on that very same hoop. "That's what kept me busy. We didn't have sport clubs, malls or movie theatres nearby. All we had was each other."
- Since moving to the Bay Area, Patrick has been able to purchase a house of his own. "Buying my house in the Bay Area was awesome, truly a blessing. To grow up in a house like I grew up in and then now to have my real, own home that I can call home feels amazing. I'm truly grateful." Having his own house has served to be a great place for his family to come and visit, as they have their own wing. Pat, being the leader he is both on the field and off, also uses his house to host team get-togethers during the season and off-season in order to bring the guys closer together. "I think having get-togethers at my house, hanging out with teammates and getting to know them off-the-field is big, because believe it or not, last season was the first time I've felt I have truly had the opportunity to hang out with more than just one guy on the team, but multiple guys on the team. At the end of the day, one or two guys don't win as a team, three guys don't win as a team, the whole group does. And I think we've built a camaraderie hanging out like we did last year, having get-togethers, nothing crazy, but just bonding time because it's like family."
- Patrick believes several of the jobs he held as a youth have made him into the hard-working person he is today. At the ripe age of 10, Patrick worked in a cotton field to help financially support his family. "My grandmother got me a job chopping cotton. I got $110 a week for chopping the weeds around the cotton so it could grow." Patrick's next job was in masonry, where he would mix mortar for the building of structures. He then worked alongside his father, who was a logger. "I would use a chainsaw and cut the limbs off. It was a pretty crazy job, I would get cut up all over." When Patrick was a sophomore and junior in high school, he would perform general maintenance around the school, which included waxing all the floors on the property.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 11
SEATTLE 17, SAN FRANCISCO 33
CANDLESTICK PARK

The 49ers opened up the 2011 season with a 33–17 victory over the defending NFC West Division champion Seattle Seahawks, on the 10th anniversary of 9/11. After a scoreless 1st qtr., the 49ers got on the board with a 27–yd. FG by K David Akers, his first of four FGs on the afternoon. On the ensuing Seattle possession, LB Parys Haralson sacked and stripped Seahawks QB Tarvaris Jackon. The ball landed in the hands of DT Will Tukuafu, who registered his first–career FR on his first–career play from scrimmage. Four plays later, Akers tacked on his 2nd FG, giving the 49ers a 6–0 lead. After a 3–and–out stop by the 49ers defense, one of six on the day, QB Alex Smith drove the 49ers into the red zone, only to come away with Akers' 3rd FG. After a Seahawks punt, Smith and the offense took over from the Seattle 49 yd. line with 1:44 remaining in the half. The calm and steady Smith completed 4 of 4 pass atts. in the 2–minute drive and capped it off with a 1–yd. TD run, his first since 2006, to give SF a 16–0 halftime lead. The Seahawks responded on their first possession of the 3rd qtr., marching down the field on a 9 play, 56–yd. drive and an 8–yd. TD pass from Jackson to WR Golden Tate, cutting the 49ers lead to 16–7. Seattle added a 39–yd. FG by K Steven Hauschka on the first play of the 4th qtr., making the score 16–10. The 49ers answered with a 15–play, 72 yd. drive that took over 9 minutes off the clock before Akers nailed his 4th FG, making the score 19–10. On the Seahawks next drive, Jackson found rookie WR Doug Baldwin for a 55–yd. TD recept., making it a one score game with just under 4 minutes to play. On the ensuing kickoff, WR Ted Ginn Jr. saw a hole and raced down the sideline for a 102–yd. kickoff return for a TD, the 49ers first KOR for a TD since 2008. The 49ers defense forced another Seahawks punt 59 seconds later and Ginn fielded the punt on his own 45 yd. line, found a crease, and darted for the end zone, sealing the game. Ginn became the 12 player in NFL history and the first in 49ers history to return a kickoff and a punt for a TD in same game.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 18
DALLAS 27, SAN FRANCISCO 24 (OT)
CANDLESTICK PARK

San Francisco's regime led by Jim Harbaugh and his new, but experienced staff entered the historic rivalry match against the Dallas Cowboys with something to prove at Candlestick Park. The 49ers started off as they had hoped, scoring 2 first–half TDs and blanking America's Team, but big pass plays late in the game would ultimately cause the Niners to fall short as they were edged 27–24 in overtime. Dallas opened the 1st qtr. marching down the field, but came up short after a failed 21–yd. FG attempt by K Dan Bailey. After exchanging the next couple of possessions, QB Alex Smith led the Niners on a 68–yd. drive, capped off by a 1–yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore in the 2nd qtr. The 49ers front seven played strong, swarming and stopping the run, allowing Smith and the Niners to regain possession to take a 14–0 lead. The 12–yd. throw from Smith marked the first TD of WR Kyle Williams' career and the team's first passing TD of 2011. QB Tony Romo and the Cowboys answered before the half on a 71–yd. drive, capped off by a 53–yd. TD slant to WR Miles Austin, making it a one score game heading into the half. Dallas lost its starting QB for a brief stretch in the 3rd qtr., when it appeared Romo's rib injury – occurring on the 3rd play of the game – had become too much of a hindrance. Backup QB Jon Kitna started the 3rd qtr. and threw a tying TD pass and 2 INTs in relief. Displaying good ball skills and awareness, CB Tramaine Brock came up with his 2nd INT of the season in as many weeks, reacting to a Kitna tipped pass and coming up with the turnover. Smith and the 49ers took advantage of the Cowboys turnover with a deep pass down the right sideline to TE Delanie Walker for 29 yds. and the go–ahead TD entering the 4th qtr. K David Akers connected on a 55–yd. FG, marking the longest FG in Candlestick Park history, and the Niners built up a 10–pt. cushion. The Cowboys charged back from the 24–14 deficit when Romo hit Austin for a leaping 25–yd. TD, and then directed a 10–play, 44–yd. drive in the final 4 minutes that ended with an overtime–forcing, 48–yd. field goal. After the Cowboys' defense forced a punt on the 49ers first OT drive, Romo found backup WR Jesse Holley in stride for a 77–yd. gain that set up 19–yd. game–winning FG.

NOTES: The 49ers defense held the Cowboys to 7 yds. rushing (9 atts.) in the 1st half. The 7 yds. allowed tie for the fewest rush. yds. yielded in the 1st half by the 49ers since 12/18/95 vs. Min. (7 yds. on 8 atts.)...WR Kyle Williams hauled in an 12–yd. TD recept. from QB Alex Smith. # SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 25
SAN FRANCISCO 13, CINCINNATI 8
PAUL BROWN STADIUM

The 49ers traveled to the Eastern time zone for a 10–day, two–game trip, opening up against the Cincinnati Bengals. With the chance to bounce back from a heartbreaking 27–24 OT loss against the Dallas Cowboys in Week 2, San Francisco did just that and survived a 13–8 opening road victory. The NFL's top–ranked rush defense limited Bengals RB Cedric Benson to just 64 yds. on 17 carries. It was the 25th straight game the 49ers didn't allow a 100–yd. rusher, marking the longest active streak in the NFL. Passing right out of the gate, the Bengals and QB Andy Dalton completed 5 passes on the opening drive to get down to the Niners 2–yd. line. He couldn't, however, connect with WR Jerome Simpson on 3rd–and–goal and the Bengals settled for a 22–yd. FG to start the game. The teams then traded punts throughout the 1st half and San Francisco went into the locker room down 3–0 as QB Alex Smith was 9 for 17 passing for 74 yds.. The 49ers held the ball for 5 minutes on the opening possession of the 2nd half, but could not advance past midfield. San Francisco did flip the field however after the Bengals were forced to punt on the next possession to finally give the Niners field position beyond their own 20–yd. line. The 49ers quickly took advantage when Smith hit TE Vernon Davis on a streak down the right sideline that took the ball all the way down to the Bengals 6–yd. line. A potential TD catch by WR Michael Crabtree was nullified after the officials ruled that he went out of bounds before returning to make a high–flying grab in the end zone. A Bengals personal foul, then set up a 1st and goal at the 5–yd. line, but the 49ers were stopped and settled for a K David Akers 23–yd. FG that tied the game 3–3. After a RB Frank Gore fumble deep in San Francisco territory, the Niners defense held Cincinnati to just a 23–yd. FG with 9:08 remaining in the 4th qtr. The 49ers answered with a 10–play, 72–yd. drive, capped off by a 7–yd. TD run by RB Kendall Hunter, putting the Niners in the lead 10–6. After Hunter's 1st career TD run, Dalton threw an INT that landed in the hands of CB Carlos Rogers and led to an eventual Akers 53–yard field goal for a 13–6 lead. The crowd headed for the exits when S Reggie Smith intercepted Dalton once again with 1:45 left. The 49ers took a safety in running out the clock to collect their first road win at Cincinnati since 12/9/90 and improved their overall series record vs. Cincinnati to 11–3.

NOTES: The Niners improved their overall series record vs. Cincinnati to 11–3, including a record of 4–2 on the road...The 49ers beat a team from the AFC North division for the 1st time since beating the Bengals 20–13 at Candlestick Park (12/15/07)...The 49ers won for the 1st time at Cincinnati since 12/9/90, when they defeated the Bengals 20–17 in overtime...K David Akers made his 300th career field goal on a 23–yarder in the 3rd quarter, ranking him 6th among active players for career field goals made... CB Carlos Rogers picked off Bengals QB Andy Dalton, marking his 1st INT as a 49er and 1st since 12/26/10 at Jax...S Reggie Smith sealed the victory for the 49ers after intercepting Dalton with 1:45 left on the game clock. The pick for Smith was his 1st since 12/12/10 vs. Sea...RB Kendall Hunter notched his first career TD on a 7–yd. run late in the 4th qtr. to give the 49ers a 10–6 lead. # SUNDAY, OCTOBER 2
SAN FRANCISCO 24, PHILADELPHIA 23
LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD

The 49ers superb 2nd half play propelled them to a come–from–behind, 24–23, victory against the Eagles within the confines of hostile Lincoln Financial Field. Coming off an impressive road victory against the Cincinnati Bengals a week prior, the Niners were looking to win consecutive road wins, something they had not done since 2006. Down 23–3, QB Alex Smith went to work in the 3rd qtr. and threw a career best 179 passing yds. in the qtr. Smith finished the day with a rating of 112.1, improving his record to 12–1 when he has a passer rating of 96.0 or better. After the Eagles went 3–and–out on their 1st possession of the game, the 49ers took over on the ensuing drive, moving the ball 65 yds. before stalling on a missed 44–yd. FG by K David Akers. The Niners quickly regained possession after CB Carlos Rogers picked off Eagles QB Michael Vick for a 27 yd. return, but the 49ers could not capitalize on the Eagles turnover and were forced to punt the ball away. Vick and the Eagles then marched down the field on a 6–play, 76–yd. drive, capped off by a TE Clay Harbor 16–yd. TD recept. to give the Eagles a 7–0 lead. The two sides traded FGs their next possessions and the Eagles took a 13–3 lead before going into the half leading 20–3. A 49ers blocked FG on a 45–yd. attempt by David Akers opened the 2nd half and Eagles K Alex Henery responded and made a 33–yd. FG to give the Eagles a 23–3 lead. The 49ers bounced back with a 4–play, 80–yd. drive, capped off by a WR Joshua Morgan 30–yd. TD recept. On the Niners next possession, Smith hit WR Michael Crabtree with a 38–yd. pass and finished the drive by hitting TE Vernon Davis with a 9–yd.TD recept. that made it a 23–17 game. After 2 Eagles missed FG's, the 49ers took over and Smith got them moving down the field. RB Frank Gore broke a big run for 25 yds. to open the drive. RB Kendall Hunter then broke a 14–yd. run to put the 49ers on the Philly 12–yd. line. Gore then ran in from 12 yards on the 77–yard drive that ended with his powerful surge into the end zone and a 24–23 lead. The Eagles had a chance to go down the field and score as Vick hit WR Jeremy Maclin for a 33–yd. pass. The drive then stalled after Vick hit Maclin again with a 17–yd. pass, but DT Justin Smith forced a fumble that was recovered by S Dashon Goldson with 2:15 remaining for the 49ers to seal the victory and the comeback.

NOTES: Head coach Jim Harbaugh became the 3rd 49ers head coach to win his first two road games...The 49ers won consecutive road games for the 1st time since 2006, winning at Sea. (12/14) and at Den. (12/31)...The Niners were down 23–3 in the 3rd qtr. and came back to win 24–23. The 20–pt. deficit overcome by the team was the most since 10/20/96 vs. Cin. # SUNDAY, OCTOBER 9
TAMPA BAY 3, SAN FRANCISCO 48
CANDLESTICK PARK

San Francisco flew past Tampa Bay in a 48–3 rout at Candlestick Park to move the team to 4–1 for the first time since 2002. RB Frank Gore ran for a TD in his second straight 100–yd. rushing game and QB Alex Smith threw 3 TDs on the day to deliver the 49ers most lopsided regular season victory since a 48–0 shutout of the Los Angeles Rams (12/27/1987). Smith's first TD emerged after finding TE Delanie Walker in the end zone for a 26–yd. TD on the team's opening drive. The Bucs and QB Josh Freeman answered by marching 74 yds. down the field on 13 plays before settling for a 24–yd. FG and their only score of the game. On a pass intended for TE Kellen Winslow early in the 2nd qtr., CB Carlos Rogers extended his arms and his streak, collecting his 3rd straight INT in as many games, returning it 31 yds. for a TD and erasing RB Frank Gore's fumble in the closing seconds of the 1st qtr. At 14–3, the Niners would again interrupt Tampa Bay's game plan when rookie CB Chris Culliver picked off Freeman, leading to a 2–yd. TD run from Gore. Gore's scoring run gave him 38 rushing TDs for his career, 4th on the fran–chise list. K David Akers later hit a 37–yd. FG to make it 24–3 heading into halftime. Smith hit 4 different receivers on completions of 12 yds. or longer in the 1st half. He opened the 3rd qtr. the same fashion as the 1st, but this time he found TE Vernon Davis in the end zone on a 23–yd. scoring strike to stretch the lead to 31–3. The Niners would settle for a 27–yd. FG their next possession before S Dashon Goldson forced a fumble that was picked up by LB Patrick Willis, prompting Davis to strike again for a 14–yd. TD recept., marking his second score on the day. Smith finished the game with a QB rating of 127.2, marking the first time in his career he recorded a QB rating of 100+ in consecutive games (112.1 at Phi.). In the final minutes, rookie QB Colin Kaepernick joined the scoring frenzy and led the Niners 90 yds. on 11 plays, capped off with a 1–yd. TD run from RB Anthony Dixon. During the drive WR Joshua Morgan suffered a lower leg injury on the tackle after his 19–yd recept. was cut short near the goal line. Morgan tallied a game–high 5 recepts. for 75 yds. on the day.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 16
SAN FRANCISCO 25, DETROIT 19
FORD FIELD

Inside the 2–minute warning, the 49ers silenced a rowdy, sold out Ford Field as TE Delanie Walker stretched a 6–yd. recept. past the goal line for the game–winning TD over the previously unbeaten Detroit Lions. San Francisco snapped Detroit's 9–game win streak, the league's longest active streak, with its 25–19 come–from–behind victory. The 49ers improved to 5–1 for the 1st time since 1998 and won their 3rd straight road game, something the Niners hadn't done since 1992. On the 49ers 1st offensive snap, QB Alex Smith dropped back, but was blindsided by Lions DE Kyle Vanden Bosch, who stripped and recovered the football giving the Lions possession in 49ers territory. After the defense held the Lions to a 25–yd. FG., the next drive LB Aldon Smith issued 1 of his 2 sacks on Lions QB Matthew Stafford for a safety in the 2nd qtr. The safety was the 1st for the 49ers since 12/7/03 vs. the Arizona Cardinals. In the closing minutes before the half, K David Akers tied his season–best with a 55–yarder to send the 49ers into the locker room with a 12–10 lead. With 5:43 remaining in the 4th qtr. and needing a TD to overcome a 4–point deficit of 19–15, WR Ted Ginn Jr. gave the 49ers excellent field position as he returned a punt 40 yds. to Detroit's 35–yd. line. With 1:56 remaining in the game and the 49ers facing a 4th and goal from the 6–yd. line, Walker lined up out wide at WR and caught Smith's line drive pass, dragging Lions S Louis Delmas in the process, for the game–winning TD. The play stood after video review confirmed the ball broke the plane of the goal line before Walker was down. Akers gave San Francisco a six–point lead with 1:02 to go on a 37–yd. FG. Detroit had a chance to drive for a tying FG or a go–ahead TD, but couldn't get a 1st down against a swarming de–fense that recorded 5 sacks on Stafford. Alex Smith was 17–of–32 for 125 yds. and 1 TD, going early and often to WR Michael Crabtree, who matched a career high with 9 recepts. for 77 yds. RB Frank Gore rushed 15 times for 141 yds., including a season–long 55–yd. gain, and scored a TD that pulled the 49ers within 3 after they were outscored 10–0 in the 1st qtr. The 49ers run defense held the Lions to 18 rush attempts for 66 yds., extending their league–best 28–game streak without allowing a 100–yd. rusher. Smith guided the Niners to their 3rd, 4th qtr. come–from–behind road victory of the season, one short of tying QB Joe Montana with four (1989), for the most in 49ers history.

NOTES: Head coach Jim Harbaugh became the 3rd 49ers head coach to win his first three road games and became the 5th head coach in 49ers history to start 5–1...The 49ers won their first three road games for the first time since 1992...QB Alex Smith has led the 49ers on three come–from–behind victories this season (at. RB Frank Gore ran for 134 yds. and a TD, marking his fourth straight game with at least one score and over 125 yds. on the ground, as the 49ers beat the Cleveland Browns 20–10. The 49ers were built to stop the run and they did just that. For the 29th straight game, the 49ers did not allow a rusher to go over the century mark. Early in the 3rd qtr., Gore muscled up the middle for a 2–yard gain, moving him past RB Roger Craig (7,064 yds.) into 2nd place on the 49ers all–time career rushing list. Despite their early success on offense, the Nin–ers were quiet for the majority of the 2nd half, as the Browns stopped six consecutive drives. With a little over six minutes left in the game, McCoy threw a 45–yd. TD strike to WR Joshua Cribbs, making it a one score game at 17–10. On the final Niners drive, Sopoaga caught his 1st career recept. for 18 yds. on a key 3rd and 4. The 11–play, 65–yd. drive would eventually set up an Akers' 26–yd. FG and the final score.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 6
SAN FRANCISCO 19, WASHINGTON 11
FEDEX FIELD

San Francisco improved to 7–1 for the first time since 1997 and extended its 6–game winning streak after topping the Washington Redskins, 19–11, on the road. With all four of their road victories coming from Eastern time zone kickoffs, the 49ers remained unbeaten on the road for the first time since 1992. RB Frank Gore ran for 107 yds. on 19 carries and set a new franchise record with 5 consecutive 100–yd. rushing games. QB Alex Smith spread the ball out to 8 different receivers and connected on 17 of 24 passes for 200 yds. and a TD. The 49ers point–stingy defense forced three turn–overs and converted them into 10 points. With less than a minute remain–ing in a scoreless 1st qtr., S Dashon Goldson intercepted QB John Beck's intended pass to TE Fred Davis near midfield. K David Akers cashed in on the turnover with a 52–yd. FG to become the first kicker in franchise history to make four 50+ yd. FGs in a season. After the two teams traded posses–sions, the Niners moved the ball back into Washington's territory after Smith scrambled for an 8–yd. gain. An explosive 27–yd. run by Gore and an 8–yd. gain from RB Kendall Hunter eventually set up another FG, this time for 34 yds. After Washington took the field with 1:41 remaining before halftime, LB Patrick Willis stripped the ball away from RB Roy Helu and S Donte Whitner recovered it for his 2nd career FR. On the next play, Smith promptly hit rookie FB Bruce Miller for a 30–yd. TD pass to give the 49ers a 13–0 lead late in the 1st half. The Redskins avoided a 1st–half shutout thanks to K Graham Gano's franchise–record, 59–yd. FG as the 1st half expired. The Redskins first play in the 3rd qtr. ended abruptly when LB Ahmad Brooks brought down Beck for a 3–yd. loss, picking up his 5th sack of the season. The Redskins went 3–and–out and Akers converted on a 45–yd. FG on the ensuing drive for a 16–3 lead. In the opening minutes of the 4th qtr., the 49ers burnt up 7:19 of the clock with a 10–play, 64–yd. drive capped off by a 20–yd. FG for a 19–3 advantage. Willis recorded his 2nd FF of the game in the 4th qtr., while his sidekick LB NaVorro Bowman scooped it up for his 2nd FR of the season. With 1:10 remaining, Beck connected with WR Jabar Gaffney on a 9–yd. pass for a TD and 2–point conversion. With Gano on the field to attempt an onside kick, TE Vernon Davis joined the 49ers special teams unit and secured the win with the recovery.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 13
NEW YORK GIANTS 20, SAN FRANCISCO 27
CANDLESTICK PARK

The 49ers stopped a late Giants rally and secured their seventh straight victory, 27–20, in the Fox Sports 'Game of the Week.' The hero of the game on defense was DT Justin Smith who had seven tackles and the most important pass deflection in his career. With 34 seconds remaining in the game, Smith batted down Giants QB Eli Manning's 4th–down pass from the 49ers 10–yd. line to end the Giants drive and any hopes of victory. "He's having a great year, should be in the MVP conversation," Head Coach Jim Harbaugh said of Justin Smith after his team improved to 8–1 for the first time since 1997. "He's having that kind of a year for us. He's got a huge heart." QB Alex Smith was impressive, completing 19 of 30 passes for 242 yds. and 1 TD, while rushing for 27 yds. on 6 carries. The matchup began with K David Akers and Giants K Lawrence Tynes trading FGs in the 1st half. Akers connected on 4 for 4 FGs of the day, nailing them from 36, 52, 39 and 28 yds. His 52–yd. FG marked his 5th, 50+ yd. FG in as many tries. On the ensuing kickoff, San Francisco surprised the Giants with an onside kick, and TE Delanie Walker recovered the ball at the 47 yd. line. Akers finished the 7–play, 32–yd. drive with a 39–yd. FG with 1:49 remaining in the first half. Manning was then intercepted by CB Carlos Rogers, but was countered with a pickoff by CB Corey Webster to end the half with the 49ers leading 9–6. The 49ers started the 2nd half with a 10–play, 70–yd. drive to set up Akers' 28–yarder for a 12–6 lead. Faced with a 3rd–and–6 from the 13, Manning responded and lofted a pass into the right corner of the end zone for WR Mario Manningham to come down inbounds for a TD and a 13–12 lead. After trading possessions, the 49ers took over at midfield following a 29–yd. punt. After a neutral zone infraction gave San Francisco a set of new downs, RB Kendall Hunter's 6–yd. run put the ball at the 31. Smith found TE Vernon Davis for 31–yds. on the next play, who sprinted down the left sideline and leaped over the safety for the score. WR Michael Crabtree converted the 2–pt. conversion with a catch for a 20–13 lead with 13:22 to play. On the Giants' next drive, Rogers notched his second INT of the day after picking off Manning for his first career multi–pick game. The 49ers next play featured Hunter slipping through the line and jaunting 17–yds. for a TD to increase the lead to 27–13. The Giants marched down the field and answered after WR Hakeem Nicks caught the ball and was tackled into the end zone, making it a 27–20 contest with 8:37 to go. After trading possessions the Giants pushed the ball back into 49ers territory to the 10, but New York was held to zero yds. over the next three plays.

NOTES: San Francisco improved to 8–1 for the first time since 1997 and recorded their first seven–game winning streak since 1997 … Head Coach Jim Harbaugh became the 3rd rookie head coach in 49ers history to start 8–1 … The 49ers run defense had not allowed a 100–yd. rusher in the last 31 games, which marked the longest active streak in the NFL … K David Akers made 4–of–4 FGs, including a 52–yd. FG in the 2nd qtr. for his 5th 50+ yd. FG of the season … The Niners successfully executed an onside kick in the 2nd qtr. after TE Delanie Walker recovered the kick by Akers. The 49ers forced five turnovers, allowed seven points and posted two sacks to defeat the Arizona Cardinals 23–7 on a soggy Sunday at Candlestick. San Francisco outgained Arizona 431 yds. to 229 yds. of total offense. The 49ers also held the ball for 44:16, marking the highest time of possession for the team since 11/3/02 at Oak. QB Alex Smith completed 20 of 38 passes for 267 yds and two TDs with 1 INT. LB Patrick Willis, S Donte Whitner and S Dashon Goldson all intercepted passes by Cardinals QB John Skelton. Willis contributed with two Cardinals turnovers on their first four series, including an interception on a tipped pass by CB Tarell Brown and later a FF, both in Cardinals territory. Willis said it felt "unbelievable" to play on a team with a winning record for the first time in his five seasons. But he didn't refer to the "winning season" as a rallying cry. "We just talked about this being a new season and what's ahead of us," said Willis. Leading 9–0 at the half, the 49ers put the game away with an 84–yd. TD drive to start the 2nd half. It consumed nearly eight minutes and gave them a 16–0 lead. Smith connected with WR Kyle Williams on a route near the pylon and stretched the ball over the goal line as he was tackled to complete the TD. On the ensuing drive, Skelton sailed a pass over WR Larry Fitzgerald that Whitner caught in stride for the easy INT. Smith rallied San Francisco for another quick score by tossing his 13th TD of the season and 64th of his career on a 18–yd. catch to TE Vernon Davis. The TD recept. by Davis now ranks him 1st in franchise history for the most TD recepts. among TEs (Brent Jones), with 34 career TDs. WR Larry Fitzgerald ended the 49ers' shutout bid when he caught a 23–yd. TD pass from Cardinals QB Richard Bartel with 8:38 remaining in the game. San Francisco improved to 9–1 for the first time since 1997 and recorded their first eight–game winning streak since 1997. The 9–1 start also cemented the first winning season for the team since 2002 when they finished 10–6.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 24
SAN FRANCISCO 6, BALTIMORE 16
M&T BANK STADIUM

Although the 49ers had their eight–game winning streak end in the inaugural "Harbowl" on Thanksgiving night, Jim Harbaugh was thankful for the experience of coaching against Baltimore's John Harbaugh in the first NFL game with two brothers on opposite sidelines as head coaches. "I was proud to be part of it, proud to be part of the family," Jim said. "I was thankful on Thanksgiving. It was a wonderful thing." The hard–fought 16–6 contest became a national smash, which was the highest viewed NFL Network program in their eight–year history. Locked in a defensive battle for much of the game, San Francisco fell short due to a high–pressure Ravens defense that delayed the 49ers chances for at least one more week of clinching their first NFC West title since 2002. After Baltimore took a quick 3–0 lead on a 39–yd. FG on the opening drive, San Francisco cooled down the Ravens' offense on three straight drives, largely because the run game wasn't finding much success against the NFL's leading run–stopping unit. The 49ers knotted the game at three after K David Akers split the uprights for a 45–yd. FG near the end of the 1st qtr. On the fourth play of the 2nd qtr., QB Alex Smith connected with WR Ted Ginn Jr. in what would have been a 75–yd. TD, but it was called back on a chop block penalty and San Francisco had to punt. After trading possessions, the 49ers showcased the league's stingiest defense and denied Baltimore on three chances from inside the five. The Ravens settled for a 23–yd. FG, as the 49ers kept their streak alive as the only NFL team to not allow a rushing TD this season. San Francisco drove within striking distance before the half, but Smith's 35–yd. toss into the end zone intended for WR Braylon Edwards was intercepted by CB Lardarius Webb to keep it a 6–3 game at the half. The 49ers next scoring chance came after WR Michael Crabtree hauled in an 18–yd. pass from Smith on a 3rd–and–17 in the 3rd qtr. Akers capped the 13–play opening drive that lasted over seven minutes with a game–tying 52–yd. FG, marking his 6th 50+ yd. FG this season. Akers is the only kicker in the NFL to be perfect from 50+ yds. (min. 4 atts.) this season. QB Joe Flacco and the Ravens responded with the game's decisive score on a 76–yd., 16–play drive that ended with an 8–yd. TD pass to TE Dennis Pitta with 14:56 left. The Ravens offense put the game away late in the 4th qtr. to take a 10–point lead on a 39–yd. FG.

NOTES: The game marked the first NFL game featuring brothers as opposing head coaches … The 49ers defense had not allowed a TD in the first half in each of the past 5 games, which is the longest streak in franchise history and the most in the NFL since the Dallas Cowboys had 5 consecutive in 2008 ... The 49ers became the only team in the NFL to not allow a rushing TD in the first 11 games of the 2011 season. Their 11–game streak to not allow a rushing TD ranked t–1st in the NFL since 1970 … The 49ers run defense did not allow a 100–yd. rusher in the last 33 games, which marked the longest active streak in the NFL … K David Akers connected on a 52–yd. FG in the 3rd qtr., marking his 6th, 50+ yd. FG this season … P Andy Lee punted the ball 5 times, averaging 57.6 yds. per punt.

RB Frank Gore became the 49ers all–time leading rusher and San Francisco clinched the NFC West Division title for the first time in nine years by shutting out the St. Louis Rams, 26–0. Gore needed 22 yds. to surpass 49ers and Pro Football Hall of Famer Joe Perry's all–time mark of 7,344 yds., and did so with a 2–yd. run off the right edge in the 2nd qtr. "I have the utmost respect for him as a person and as a player," head coach Jim Harbaugh said. "It's a powerful thing to set that kind of a record." Harbaugh joined George Seifert (1989) and Steve Mariucci (1997) as the only rookie head coaches in 49ers history to win the NFC West Division in their first year as head coach. "It's the first step," noted QB Alex Smith. "We talked about it all week, win the division." Smith completed 17 of 23 pass atts. for 274 yds., 2 TDs and a QB rating of 142.3, setting a new single–game career–high. He also registered TD passes of 52 yds. and 56 yds., marking the first time of his career that he's had two, 50–plus yd. TD passes in the same game. After trading pos–sessions on the first two drives, the 49ers went 46 yds. in 10 plays before K David Akers nailed a 36–yd. FG to give San Francisco a 3–0 lead with 4:54 remaining in the 1st qtr. On the ensuing series, LB Patrick Willis injured his right hamstring while trying to tackle Rams FB Brit Miller after an 18–yd. catch. Willis did not return to the game and watched the 2nd half on the sideline. Early in the 2nd qtr., DT Ray McDonald stripped the ball from Rams QB A.J. Feeley and was recovered by LB Aldon Smith at the Rams 6–yd. line. The turnover led to Akers' second FG, this time a 19–yd. chip shot to make it 6–0. Gore broke off a 20–yd. run to highlight their next 10–play, 55–yd. drive before the half and Akers booted a 28–yarder for his 31st of the year, topping K Jeff Wilkins' single–season franchise mark of 30 set in 1996. With the 49ers leading 9–0, the Rams got the ball into San Francisco territory on their first possession of the 2nd half, but the drive ended after S Dashon Goldson picked off an underthrown, deep pass in the middle of the field. San Francisco then marched 88 yds. in four plays as WR Michael Crabtree broke free down the middle of the field for a 52–yd. score to make it 16–0. After the Rams punted on the ensuing drive, Akers knocked a 34–yd. FG through the uprights to make it 19–0. The final score came in the 4th qtr. when Smith connected with WR Kyle Williams on a slant, who then outran a host of Rams for a 56–yd. catch and run TD, marking the longest play from scrim–mage of the year. "This was something that we as a team really wanted," said Gore after waiving a giant 49ers flag all the way back into the celebra–tory locker room. "It has been the same group of guys that have been here for a while and since we have been here that has been our goal. This year has been a great opportunity to get it and we don't want to let it get away."

SAN FRANCISCO 19, ARIZONA 21
UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM

A week after clinching the NFC West Division title, the 49ers lost to Arizona, 21–19. K David Akers connected on 4 of 5 FG attempts, setting career highs in both FGs (36) and FGAs (42) in a single season. RB Frank Gore notched his 5th, 1,000–yd. rushing season of his career, rushing for 72 yds. and 1 TD on 10 carries.The 49ers opened the scoring on their second possession of the game, courtesy of DT Justin Smith, who stopped QB Kevin Kolb on the opening drive with a fumble–forcing sack on 3rd down. Kolb suffered a head injury during the drive and was replaced by QB John Skelton. San Francisco got the ball on its 43 and Akers knocked through a 46–yd. FG to give San Francisco a 3–0 lead. After both teams traded possessions, WR Ted Ginn Jr. returned a punt 52 yds. down to the Cardinals' 4–yd. line on the final play of the 1st qtr. The offense stalled though, and Akers nailed a 22–yd. FG for a 6–0 advantage. On the following drive, rookie LB Aldon Smith stripped the ball from Skelton on 3rd–and–7, while DT Ray McDonald picked up the loose ball for his first FR of the season. The 49ers moved to the Arizona 40, where Akers lined up for a 50–yd. FG attempt, but holder P Andy Lee stood up suddenly and tossed the ball to C Jonathan Goodwin for the apparent score on the fake FG attempt. The whistle blew mid–play, with Cardinals head coach Ken Whisenhunt challenging the previous play, a pass from QB Alex Smith to WR Kyle Williams. Due to a replay system malfunction, the play was repeated, but Akers' 50–yd. attempt was wide right. On the ensu–ing play, Skelton threw over the middle to WR Early Doucet, as he raced 60 yds. for the score and a 7–6 lead with 7:10 left in the half. San Francisco responded on its next drive with a 10–play, 69–yd. march, that was capped by a 27–yd. FG from Akers to go ahead 9–7. Akers also connected on his 4th FG of the half from 22–yds out to put the 49ers up 12–7 heading into the locker room. After the break, Aldon Smith brought down Skelton for his 10.5 sack of the season and forced a punt. He became the first 49er to record double–digit sacks since 2002 and ranks t–2nd among all rookies in franchise history. The 49ers took over from the Arizona 37, and on the first play, Gore raced 37 yds. for the score. It marked the 49ers longest TD run of the season. The Cardinals responded on their ensuing drive when Skelton connected with WR Larry Fitzgerald for a 46–yd. TD strike. Trailing 19–14, Arizona took the lead for good on a 6–play, 78–yd. drive, capped off by a 3–yd. TD catch by WR Andre Roberts to put the Cardinals ahead 21–19. Following the score, the teams swapped punts before San Francisco got the ball back with 2:51 to play. They got as far as their own 41 before Smith's pass on 4th and 1 was knocked down, sealing the win for the Cardinals.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 19
PITTSBURGH 3, SAN FRANCISCO 20
CANDLESTICK PARK

The San Francisco 49ers 20–3 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers on Monday Night Football once again put the NFC West champions in the lead for the second seed in the NFC. The 49ers improved to 11–3, recording their first 11–win season since 2001. San Francisco also became the first team in NFL history to not allow a rushing TD in its first 14 games of a season. QB Alex Smith finished the night connecting on 18 of 31 passes for 187 yds. and 1 TD. With QB Ben Roethlisberger's health status up in the air heading into the game, the 49ers made sure the 6–foot–5 passer was never comfortable standing in the pocket. Rookie LB Aldon Smith recorded 2.5 sacks on the night and 7 QB hits. Since sacks became an official statistic in 1982, Smith's 13.0 sacks on the season are the highest total by a rookie in franchise history. The INTs came early for the 49ers defense, when CB Carlos Rogers recorded his sixth INT of the season in the 49ers end zone, returning the ball to the 27 yd. line. The 49ers went on a 17–play drive that was capped off with a 22–yd. FG by K David Akers. S Dashon Goldson snagged an overthrown pass at the 49ers 34 yd. line on the Steelers next series to match Rogers' team–leading sixth INT of the season. Like Rogers, Goldson's takeaway set up a 38–yd. FG by Akers, putting him atop San Francisco's single–season scoring record with 143 pts., surpassing a mark previously held by Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice (138 pts. in 1987). The Steelers drove the ball into 49ers territory, but were pushed back to their own 42 yd. line following back–to–back penalties. The Steelers avoided a shutout thanks to K Shaun Suisham's 51–yd. FG on their first series after halftime. That FG pulled Pittsburgh closer at 6–3. The 49ers surged ahead 13–3 later in the 3rd qtr., when Smith tossed a 1–yd. TD pass to TE Vernon Davis, who made a 21–yd. recept. on the previous play. RB Frank Gore increased the Niners lead to 20–3, capped by Akers' PAT, on a 5–yd run for his 4th rushing TD in seven MNF games.

K David Akers kicked four FGs, including the game–winning FG late in the 4th qtr. to push San Francisco past Seattle, 19–17 at CenturyLink Field on Christmas Eve. The 49ers, who had the NFC West crown locked up, improved to 12–3, marking the first 12–win season by the 49ers since 2001. "We knew what was on the line," Alex Smith said. "They (Seattle) were playing for their playoff lives. They threw everything at us. They were geared up and this is as hostile of an environment as it gets." Smith rallied his team for his 5th come–from–behind victory this season and his 4th on the road. Trailing by one, 17–16, Smith connected with WR Michael Crabtree for a 41–yd. catch down the left sideline, placing the ball at the Seahawks 28. Four plays later with 2:57 remaining in the game, Akers capped his record–setting day by hitting the game–winning 39–yd. FG. San Francisco responded with an 11–play, 56–yd. drive that culminated with a 53–yd. FG from Akers with 14:33 remaining in the half. Seattle extended its lead to 10–3 when Jackson led a 12–play, 42–yd. drive down to the San Francisco one. On 3rd and 1, CB Carlos Rogers bumped Jackson out of bounds near the goal line to prevent the TD, settling for a 19–yd. FG. The 49ers battled back, first on RB Frank Gore's 4–yd. TD run on the 49ers first possession of the second half and then two Akers' FGs to take a 16–10 lead. With just under seven minutes to go, P Andy Lee's punt was blocked, turning the ball over to the Seahawks on the San Francisco four. On the ensuing play, RB Marshawn Lynch scored on a 4–yd. run to put the Seahawks up 17–16 with 6:41 remaining. Akers' crucial game–deciding FG followed, along with a pivotal defensive stop by the 49ers. # SUNDAY, JANUARY 1, 2012
SAN FRANCISCO 34, ST LOUIS 27
EDWARD JONES DOME

San Francisco rang in the New Year by securing the NFC's No. 2 seed in the playoffs and earning a first round bye, defeating St. Louis 34–27 at the Edward Jones Dome. With the win, head coach Jim Harbaugh tied Steve Mariucci for the 2nd best record by a rookie head coach in NFL history with a 13–3 regular season record. K David Akers connected on a pair of FGs and all 4 PATs, giving him 166 pts. on the season. His 166 pts. scored, set the NFL record for most pts. scored in a single season with no TDs. The Rams capped off their first drive with an 18–yd. TD run by QB Kellen Clemens, which resulted in their only lead of the game. Showing his versatility on the field, QB Alex Smith answered with an impressive 8–yd. TD scramble of his own with less than one minute to play in the 1st qtr. Smith dove inside the right pylon for the scoring run after TE Justin Peelle and RB Frank Gore paved the way with two key blocks. The score was the first of several big plays that came in quick succession and gave the 49ers control of the game. Tied 7–7 early in the 2nd qtr., Rams RB Jerious Norwood took a direct snap and threw a pass intended for Clemens, in which CB Tarell Brown swooped in for the INT. Two plays later, Smith hit WR Michael Crabtree on a quick pass to the right sideline and raced 28 yds. into the end zone for a 14–7 lead. The Niners quickly regained possession after LB Ahmad Brooks took down Clemens on 3rd down for an 11–yd. loss and his 7th sack of the season. Making his way towards his 7th career 100–yd. rec. game, TE Vernon Davis sparked the Niners next scoring chance with a season–long 44–yd. catch. He finished the day with 8 catches for 118 yds. and became the all–time franchise leader with 7, 100–yd. rec. games by a TE. Akers tacked on a 36–yd FG on the 7–play, 48–yd. drive and later posted a 42–yd FG for a 20–7 lead heading into the break. Rams K Josh Brown responded with a 49–yd. FG with 5:04 remaining in the 3rd qtr., but Akers took things into his own hands with just over a minute to play in the 3rd qtr. Instead of kicking a potential 31–yd. FG, Akers took a direct snap and fired a pass to Crabtree on the left sideline for a 14–yd. TD and a 27–10 cushion. The Rams opened the 4th qtr. with a 48–yd. FG, but Brown's 2nd pick of the game led to a 1–yd. TD run by RB Anthony Dixon for a 34–13 advantage with 6:30 remaining. The Rams made things interesting at the end, scoring 2 TDs within 13 seconds to get within a TD of the 49ers with 4:36 left. Clemens threw a 36–yd. TD pass to WR Brandon Lloyd with 4:49 to play. That score narrowed the 49ers lead to 14 pts., 34–20. After a successful onside kick and a 35–yd. pass interference call, RB Cadillac Williams scored from 1 yd. out. The Rams got the ball back one more time, with a chance to force overtime, but LB NaVorro Bowman sacked Clemens at the 2:46 mark, prompting QB Tom Brandstater to take the reins after Clemens came up limping. Two incomplete passes later, the 49ers capped off their 6th road victory of the season, marking the most road wins by the club since 1996.

NOTES: San Francisco improved to 13–3 this season, marking the first 13–win season by the 49ers since 1997 (13–3). ## NFC DIVISIONAL ROUND
SATURDAY, JANUARY 14
NEW ORLEANS 32, SAN FRANCISCO 36
CANDLESTICK PARK

A 14–yd. TD pass from Alex Smith to TE Vernon Davis with 0:09 left in the game capped off one of the most memorable games in postseason history, as the 49ers defeated the New Orleans Saints, 36–32. Powered by Smith, who threw for 299 yds., 3 TDs and added another one on the ground, the 49ers triumphed in its first playoff game in nine years, moving within one win of the Super Bowl. The Niners scored on their second drive of the game, on a 49–yd. TD pass from Smith to Davis. On the Saints next drive, QB Drew Brees committed his first postseason INT in five years, thanks to S Dashon Goldson, giving San Francisco the football deep in New Orleans' territory. Scoring on a TD pass to WR Michael Crabtree, Smith took advantage of the costly turnover, making the score 14–0. On the ensuing kickoff return, S Madieu Williams stripped the ball away from Saints WR Courtney Roby and the loose ball was recovered by LB Blake Costanzo. The takeaway led to a 25–yd. FG by K David Akers. The Saints answered, scoring two TDs before half time, on a 14–yd. pass to TE Jimmy Graham and a 25–yd. pass to WR Marques Colston, making the score 17–14 at the half. San Francisco scored the only points of the 3rd qtr. on a 41–yd. FG by David Akers. The 4th qtr. started out with each team trading FGs. Then would come the four lead changes in the last five minutes of the game. New Orleans struck first on a 44–yd. TD pass to RB Darren Sproles, with 4:02 left on the clock. With the 49ers trailing 24–23, down for the first time in the entire game, Smith scored on a 28–yd. rushing TD. A missed two–point conversion put the 49ers up 29–24 with just 2:11 remaining. Brees took the lead back on a 66–yd. score to TE Jimmy Graham with 1:37 left. RB Darren Sproles then made a catch out of the backfield for the two–point conversion to give the Saints a 32–29 advantage. Facing elimination, Smith connected with Davis twice on their final drive, with the last throw jetting through double coverage for a game–winning 14–yd. TD.

NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
SUNDAY, JANUARY 22
NEW YORK GIANTS 20, SAN FRANCISCO 17 (OT)
CANDLESTICK PARK

When asked what his message was to his players after falling short to the New York Giants in the NFC Championship game, Harbaugh stated, "As Sir Andrew Barton said, `Fight on my men, we're hurt but not slain. We'll lay down and bleed a while. Then we'll rise and fight again.'" Harbaugh, of course was referring to his team's blue–collar mentality after the Giants es–caped rain–soaked Candlestick Park with a 20–17 overtime victory. "They stand toe–to–toe and fight every time they go out onto the field," added Harbaugh. "Be forever proud of our players and coaches the way they com–pete." Harbaugh got the Niners to the brink of the Super Bowl in his rookie year, taking over a 6–10 team and going 13–3 to win the NFC West. The extra minutes at Candlestick Park went in favor of the opponent in a year where most didn't expect a storybook season. The 49ers defense played stoically, recording six sacks on Giants QB Eli Manning, which ranked t–2nd for the most sacks in a postseason game in franchise history (6 – four times, last vs. Den. – 1/29/90). TE Vernon Davis gave the 49ers a 7–0 lead with 7:11 remaining in the 1st qtr. after running a pattern down the right sideline and outracing the secondary for a 73–yd. TD recept. from QB Alex Smith. On their ensuing drive, the Giants drove from their own 31 to the San Francisco 34–yd. line. On 3rd–and–1, Manning and the Giants failed to get a first down despite two opportunities. The Giants eventually evened the score on a 10–play, 69–yd. drive when TE Bear Pascoe caught Manning's short pass at the 6–yd. line and stepped into the end zone for the TD. The Giants added a FG with two seconds remaining in the 2nd qtr. to give them a 10–7 edge going into the locker room. Davis' second TD of the game, gave the lead back to the Niners at 14–10 with 5:18 remaining in the 3rd qtr. San Francisco's 3–play, 54–yd. TD drive was set up by a short pass to RB Frank Gore, who turned it into a 24–yd. gain. On the next play, Davis went in motion from right to left and caught a lofted pass to the end zone by Smith. The Giants took the lead back after the ball inadvertently glanced off WR Kyle Williams on a punt, giving the ball back to the Giants on their 29 yard line. Manning connected a 17–yard pass to WR Mario Manningham to give the Giants a 17–14 lead with 8:41 remaining. Williams' 40–yd. return on the ensuing kickoff enabled the 49ers to start their next possession at their own 45. On consecutive plays, Smith scrambled for 17 yds. and RB Kendall Hunter ran for 18 more, resulting in a K David Akers game–tying FG with 5:39 to go, 17–17. After both teams went 3–and–out on their first overtime possession, a Giants takeaway on a Williams fumble, forced by LB Jacquian Williams on a punt return, gave the Giants possession at their own 36 with 9:32 remaining. After converting one first down, K Lawrence Tynes sent the season–ending 31–yd. FG through the uprights.

NOTES: TE Vernon Davis notched 3 recepts. for 112 yds. and 2 TD recepts. on the day. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, his 10 recepts. for 292 rec. yds. were the most by a tight end in their first two postseason games in NFL history ... Davis was on the receiving end of a 73–yd. TD pass by QB Alex Smith in the 1st qtr. The 73–yd. completion tied Davis' career–long (73t at StL – 1/3/10). It also marked the fourth longest postseason recept. in 49ers postseason history ... The 49ers defense recorded 6 sacks in the game, which ranked t–2nd for the most sacks in a postseason game in franchise history (6 – four times, last vs. Den. – 1/29/90) ... McDonald registered 2.5 sacks on the day, which ranked t–2nd in franchise history for the most sacks by a one player in a postseason game ... LB Aldon Smith, DT Justin Smith and LB Patrick Willis each added one sack, while LB NaVorro Bowman notched 0.5 sack ... K David Akers connected on 1 of 1 FGs and 2 PATs for 5 pts.... Akers scored at least one point in all 21 career postseason games, trailing only Vinatieri (24) for the longest scoring streak in NFL postseason history.

QB Joe Montana hit WR Mike Wilson on a five–yard scoring strike 30 seconds into the fourth, snapping the shutout. On the next 49ers possession, Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 76–yard bomb to pull within seven at 21–14. The Redskins went three–and–out on their next possession, which led to another Montana–to–Wilson touchdown and a tie ballgame. RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice entered the NFL record books as the 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a convincing 34–9 win over the visiting Minnesota Vikings at Candlestick. Rice closed the day with five receptions for 61 yards. Craig entered the record book courtesy of his 80–yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter. ### 49ers 20, Cincinnati Bengals 16
Super Bowl XXIII
January 22 at Joe Robbie Stadium
(Miami, FL)

In what proved to be the most exciting Super Bowl game of the decade, it was the play of a collected veteran that delivered San Francisco its third NFL Championship. QB Joe Montana connected on 23–of–36 passes for 357 yards, but no completion would be more important than his last. The game opened at a stand still with neither team having any ability to move the ball offensively. San Francisco opened the scoring on a 41–yard field goal by K Mike Cofer late in the first quarter. The Bengals responded with K Jim Breech's 34–yard field goal and the teams headed to the half locked in a 3–3 tie. The third quarter began with the teams trading field goals before the Bengals broke the touchdown draught. Following a 49ers field goal, Cincinnati KR Stanford Jennings took the Cofer kickoff and returned it 93 yards for a touchdown. It didn't take long for San Francisco to respond. Montana hit WR Jerry Rice for a 31–yard completion and followed that with a swing pass that RB Roger Craig turned into a 40–yard gain. Two plays and 16 seconds later, Montana found Rice in the corner of the end zone for a 10–yard touchdown. An 11–play, 46–yard drive by the Bengals resulted in a 46–yard field goal by Breech, giving Cincinnati a 16–13 lead and leaving the 49ers just 3:20 on the clock. San Francisco received the kickoff and returned it to the 20, but a penalty moved the ball back to the eight–yard line. What happened next is legendary. Montana connected on five consecutive passes to move the ball to the Bengals 35. A holding penalty moved the ball back 10 yards, but Montana responded with a 27–yard completion to Rice and another first down. A quick hit to Craig followed by a timeout left the Niners with second and two from the Bengals 10–yard line. Following the timeout, Montana hit WR John Taylor in the middle of the end zone for a touchdown and San Francisco had its third Super Bowl title of the decade.

49ers 49, San Diego Chargers 26
Super Bowl XXIX
January 29 at Joe Robbie Stadium
(Miami, FL)

QB Steve Young set a Super Bowl record with six touchdown passes and WR Jerry Rice hauled in three scoring passes for the second time in his career in the world championship game. The 49ers stars led an offensive explosion that carried the team to a 49–26 win over San Diego. San Francisco wasted little time getting on the scoreboard as it took just three plays following the game's opening kickoff to crack the Chargers end zone. Following a FB William Floyd four–yard run and an 11–yard pass from Young to WR John Taylor, Young connected with Rice streaking down the middle of the field for a 44–yard scoring strike. Following a San Diego punt, San Francisco was back in the end zone again after only three plays as Young, once again, challenged the middle of the Chargers defense, this time with a pass to RB Ricky Watters, which netted a 51–yard score. The Chargers made things close for awhile, however, putting together a 13–play, 78–yard drive that concluded with a RB Natrone Means one–yard touchdown plunge to make it 14–7 after one quarter of play. The 49ers began to break the game open in the second quarter. They followed the San Diego touchdown with a 70–yard drive that culminated with a five–yard scoring pass from Young to Floyd. Two possessions later, following a partially blocked punt by RB Adam Walker, the Niners drove 49 yards for another score on an eight–yard toss from Young to Watters. K John Carney's 31–yard field goal with less than two minutes remaining in the half closed the margin at intermission to 28–10. The Niners put the game away in the third quarter, running the lead to 42–10 on a pair of long drives that ended with Watters' third score of the evening, a nine–yard blast up the middle, and a 15–yard pass from Young to Rice. Rice caught his third touchdown of the night on a seven–yard toss from Young in the fourth quarter, enabling Young to break QB Joe Montana's record of five Super Bowl touchdown passes. Young was named the game's Most Valuable Player, while Rice turned in the second best receiving performance in Super Bowl history with 10 catches for 149 yards, while tying his own record with three scoring receptions.

Green Bay Packers 27, 49ers 17
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 6 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

Aided by a swarming defense that caused four turnovers, the Green Bay Packers defeated the 49ers 27–17 at 3Com Park. A record crowd of 69,311 saw the Packers advance to the NFC Championship Game, while the 49ers one–year reign as world champions ended with an overall record of 11–6. Green Bay took its opening drive and marched to the San Francisco 26 before settling for a field goal attempt. However, K Chris Jacke's 44–yard attempt was blocked by S Tim McDonald and the 49ers took over at their 34. On the first play from scrimmage, QB Steve Young hit FB Adam Walker in the flat, but LB Wayne Simmons jarred the ball loose and CB Craig Newsome returned the fumble 31 yards for the touchdown. Green Bay also scored on its next two possessions, a three–yard pass from QB Brett Favre to TE Keith Jackson and a 13–yard toss from Favre to TE Mark Chmura. San Francisco scored its first points of the game late in the half when K Jeff Wilkins nailed a 21–yard field goal with two minutes remaining. The 49ers took their first possession of the third quarter and marched 80 yards for a touchdown, when Young plunged in from the one, cutting the deficit to 21–10. On the 14–play drive, Young was 9–of–10 and ran the ball twice. Again, the Packers responded to the challenge, using a pair of Jacke field goals (27 yards in the third quarter, 26 yards in the fourth quarter), and boosted Green Bay's lead to 27–10. San Francisco's final score of the season came on a two–yard plunge by RB Derek Loville with 50 seconds remaining in the game. Young completed 32 passes in an NFL postseason record 65 attempts, for 328 yards and two interceptions. He also led the 49ers in rushing, gaining 77 yards in nine attempts, including a 40–yard sprint after he was flushed from the pocket. WR Jerry Rice led the receivers with 11 catches for 117 yards, while TE Brent Jones gained 112 yards on eight receptions. Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield recorded a team–high 10 tackles and a sack for a loss of five yards, while LB Ken Norton Jr. added nine tackles.

49ers 14, Philadelphia Eagles 0
NFC Wild Card
December 29 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

On a wet and windy Sunday at 3Com Park, San Francisco opened its 1996 postseason by defeating the Philadelphia Eagles 14–0 in the NFC Wild Card Game. Led by their marquee players QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice on offense, and a defense that recorded the team's first postseason shutout since the 1984 NFC Championship Game, the 49ers advanced to the NFC Divisional Playoff round. Following a scoreless first quarter, Young led the offense on a 10–play, 74–yard drive that concluded with the Pro Bowl quarterback scoring on a gutty nine–yard run off a quarterback draw. On that play Young broke four tackles while fighting his way to paydirt. Twice in the second quarter the Eagles mounted long drives only to be denied just short of the endzone by Niners interceptions. Philadelphia's first trip ended with CB Marquez Pope intercepting a QB Ty Detmer pass on San Francisco's seven–yard line. Late in the quarter the Eagles marched 59 yards on 10 plays moving to the 49ers five–yard line. Facing third and four, Detmer's attempt to WR Chris T. Jones was picked off by DE Roy Barker, who had dropped off into zone–blitz coverage. The only scoring in the second half occurred on the Niners second possession of the third quarter. On that drive, Rice made a spectacular one–handed catch that resulted in a 36–yard gain. He scored on a three–yard pass from Young on the next play from scrimmage. Young finished as the game's leading rusher with 65 yards, while also completing 14–of–21 tosses for 161 yards. Rice had four catches for 50 yards and his 19th career postseason touchdown (17th receiving). RB Terry Kirby added 43 yards rushing. The Niners defense, which held Eagles RB Ricky Watters to 57 rushing yards, was led by LB Ken Norton Jr.'s team postseason–record 12 solo tackles. DT Bryant Young registered two sacks and LB Lee Woodall added a sack among his six total stops.

Green Bay Packers 35, 49ers 14
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 4 at Lambeau Field
(Green Bay, WI)

Missed opportunities, including a total of five turnovers, spelled defeat for the San Francisco 49ers in their NFC Divisional Playoff Game with the Green Bay Packers. Played before a record Lambeau Field crowd of 60,787, the 49ers fell 35–14 in a game that featured 34–degree weather (with a wind chill of nine–degrees) and driving rain. It didn't take long for the Packers to take a lead. After forcing San Francisco to punt on its first series, WR Desmond Howard took P Tommy Thompson's punt, split the coverage down the middle of the field and raced for a 71–yard touchdown. Then, with seven minutes remaining in the opening stanza, Howard struck again. He returned a punt 46 yards to the San Francisco seven, and two plays later, QB Brett Favre threw a four–yard scoring pass to WR Andre Rison to make it 14–0. San Francisco then mounted a comeback in the second quarter. Trailing 21–0, the tide began to turn when 49ers special teams standout Curtis Buckley recovered a muffed punt at the Green Bay 26. Moments later, QB Elvis Grbac, replacing the injured QB Steve Young (ribs), hit RB Terry Kirby with an eight–yard pass, cutting the deficit to 21–7 at the half. On the opening kickoff of the third quarter, San Francisco CB Steve Israel recovered a loose ball on the Packers four, setting the stage for Grbac's scamper into the end zone. The 49ers fate was sealed, however, on the ensuing Packers drive. Marching 72 yards in 12 plays (10 of which were runs), Green Bay scored when FB Edgar Bennett fumbled before crossing the goal line; but before the 49ers defenders could react, WR Antonio Freeman fell on the loose ball, giving the hosts a 28–14 advantage. Bennett scored on an 11–yard run, and two more fumbles in the fourth quarter snuffed out any hope the 49ers had in getting back into the game. Young played the first nine plays at quarterback before giving way to Grbac late in the first quarter. Grbac completed 19–of–36 passes for 125 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions and led the team in rushing with 32 yards. Backfield mates Kirby and RB William Floyd had six receptions each, while WR Jerry Rice had a team–high 36 yards receiving. Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. posted eight tackles and LB Gary Plummer added seven. All–Pro DT Bryant Young left the game late in the first quarter because of a neck injury. He was taken to the hospital for tests, which were negative.

1997

49ers 38, Minnesota Vikings 22
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 3 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

RB Terry Kirby rushed for a career–high 120 yards and scored two touchdowns, leading the San Francisco 49ers to a 38–22 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in the NFC Divisional Playoffs at 3Com Park. In addition to Kirby's heroics, QB Steve Young completed 21–of–30 passes for 224 yards and a touchdown, WR J.J. Stokes had 101 yards receiving and LB Ken Norton Jr. returned an interception 23 yards for a touchdown. San Francisco's first score came compliments of a Minnesota special teams miscue. P Mitch Berger's punt sailed off the side of his foot and into the crowd after going only 12 yards. The 49ers took over on the Vikings 26, and four plays later, FB William Floyd scored from the one and the 49ers led 7–0. Less than a minute later, the visitors tied the game on a 66–yard scoring pass from QB Randall Cunningham to WR Cris Carter. In the second quarter, the 49ers again took advantage of a poor kick by Berger — this time a punt of 29 yards — to take a 14–7 lead. Moving 61 yards in only four plays, and aided by three Minnesota penalties, Kirby scored the first of his two touchdowns on a one–yard plunge. The game–breaker occurred two plays later when the San Francisco defense flushed Cunningham out of the pocket and forced him to throw a pass over an onrushing DE Roy Barker and into the hands of Norton, who ran untouched into the end zone. In the third quarter, K Gary Anderson connected on a 34–yard field goal to build the lead to 24–7, but Cunningham and Carter hooked up again for a score, closing the gap to 24–14. On the ensuing series, the 49ers marched 75 yards in seven plays, highlighted by two Kirby runs of 22 and 14 yards. Young then hit WR Terrell Owens with one of the prettiest touchdowns of the year, as the second–year receiver shook off a defender then dove into the end zone for the score. Kirby finished the scoring in the fourth quarter with another one–yard run. CB Tyronne Drakeford had six tackles and a pair of passes defensed to pace the defense. Barker also recorded San Francisco's only sack of the game.

Green Bay Packers 23, 49ers 10
NFC Championship
January 11 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

RB Dorsey Levens rushed for 114 yards and WR Antonio Freeman caught four passes for 104 yards and a touchdown to lead visiting Green Bay to a 23–10 win in the NFC Championship Game. The game was played before 68,987 under windy and rainy conditions at 3Com Park. The Packers opened the scoring late in the first quarter. After San Francisco punted on its first series, QB Brett Favre led Green Bay on a 10–play, 76–yard drive that resulted in a K Ryan Longwell 19–yard field goal. Favre completed three–of–four passes for 37 yards in the series. Green Bay continued its scoring in the second quarter. S Eugene Robinson intercepted a QB Steve Young pass and returned it 58 yards to the San Francisco 28. Two plays later, Favre threw a 27–yard scoring pass to Freeman to make the score 10–0. San Francisco then broke the drought with a scoring drive beginning with 4:23 remaining in the second quarter. Following a missed field goal by Longwell, the 49ers took possession at their own 38. A pair of Young completions for 32 yards had the Niners in Packers territory, but two holding penalties brought the ball back to the original line of scrimmage. On a key third down with 26 yards to go, Young completed a 48–yard pass to WR Terrell Owens to the Packers 10–yard line. The drive resulted in a 28–yard field goal by K Gary Anderson. Green Bay answered on its next possession. Freeman returned the kickoff 18 yards to the Packers 27. Two plays later, Favre hit Freeman for a 40–yard completion to the San Francisco 25. Longwell connected on a 43–yard field goal to make the halftime score 13–3. After a scoreless third quarter, Green Bay extended its lead to 16–3 on a 25–yard field goal by Longwell. The Packers added seven more after a five–yard touchdown run by Levens to make the score 23–3. San Francisco closed out the game by scoring on the ensuing kickoff. Chuck Levy returned Longwell's kick 95 yards for a touchdown. Levy's return was the second longest postseason return for San Francisco, trailing the 97–yard touchdown return by Vic Washington vs. Dallas in 1972. Young completed 23–of–38 passes for 250 yards and one interception. RB Terry Kirby ran for a team–high 21 yards on six carries. WR J.J. Stokes caught six passes for 87 yards, including a long of 43. Defensively, San Francisco was led by S Merton Hanks with eight tackles. LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Lee Woodall, LB Gary Plummer and S Tim McDonald had seven tackles each.

49ers 30, Green Bay Packers 27
NFC Wild Card
January 3 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw three touchdown passes, including a 25–yard strike to WR Terrell Owens with three seconds remaining, as San Francisco edged Green Bay, 30–27. On a crystal clear day in the Bay Area, it was the Packers who opened the scoring on a 23–yard field goal from K Ryan Longwell midway through the first quarter. San Francisco answered with help from a big play on defense. S Merton Hanks forced a fumble by RB Dorsey Levens and the ball was recovered by DE Chris Doleman at the Green Bay 19–yard line. Three plays later Young connected with TE Greg Clark from one yard out for the touchdown and a 7–3 lead. Just four seconds into the second quarter, the Packers regained the lead on a two–yard scoring toss from QB Brett Favre to WR Antonio Freeman. San Francisco tied the score on the first of three K Wade Richey field goals, this one from 34 yards out with 6:53 remaining in the half. The Packers surged back ahead with 36 seconds remaining when Levens bowled into the end zone from two yards out to take a 17–10 halftime lead. The third quarter opened with Favre being pressured into an errant pass that was intercepted by LB Lee Woodall. Five plays later, the score was tied for a third time when Young hit Clark from eight yards out for the score. The 49ers reclaimed the lead midway through the quarter on a team postseason record and career–long 48–yard field goal from Richey. In a game that saw five lead changes and three ties, the fourth quarter became particularly dramatic. Longwell answered Richey's 48–yard kick with a 37–yard effort of his own to tie the game at 20–20 at the beginning of the fourth. On the ensuing possession, San Francisco marched 51 yards in 10 plays and capped the drive with a 40–yard field goal by Richey to reclaim the lead at 23–20. With 4:19 remaining in the game, Green Bay took over at its own 11–yard line. From there, Favre would lead his team on a nine–play, 89–yard scoring drive. The drive was capped when Favre hit Freeman from 15 yards out for the touchdown and a 27–23 lead with 1:56 remaining in the game. The Packers touchdown set up one of the most memorable sequences in 49ers history. San Francisco took possession at its own 24–yard line with 1:50 remaining and three timeouts to its credit. On the final play, Young dropped back, stumbled and threw a 25–yard touchdown strike to Owens who was sandwiched in the end zone by S Pat Terrell and S Darren Sharper.

Atlanta Falcons 20, 49ers 18
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 9 at Georgia Dome
(Atlanta, GA)

With San Francisco's NFL–leading run game a mere shell of itself, the Atlanta Falcons forced three turnovers and held off the 49ers, 20–18, in the NFC Divisional Playoff at the Georgia Dome. San Francisco's hope of controlling the game on the ground came to a screeching halt on the first play of the game when RB Garrison Hearst fractured the tibia in his left leg on an inside run that had gained seven yards. With Hearst out and RB Terry Kirby hobbled with a bruised leg, the 49ers managed just 46 yards on the ground. Atlanta's rushing attack flourished in the first half thanks to the power running of RB Jamal Anderson, who scored on a two–yard run in the first quarter to give the Falcons a 7–0 lead. Atlanta increased its lead to 14–0 when Anderson finished off a 34–yard run with a spread eagle dive into the end zone with 3:12 left in the second quarter. The touchdown run capped a seven–play, 82–yard drive. San Francisco snatched the momentum from the Falcons by putting together a pair of scoring drives just before the half. The 49ers answered Atlanta's second touchdown march with a nine–play, 80–yard drive that concluded with the familiar end zone combination of QB Steve Young to WR Jerry Rice from 17 yards out. It was Rice's 20th career postseason touchdown. With just under one minute to play in the first half, DE Charles Haley chased QB Chris Chandler and deflected his pass into the waiting arms of DT Junior Bryant, who returned it four yards to the Atlanta 36–yard line. K Wade Richey made it a 14–10 game at the half with a 36–yard field goal as time expired. The 49ers carried that momentum into the third quarter, nearly tripling Atlanta's offensive output in the second half (187 yards to 68). But turnovers did not allow them to complete the comeback. The Falcons thwarted two drives with a pair of interceptions, including one by S Eugene Robinson that was returned 77 yards to set up a K Morten Andersen 29–yard field goal. Leading 17–10, Andersen added another 32–yard field goal to give the Falcons a 10–point edge with 10:33 remaining. San Francisco responded to Atlanta's three pointer with a 13–play, 87–yard drive that Young finished himself with an eight–yard touchdown run. A two–point pass from QB Ty Detmer to TE Greg Clark made it 20–18 with 2:57 left. After Atlanta used up 2:19 of the clock, the 49ers got the ball back at their own four–yard line but were only able to move to the 26 before Young's hail mary attempt was intercepted as time expired. After rushing for 83 yards on 13 carries in the first half, Anderson was limited to 30 yards on 16 carries in the second half by San Francisco's defense. LB Winfred Tubbs made a game–high 10 tackles, while DE Chris Doleman made six stops and one sack.

Green Bay Packers 25, 49ers 15
NFC Wild Card
January 13 at Lambeau Field
(Green Bay, WI)

In their first postseason appearance since 1998, the 49ers dropped a hard–fought 25–15 decision to the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Wild Card Game at Lambeau Field. With a game–time temperature of 28 degrees, the 49ers won the opening coin toss and elected to receive. The two teams traded punts until Green Bay marched 40 yards in seven plays to score the first points of the game when QB Brett Favre hooked up with WR Antonio Freeman on a five–yard touchdown pass. DT Dana Stubblefield blocked the extra point to keep the score 6–0. After another 49ers punt, the Packers began their third possession of the game from their own 19–yard line. On the second play from scrimmage, Favre was intercepted by CB Ahmed Plummer, who returned it to the Green Bay 22. San Francisco K Jose Cortez had his 34–yard field goal attempt blocked and the score remained 6–0. After the Packers were forced to punt, San Francisco took possession at its own 14 with 7:06 remaining in the half. QB Jeff Garcia went 6–of–9 for 61 yards and RB Garrison Hearst had a two–yard touchdown plunge with 15 seconds remaining in the half, to cap off a 15–play, 86–yard drive. After a Cortez extra point, the 49ers went in with a 7–6 halftime lead. On their first possession of the second half, the Packers moved the ball down to the San Francisco eight–yard line where K Ryan Longwell nailed a 26–yard field goal for the 9–7 lead. After the 49ers couldn't get anything going on offense, they punted back to Green Bay. It took only four plays for the Packers to take advantage with a 19–yard touchdown pass from Favre to TE Bubba Franks. The two–point conversion failed and the score remained 15–7. Two series later, the 49ers marched 61 yards in six plays, culminating with Garcia hitting WR Tai Streets on a 14–yard touchdown strike and again on the two–point conversion to tie the score at 15. The Packers answered on their next possession with a 10–play, 45–yard drive as Longwell connected on a 45–yard field goal to push the score to 18–15. With 5:03 remaining in the game, the 49ers had moved the ball down to the Green Bay 41, when Garcia's pass intended for WR Terrell Owens was tipped by CB Mike McKenzie into the hands of CB Tyrone Williams at the Green Bay seven–yard line. Favre led the Packers on an eight–play, 93–yard drive ending with an RB Ahman Green nine–yard touchdown run and the 25–15 lead. RB Paul Smith took the ensuing kickoff on the 13–yard line and ran it back 16 yards before being hit by WR Cory Bradford and fumbling. The Packers recovered the fumble and ran out the clock for the 25–15 victory.

49ers 39, New York Giants 38
NFC Wild Card
January 5 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

Buried in a 24–point playoff hole, the 49ers exploded to record the second largest comeback in postseason history with a dramatic 39–38 victory over the New York Giants in the NFC Wild Card Game. The 49ers trailed 38–14 with four minutes left in the third quarter, but scored 25 straight points on two touchdown passes and a scoring run by QB Jeff Garcia, as well as two, two–point conversion catches by WR Terrell Owens. The game ended just as exciting. After Garcia drove his team 68 yards in just over two minutes for the winning score, QB Kerry Collins got New York to the San Francisco 28 with six seconds left. LS Trey Junkin, signed earlier in the week, made a low snap that P Matt Allen couldn't handle. Allen then threw a desperate pass that fell incomplete. The 49ers rally was the biggest in NFC playoff history. Garcia finished the day 27–of–44 for 331 yards and three touchdowns. He rushed for 60 yards, including a 14–yard score on the first play of the fourth quarter. Two of Garcia's touchdown throws went to Owens, who had nine catches for 177 yards. Collins was 29–of–43 for 342 yards and four touchdowns, and expertly guided New York to a lead that seemed insurmountable. WR Amani Toomer caught eight passes for 136 yards and three touchdowns and RB Tiki Barber added 115 yards rushing and 62 yards receiving. San Francisco rallied with purpose and poise. Owens caught a 26–yard touchdown pass late in the third quarter to start the rally and made big catches on every drive—right up to the final minutes, when Garcia found WR Tai Streets for the winning score. After Owens caught a 26–yard touchdown pass and a two–point conversion with 2:03 left in the third, Garcia rushed for a 14–yard score and threw another conversion pass to Owens five seconds into the fourth quarter. K Jeff Chandler added a 25–yard field goal with 7:49 left. Collins responded and drove New York 38 yards, but Bryant – kicking out of a poor hold thanks to a poor snap by Junkin—missed a 42–yard field goal with 3:01 left. Garcia took over, converting two straight third downs for the NFL leaders in that category. TE Eric Johnson caught a 25–yard pass to the New York 25 and Garcia scrambled 12 yards to set up his winning pass to Streets.

49ers 36, New Orleans Saints 32
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 14 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

A 14–yd. TD pass from Alex Smith to TE Vernon Davis with 0:09 left in the game capped off one of the most memorable games in postseason history, as the 49ers defeated the New Orleans Saints, 36–32. Powered by Smith, who threw for 299 yds., three TDs and added another one on the ground, the 49ers triumphed in its first playoff game in nine years, moving within one win of the Super Bowl. The Niners scored on their second drive of the game, on a 49–yd. TD pass from Smith to Davis. On the Saints next drive, QB Drew Brees committed his first postseason INT in five years, thanks to S Dashon Goldson, giving San Francisco the football deep in New Orleans' territory. Scoring on a TD pass to WR Michael Crabtree, Smith took advantage of the costly turnover, making the score 14–0. On the ensuing kickoff return, S Madieu Williams stripped the ball away from Saints WR Courtney Roby and the loose ball was recovered by LB Blake Costanzo. The takeaway led to a 25–yd. FG by K David Akers. The Saints answered, scoring two TDs before half time, on a 14–yd. pass to TE Jimmy Graham and a 25–yd. pass to WR Marques Colston, making the score 17–14 at the half. San Francisco scored the only points of the 3rd qtr. on a 41–yd. FG by David Akers. The 4th qtr. started out with each team trading FGs. Then would come the four lead changes in the last five minutes of the game. New Orleans struck first on a 44–yd. TD pass to RB Darren Sproles, with 4:02 left on the clock. With the 49ers trailing 24–23, down for the first time in the entire game, Smith scored on a 28–yd. rushing TD. A missed two–point conversion put the 49ers up 29–24 with just 2:11 remaining. Brees took the lead back on a 66–yd. score to TE Jimmy Graham with 1:37 left. RB Darren Sproles then made a catch out of the backfield for the two–point conversion to give the Saints a 32–29 advantage. Facing elimination, Smith connected with Davis twice on their final drive, with the last throw jetting through double coverage for a game–winning 14–yd. TD.

New York Giants 20, 49ers 17 (OT)
NFC Championship
January 22 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

When asked what his message was to his players after falling short to the New York Giants in the NFC Championship game, Harbaugh stated, "As Sir Andrew Barton said, `Fight on my men, we're hurt but not slain. We'll lay down and bleed a while. Then we'll rise and fight again.'" Harbaugh, of course was referring to his team's blue–collar mentality after the Giants escaped rain–soaked Candlestick Park with a 20–17 overtime victory. Harbaugh got the Niners to the brink of the Super Bowl in his rookie year, taking over a 6–10 team and going 13–3 to win the NFC West. The extra minutes at Candlestick Park went in favor of the opponent in a year where most didn't expect a storybook season. The 49ers defense played stoically, recording six sacks on Giants QB Eli Manning, which ranked t–2nd for the most sacks in a postseason game in franchise history (6 – four times, last vs. Den. – 1/29/90). TE Vernon Davis gave the 49ers a 7–0 lead with 7:11 remaining in the 1st qtr. after running a pattern down the right sideline and outracing the secondary for a 73–yd. TD recept. from QB Alex Smith. On their ensuing drive, the Giants drove from their own 31 to the San Francisco 34–yd. line. On 3rd–and–1, Manning and the Giants failed to get a first down despite two opportunities. The Giants eventually evened the score on a 10–play, 69–yd. drive when TE Bear Pascoe caught Manning's short pass at the 6–yd. line and stepped into the end zone for the TD. The Giants added a FG with two seconds remaining in the 2nd qtr. to give them a 10–7 edge going into the locker room. Davis' second TD of the game, gave the lead back to the Niners at 14–10 with 5:18 remaining in the 3rd qtr. San Francisco's 3–play, 54–yd. TD drive was set up by a short pass to RB Frank Gore, who turned it into a 24–yd. gain. On the next play, Davis went in motion from right to left and caught a lofted pass to the end zone by Smith. The Giants took the lead back after the ball inadvertently glanced off WR Kyle Williams on a punt, giving the ball back to the Giants on their 29 yard line. Manning connected a 17–yard pass to WR Mario Manningham to give the Giants a 17–14 lead with 8:41 remaining. Williams' 40–yd. return on the ensuing kickoff enabled the 49ers to start their next possession at their own 45. On consecutive plays, Smith scrambled for 17 yds. and RB Kendall Hunter ran for 18 more, resulting in a K David Akers game–tying FG with 5:39 to go, 17–17. After both teams went 3–and–out on their first overtime possession, a Giants takeaway on a Williams fumble, forced by LB Jacquian Williams on a punt return, gave the Giants possession at their own 36 with 9:32 remaining. After converting one first down, K Lawrence Tynes sent the season–ending 31–yd. FG through the uprights.

But a New Orleans clipping penalty nullified the score. The 49ers tied it up in the third quarter with a five–yard romp by Delvin Williams. San Francisco visited Atlanta for a battle with the division rival Falcons and took an early 7–0 lead on a Roger Craig one–yard romp. The Falcons responded with a punishing 17–play, 44–yard drive that resulted in a 47–yard field goal by Mick Luckhurst. ### Denver 16, San Francisco 13

Two of the best teams in the NFL faced off in an inter conference battle as the Denver Broncos visited Candlestick Park. The 49ers started the scoring with a 37–yard Mike Cofer field goal with 4:52 remaining in the first quarter. The Broncos answered early in the second with a 27–yard field goal by Rich Karlis to knot the game at three. With San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Joe Montana opened up the offense and led the 49ers 95 yards and capped it off with a six–yard quarterback sneak for a 10–3 lead at halftime. The only scoring in the third quarter came on Karlis' 27–yard field goal with five minutes remaining, cutting the 49ers lead to 10–6. Cofer quickly answered with a 27–yard field goal with one minute on the clock in the third quarter for the 13–6 lead. After an injury, John Elway returned to hit Vance Johnson with an eight–yard touchdown pass. Neither team could score in the final minutes of regulation and headed into overtime. On San Francisco's first possession, Andre Townsend sacked Montana, injuring his ribs. Steve Young took over, and on his first play threw an interception to Mark Haynes ending the threat. After a five–and–out drive by the Broncos, the 49ers took over on their own five–yard line. A second Young interception, deep in Broncos territory, helped set the stage for Karlis to connect on a 22–yard game–winning field goal.

Philadelphia 37, San Francisco 34

Turnovers and an ill–timed penalty marred the 49ers first overtime game in four years. The Philadelphia Eagles struck early and often, first on a 34–yard Roger Ruzek field goal five minutes into the game. On San Francisco's first possession, Steve Young was hit and fumbled the ball, which was recovered by Byron Evans who returned it 30 yards for a touchdown and a 10–0 lead. With Bubby Brister at the helm, the Eagles drove 76 yards in the opening minutes of the second quarter and connected with Calvin Williams for a 13–yard touchdown to push the lead to 17–3. Brister again guided Philadelphia to an eight–play, 64–yard touchdown scoring drive to take a commanding 21–point lead. The 49ers end zone drought ended with just less than two minutes remaining in the half when Young hit Jerry Rice for a three–yard touchdown that brought the score to 24–10 at halftime. San Francisco started the second half with a 60–yard kickoff return by Dexter Carter to give the 49ers the ball on Philadelphia's 38–yard line. Capping off a punishing 38–yard, nine–play drive, Ricky Watters ran 11 yards for the score. After a Philadelphia punt, John Taylor caught a 38–yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 24. Philadelphia took advantage of a Young injury by intercepting a Steve Bono pass. The Eagles worked quickly, moving 69 yards in just two plays to take a 31–24 lead. On fourth–and–one, the Raiders defense stiffened and stopped a leaping Charlie Garner for no gain. The Raiders took over on downs, but couldn't get their offense going and were forced to punt back to the 49ers, who ran out the clock and forced the game into overtime. The Raiders won the toss and marched down to the 49ers 25–yard line. Janikowski came on to attempt the game–winning field goal, but missed wide right, his second missed field goal of the day. The 49ers took over and drove all the way to the Raiders 11–yard line. On first down, Wade Richey attempted the game–winning field goal, but was blocked and possession went back to the Raiders. ### Arizona 16, San Francisco 13

In another division battle, the 49ers had their second overtime game of the season, this time at Arizona. The field goal kicking was the story of this game as the 49ers missed both field goal attempts and made only 1–of–2 PATs and the Cardinals made only 3–of–6 field goal attempts. The Cardinals had the lead 13–6 in the fourth quarter when the 49ers tied the game on one of the most improbable touchdowns in team history. Jeff Garcia fumbled at the one–yard line and the ball was recovered by offensive lineman Kwame Harris, who scored his first career touchdown. The game was tied at 13 with 2:25 left to play. The Cardinals had another shot to get into scoring position, but were forced to punt and gave the 49ers one more shot for the victory with almost six minutes remaining in regulation. San Fran–cisco then launched a drive that put the offense at the Arizona 16–yard line. But Owen Pochman missed the potential game–winning field goal, his second missed field goal of the day, this time from 35 yards out. This breathed new life into Arizona, who drove down to the San Francisco 32–yard line. With five seconds remain–ing in regulation, Tim Duncan attempted the game–winning 50–yard field goal, which was short, and the game headed to overtime. In overtime, the Cardinals won the toss and drove down to the 49ers 22–yard line in eight plays. Duncan set up for another chance at a game–winning field goal, this one from 39 yards out. The kick sailed through the uprights and the Cardinals notched the 16–13 victory.

QB Tim Rattay joined an elite group of quarterbacks who have led the 49ers to come from behind victo–ries in a 31–28 overtime victory against the visiting Arizona Cardinals at Monster Park. Rattay coolly di–rected two late fourth–quarter scoring drives that sent the game into overtime after trailing by 16 points with 8:19 remaining. In overtime, Rattay again led the team downfield and buoyed by a roughing the passer pen–alty, put them into scoring position where K Todd Pe–terson banged home the game–winning 32–yard field goal. Rattay finished the game with a CAREER–HIGH 417 yards passing and a quarterback rating of 99.8. He was an impressive 14 of 20 for 115 yards and two touchdowns in the fourth quarter. He also broke QB Joe Montana's team record by completing 38 passes. Montana held the previous mark of 37. Rattay's favor–ite target on the day was TE Eric Johnson who hauled in a career–high 13 receptions for 162 yards and one touchdown. Johnson caught a six–yard touchdown from Rattay with 4:35 remaining in the game that pulled the 49ers within 10 points. Rattay ran in the two–point conversion and suddenly the 49ers were within eight points. Now they needed a stop and the defense was up to the task, forcing a Cardinals punt. Taking over at the 49ers 28–yard line, Rattay started off with a nine–yard pass to WR Curtis Conway, then scampered 15 more yards before hitting Conway on a 14–yard pass to get the 49ers to the Cardinals 23. From there Rattay found WR Brandon Lloyd in the corner of the end zone and the 49ers were within two points. Lloyd then slipped in front of the defender and caught Rattay's two–point offering sending the game into overtime. The 49ers won the overtime coin toss and never relinquished the ball. A roughing the passer penalty on Arizona's DT Dar–nell Dockett helped the 49ers cause and Rattay took advantage as he quickly moved the team into scor–ing position where Peterson knocked home the game–winner.

San Francisco 31, Arizona 28

First–year RB Maurice Hicks earned the game ball af–ter an inspiring 139–yard performance on 34 attempts. He and QB Ken Dorsey carried the 49ers to their sec–ond victory of the season, a 31–28 overtime victory in Arizona. San Francisco did have to work for the win, despite taking a 28–3 lead in the third quarter. The Cardinals staged a furious rally and almost answered the 49ers overtime win earlier in the season at Monster Park. But some key plays from the defense and the legs of Hicks proved the difference of the day. Hicks, making his first career NFL start, had four carries for 42 yards in overtime including a significant 17–yard gain that set–up K Todd Peterson's game–winning field goal. Fac–ing 2nd and 3 from the Cardinals 30–yard line, Hicks took the handoff from Dorsey, cut off the tackle to his right and raced downfield before he was knocked out of bounds at the 13. Dorsey finished the game completing 18 of 34 passes for 191 yards and three scores for a passer rating of 99.0. Starting for the injured QB Tim Rattay, Dorsey threw his first career touchdown to WR Brandon Lloyd for the first score of the day. He then connected twice with WR Cedrick Wilson for scores as Wilson led the receiving efforts with five receptions for 83 yards and two scores, including a 19–yard catch to keep the 49ers game–winning drive alive. Dorsey was sacked just once in his 34 passing attempts behind an offensive line that played its best game of the year.

San Francisco 20, Houston 17

The San Francisco 49ers rallied from a 10–0 first quarter deficit for a 20–17 overtime victory over the Houston Texans to close out the 2005 campaign with two consecutive wins for a 4–12 record. The 49ers dominated the line of scrimmage, gaining 182 yards on the ground and controlling the clock for 44:03. The 49ers used a combination of RB Frank Gore (108 yards) and RB Maurice Hicks (64 yards) to take control on the ground. S Mike Adams was the star of the game on defense after finishing with two interceptions, one that was returned for a touchdown and the other that led to the game–winning field goal in overtime. QB Alex Smith helped lead the 49ers to a touchdown at the end of the first half by converting a key third–and–13 situation with a 14–yard strike to WR Brandon Lloyd and then three plays later threw his first NFL touchdown pass when he rolled to his right and found Lloyd in the back of the end zone for a 14–yard score. The 49ers took the second half kick and went on a 14–play, 56–yard drive that ended with a 42–yard field goal by Nedney to tie the game at 10–10. Houston responded when Banks fired a 31–yard pass to WR Corey Bradford to get into San Francisco territory followed by a 25–yard touchdown pass to Bradford to retake the lead at 17–10. Adams, who made his first NFL start at cornerback, intercepted QB Tony Banks at the end of the third quarter and returned it 40 yards for a touchdown to tie the game at 17–17. Then in overtime, Banks went deep but Adams intercepted the pass and alertly lateraled to S Ben Emanuel, who ran 35 yards to the Houston 21–yard line. After two short runs, PK Joe Nedney nailed a 33–yard field goal to give the 49ers the 20–17 victory.

San Francisco 26, Denver 23

The San Francisco 49ers overcame a 13–0 deficit to pull out a 26–23 win over the Denver Broncos at Invesco Field at Mile High. The 49ers played the role of spoilers when the victory knocked the Broncos out of the playoffs. The 49ers come–from–behind win was led by three outstanding individual efforts: RB Frank Gore gained 153 rushing yards, PK Joe Nedney kicked four field goals along with the game winner in overtime, and CB Walt Harris snagged two interceptions, including a 28–yard touchdown return in the third quarter. WR Bryan Gilmore had two key plays in overtime to advance the 49ers into field goal range for the game winning kick. During the first half, strong 49ers goal–line defense helped limit Denver to a pair of field goals on drives that were stopped when the Broncos were in first–and–goal situations. The 49ers defense again held Denver to a field goal in the third quarter when the Broncos had a first–and–goal inside the five–yard line. Denver went ahead 13–0 in the second quarter when CB Champ Bailey took a deflected theft 70 yards into the end zone. Nedney booted a 46–yard field goal to put the score at 13–3 in Denver's favor at the end of the half. San Francisco rallied in the second half, converting its first series into a 12–play, 76–yard touchdown drive. FB Moran Norris caught a short pass from Smith and weaved in and out of traffic for a 32–yard touchdown. The 49ers took the lead on the ensuing drive when Harris picked off QB Jay Cutler and went 28 yards untouched for a touchdown that gave the 49ers a 17–13 lead. Denver responded with a field goal on the next series, but the 49ers added two field goals in the fourth quarter for a 23–16 advantage with 6:14 to play in regulation. Cutler completed a nine–yard touchdown pass to TE Tony Scheffler to tie the game at 23–23 and send it into overtime. Denver won the coin toss, but was forced to punt on two drives before a 12–yard return by PR Brandon Williams allowed the 49ers to start their game–winning drive at their own 39–yard line. Gilmore gained 20 yards on an end route and then caught a 14–yard pass from QB Alex Smith for a first down at the Denver 25–yard line. Two plays later, Nedney kicked a 36–yard field goal to give San Francisco the win.

San Francisco 37, Arizona 31

The San Francisco 49ers completed a series sweep of the Arizona Cardinals with a 37–31 overtime victory to snap an eight–game losing streak at the University of Phoenix Stadium. DE Ron Fields forced QB Kurt Warner to fumble on a sack in the end zone, and LB Tully Banta–Cain recovered the ball for a touchdown in overtime to seal the win. The play was set up after PK Neil Rackers missed a 32–yard field goal in overtime. Rackers was successful on a field goal from the San Francisco nine–yard line, but the Cardinals were penalized for a delay of game penalty, moving the ball back to the 14–yard line where Rackers was wide to the left. A 59–yard punt by P Andy Lee followed by an Arizona penalty forced the Cardinals to begin their next drive at the three–yard line, setting up the 49ers defensive touchdown to get the win. RB Frank Gore went over the 100–yard mark for the first time in 2007, finishing with 116 yards and two touchdowns, including a 35–yard touchdown run with 1:25 to play to give the 49ers a 31–28 lead. Warner completed five passes on the ensuing drive to get Arizona to the one–yard line with six seconds to play. CB Donald Strickland broke up a pass in the end zone to force Arizona to settle for a 19–yard field goal as time expired in regulation. In overtime, Warner completed a short pass to WR Sean Morey, who raced down the sidelines for a 62–yard gain before LP Patrick Willis caught up with him to make a game–saving tackle at the 14–yard line. That set up Rackers game–winning field goal attempt. The 49ers had three first half turnovers with two CB Walt Harris interceptions and a strip by CB Nate Clements to lead to 14 points. San Francisco had a 17–7 lead and appeared to be in position to take a 17–14 halftime lead after Harris' second interception gave the 49ers a first down at their own 41–yard line. QB Trent Dilfer moved the team inside Arizona territory to the 37–yard line with 11 seconds to go to set up a field goal attempt. PK Joe Nedney attempted a 55–yard field goal that went wide, leaving six seconds on the board for the Cardinals. Warner completed a short pass to the sideline and then with two seconds left completed a 48–yard Hail Mary pass to WR Larry Fitzgerald for a touchdown and a 21–17 halftime lead. A 57–yard touchdown pass from Dilfer to WR Arnaz Battle in the third quarter pushed the 49ers back in front, 24–21, heading into the final quarter. Cardinals backup QB Tim Rattay completed a two–yard touchdown on a fourth–down play midway in the fourth quarter to take a 28–24 lead. Gore's 35–yard touchdown with 1:25 recaptured the lead for San Francisco, but Rackers last second field goal sent the game to overtime.

San Francisco 33, Arizona 30

The San Francisco 49ers overcame a 14–point first quarter deficit to win 33–30 in overtime after PK Joe Nedney nailed a 40–yard game–winning field goal. After closing the gap to 20–13 at halftime, the 49ers intercepted Seattle on the first two drives of the second quarter, including one that was returned for a touchdown. On the first series of the second half, CB Walt Harris tipped a QB Matt Hasselbeck pass that was picked off and returned 86 yards for a touchdown by LB Patrick Willis to tie the game at 20–20. On the next series, DE Ray McDonald tipped a pass that was intercepted by Harris at the Seattle 41–yard line to help set up the go–ahead touchdown. QB J.T. O'Sullivan completed back–to–back passes to WR Bryant Johnson to move the 49ers to the 22–yard line to help get into position for a two–yard touchdown run by RB Frank Gore to lift the 49ers in front, 27–20. Seattle responded with a 15–play, 74–yard drive that ended in a touchdown to tie the game at 27–27. After both teams exchanged field goals to get the score tied at 30–30, the 49ers forced Seattle to punt from its own 12–yard line and the 49ers began a drive at the Seattle 49–yard line with 1:09 to play in regulation. The team moved to the 23–yard line with three seconds to play to set up a game–winning field goal attempt. Nedney's 41–yard attempt sailed wide to the right to send the game to overtime. The 49ers won the toss and elected to receive. O'Sullivan completed a 33–yard pass to WR Isaac Bruce on third–and–seven and a five–yard pass to WR Arnaz Battle on a third–and–two situation to push the 49ers to the 23–yard line where Nedney connected on a 40–yard field goal to give San Francisco the win. O'Sullivan registered his first 300–yard game, finishing 20–of–32 for 321 yards with one touchdown. Bruce had his first 100–yard game as a member of the 49ers with 153 yards on four catches, including a 63–yard catch in the second quarter to help get the 49ers in position for O'Sullivan's three–yard touchdown pass to Johnson. Seattle jumped to a 14–0 first quarter after taking advantage of two miscues by the 49ers. LB Manny Lawson blocked a Seattle punt early in the game, however Seattle recovered the loose ball and converted it into a first down inside San Francisco territory on a drive that ended with a Seattle touchdown. On the next series, Seattle forced Gore to fumble deep in Seahawks territory on a play that resulted in a 10–yard touchdown return by DT Craig Terrill.

November 14, 2010
San Francisco 23, St. Louis 20

The San Francisco 49ers Week 10 matchup would be a battle between NFC West foes as they hosted the division leading St. Louis Rams at Candlestick Park. With the chance to get back into the hunt for the NFC West and compile back–to–back wins for the first time this season, the 49ers would take a big step and put the game in the hands of former Heisman Trophy winner QB Troy Smith. Along with late game heroics that came down to the first overtime contest for the 49ers this season, the game proved to be a classic NFC West shootout. The Rams would also rely on a former Heisman Trophy winner in QB Sam Bradford to come in and test the 49ers at home. With two quarterbacks of storied pasts, the game turned out to be an offensive showcase as both teams would throw for a combined 607 yds., as well as 753 yds. of total offense. All would come down to an overtime FG off the foot of K Joe Nedney, who connected on a 29–yd. game winning kick that gave the 49ers the 23–20 win. With St. Louis winning the toss and electing to receive, Bradford started things off, marching his team down the field. The drive ultimately would be halted, but not before a K Josh Brown's 42–yd. FG put the Rams on the board 3–0 to start the game. Coming off a bye and an extra week to prepare, the 49ers picked up right where they left off in London, as they were able to effectively spread the ball down the field, putting up 421 yds. of total offense. Smith proved to be a major part of the offensive onslaught as he completed 17 of 28 pass atts. for a career–high 356 yds. and 1 TD through the air. Smith's 356 yds. were the most by a 49ers QB since QB Tim Rattay threw for 417 yds. on 38 of 57 pass atts. vs. Arz. (10/10/04). From start to finish, the 49ers found ways to get the ball to multiple players throughout the offense as Smith connected with 5 different receivers who registered 60 yds. rec. or more. It marked the first time in franchise history that at least 5 receivers totaled 60 yds. rec. or more. Smith started the carousel of offensive production with a 32–yd. pass to TE Vernon Davis. On the very next offensive drive, Smith hooked up with WR Josh Morgan for a 65–yd. pass deep down the right side that brought him to the 1–yd. line, setting up a 1–yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore and giving the 49ers a 7–3 lead. The 49ers offense would continue to pour on the yards as they successfully moved the ball down field and allowed Nedney to connect on a 26–yd. FG to put the home team up 10–3 with 12:04 left to go in the half. The Rams eventually would find their way into the end zone as QB Sam Bradford connected with WR Danny Amendola for a 5–yd. TD pass to tie the game at 10 a piece heading into halftime. The 49ers found themselves down heading into the 4th qtr. after Rams RB Steven Jackson scampered for a 13–yd. TD to bring the score to 10–17. With the home team down 13–17 late in the 4th qtr. the 49ers would once again turn to their quarterback. With 2:30 remaining on the clock, the 49ers faced a 3rd and 32 situation at the SF 47–yd. line. Smith then connected on back–to–back passes to Gore of 14 and 23 yds. to move the chains, before firing a 16–yd. TD strike to WR Michael Crabtree to give the 49ers the lead. Rams marched right back down the field and scored off of a 33–yd. FG by Brown, forcing overtime. After St. Louis won the toss, the 49ers defense made a crucial 3 and out stop, which included a 3rd down sack by DT Justin Smith that allowed the 49ers to get the ball back and set up the game winning FG.

Dallas 27, San Francisco 24

San Francisco's regime led by Jim Harbaugh and his new but experienced staff, entered the historic rivalry match against the Dallas Cowboys with something to prove at Candlestick Park. The 49ers started off as they had hoped, scoring 2 first–half TDs and blanking America's Team, but big pass plays late in the game would ultimately cause the Niners to fall short as they were edged 27–24 in overtime. Dallas opened the 1st qtr. marching down the field, but came up short after a failed 21–yd. FG attempt by K Dan Bailey. After exchanging the next couple of possessions, QB Alex Smith led the Niners on a 68–yd. drive, capped off by a 1–yd. TD by RB Frank Gore in the 2nd qtr. The 49ers front seven played strong, swarming and stopping the run, allowing Smith and the Niners to regain possession to take a 14–0 lead. The 12–yd. throw from Smith marked the first TD of WR Kyle Williams' career and the team's first passing TD of 2011. QB Tony Romo and the Cowboys answered before the half on a 71–yd. drive, capped off by a 53–yd. TD slant to WR Miles Austin, making it a one score game heading into the half. Dallas lost its starting QB for a brief stretch in the 3rd qtr., when it appeared Romo's rib injury – occurring on the 3rd play of the game – had become too much of a hindrance. Backup QB Jon Kitna started the 3rd qtr. and threw a tying TD pass and 2 INTs in relief. Displaying good ball skills and awareness, CB Tramaine Brock came up with his 2nd INT of the season in as many weeks, reacting to a Kitna tipped pass and coming up with the turnover. Smith and the 49ers took advantage of the Cowboys turnover with a deep pass down the right sideline to TE Delanie Walker for 29 yds. and the go–ahead TD entering the 4th qtr. K David Akers connected on a 55–yd. FG, marking the longest FG in Candlestick Park history, and the Niners built up a 10–pt. cushion. The Cowboys charged back from the 24–14 deficit when Romo hit Austin for a leaping 25–yd. TD, and then directed a 10–play, 44–yd. drive in the final 4 minutes that ended with an overtime–forcing, 48–yd. field goal. After the Cowboys' defense forced a punt on the 49ers first OT drive, Romo found backup WR Jesse Holley in stride for a 77–yd. gain that set up 19–yd. game–winning FG.

NFC Championship Game

When asked what his message was to his players after falling short to the New York Giants in the NFC Championship game, Harbaugh stated, "As Sir Andrew Barton said, `Fight on my men, we're hurt but not slain. We'll lay down and bleed a while. Then we'll rise and fight again.'" Harbaugh, of course was referring to his team's blue–collar mentality after the Giants escaped rain–soaked Candlestick Park with a 20–17 overtime victory. "They stand toe–to–toe and fight every time they go out onto the field," added Harbaugh. "Be forever proud of our players and coaches the way they compete." Harbaugh got the Niners to the brink of the Super Bowl in his rookie year, taking over a 6–10 team and going 13–3 to win the NFC West. The extra minutes at Candlestick Park went in favor of the opponent in a year where most didn't expect a storybook season. The 49ers defense played stoically, recording six sacks on Giants QB Eli Manning, which ranked t–2nd for the most sacks in a postseason game in franchise history (6 – four times, last vs. Den. – 1/29/90). TE Vernon Davis gave the 49ers a 7–0 lead with 7:11 remaining in the 1st qtr. after running a pattern down the right sideline and outracing the secondary for a 73–yd. TD recept. from QB Alex Smith. On their ensuing drive, the Giants drove from their own 31 to the San Francisco 34–yd. line. On 3rd–and–1, Manning and the Giants failed to get a first down despite two opportunities. The Giants eventually evened the score on a 10–play, 69–yd. drive when TE Bear Pascoe caught Manning's short pass at the 6–yd. line and stepped into the end zone for the TD. The Giants added a FG with two seconds remaining in the 2nd qtr. to give them a 10–7 edge going into the locker room. Davis' second TD of the game, gave the lead back to the Niners at 14–10 with 5:18 remaining in the 3rd qtr. San Francisco's 3–play, 54–yd. TD drive was set up by a short pass to RB Frank Gore, who turned it into a 24–yd. gain. On the next play, Davis went in motion from right to left and caught a lofted pass to the end zone by Smith. The Giants took the lead back after the ball inadvertently glanced off WR Kyle Williams on a punt, giving the ball back to the Giants on their 29 yard line. Manning connected a 17–yard pass to WR Mario Manningham to give the Giants a 17–14 lead with 8:41 remaining. Williams' 40–yd. return on the ensuing kickoff enabled the 49ers to start their next possession at their own 45. On consecutive plays, Smith scrambled for 17 yds. and RB Kendall Hunter ran for 18 more, resulting in a K David Akers game–tying FG with 5:39 to go, 17–17. After both teams went 3–and–out on their first overtime possession, a Giants takeaway on a Williams fumble, forced by LB Jacquian Williams on a punt return, gave the Giants possession at their own 36 with 9:32 remaining. After converting one first down, K Lawrence Tynes sent the season–ending 31–yd. FG through the uprights.

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS FOUNDER

Anthony J. (Tony) Morabito (1910-1957)

Tony Morabito dedicated his life to bringing an idea to fruition that others thought preposterous – the membership of the West Coast, in general, and San Francisco, in particular, in a nation–wide professional football league.

Morabito was the sports pioneer of the West, bringing San Francisco its first major league professional team, the San Francisco 49ers, in a professional sports business that was dominated by the East Coast. Before World War II, Morabito was convinced the San Francisco Bay Area was ready for a franchise in the National Football League. The Bay Area was a mecca for college football. Fans came in droves to Kezar Stadium to see the Wonder Teams of California–Berkeley and the Wow Boys of Stanford, led by Frankie Albert. St. Mary's, Santa Clara and the University of San Francisco were also area powerhouses that regularly defeated the University of Washington and Southern California inside the walls of Kezar.

Morabito saw the rise of football in the area and presented a case to birth a professional football team in 1942 to National Football League officials, but he was quickly ushered out of the meeting room with firm politeness. In the spring of 1944, he took another crack, filing an application for an expansion team in the NFL. Morabito and some of his business associates went to Chicago to present their plan in front of League Commissioner, Elmer Layden. The NFL had no teams west of Chicago, and had no plans of changing their geographical structure. Morabito was again shunned.

He was then put in touch with Arch Ward, sports editor of The Chicago Tribune who was trying to organize a rival league, the All–America Football Conference. Morabito told Ward to count him in.

The new league's first meeting was held on June 6, 1944 in St. Louis, D–Day in Europe. Morabito agreed to form a San Francisco franchise in a league that would not begin operations until the end of the war.

It was the right time, and Morabito knew it.

A native of San Francisco, Morabito learned the game of football on vacant lots in the North Beach sector and had some success later as a halfback at St. Ignatius High School. He went on to play for the University of Santa Clara as a freshman in 1927 but his playing career was ended shortly after by a shoulder injury. He received his diploma in 1931 at the height of the Great Depression. He got a job driving a truck for $80 a month while his father, an immigrant from Italy, had built up a flourishing ship's service business on the San Francisco waterfront, only to see it fold in the wake of the depression years.

As the country's economic state began to improve, so did Morabito's. By 1940, when he was 30 years old, he became a success in the lumber carrier business. The army turned him down for duty in 1942 because of partial deafness, which later forced him to wear a hearing aid.

By 1946, the San Francisco 49ers first year of operation, the Bay Area was in the middle of a postwar economic surge. Morabito's lumber yard was in huge demand as houses were springing up to shelter the fast–growing population that was migrating to California.

Morabito owned the new All–America Football Conference franchise with his partners in the Lumber Terminals of San Francisco – Allen E. Sorrell and E.J. Turre – and his younger brother, Victor.

Sorell suggested the team be named "49ers" after the voyagers who had rushed the West for gold. It is the only name the team has ever been affiliated with and San Francisco is the only city in which it has resided. The original team logo depicted San Francisco's wild beginnings. It was a goldminer in boots and a lumberjack shirt, firing a pair of pistols. One shot just missed the miner's head, while the other missed his foot. The logo was taken from a design seen on the side of railway freight cars.

49ers Founder, Tony Morabito

With a charter, name and logo, the group recruited Lawrence "Buck" Shaw, Santa Clara's famous "Silver Fox," as the 49ers first head coach. The organization spent $250,000 to get structured before the team even took their first snap. Morabito's approach was considered "first class," by most, and a financial risk by many.

But Morabito charged on, hand–picking an inaugural roster comprised of 32 players including Frankie Albert, Norm Standlee and Bruno Banducci, all from Stanford, and stars from Santa Clara, including Alyn Beals, an end who scored 46 pro touchdowns in four years. Other known players on the roster were Len Eshmont, Johnny "Johnny Strike" Strzykalski and Joe "The Toe" Ventrano.

Tony Morabito's widow, Josephine (left), and Victor Morabito's widow, Jane (right), kept control of the 49ers after their husbands' passing along with team president Lou Spadia (middle).

Morabito watched as his 49ers played their first game on August 24, 1946, a 17–7 exhibition win over the Los Angeles Dons at Balboa Park in San Diego. The 49ers first home game was played at Kezar Stadium on September 1, 1946, a 34–14 exhibition win over the Chicago Rockets in front of 45,000 fans made up of longshoremen, draymen, mechanics and waterfront workers.

The first regular season league game was on September 8, 1946 against the New York Yankees. The 49ers scored first, but lost 21–7 in a game that began in sunshine and ended in the famous Kezar fog.

The 49ers finished 9–5 in their first season under Shaw, and went on to have an 8–4–2 record in 1947, 12–2 finish in 1948 and 10–4 record, including a trip to the Championship Game, in their final season in the AAFC.

At the end of 1949, it was announced that the AAFC had run its course. San Francisco, Cleveland and Baltimore received NFL franchises and would begin play in the NFL in 1950. The merger was what Morabito had hoped for all along as he, his brother Victor and general manager Lou Spadia, continued to hold the reins.

The 49ers struggled during their first season among the NFL elite, finishing with a 3–9 record. The following year though, the 49ers went 7–4–1.

As the seasons went on, Morabito was the heart and soul of the organization, signing on greats like The Million Dollar Backfield: Joe "The Jet" Perry, Hugh "The King" McElhenny and John Henry Johnson. He also attracted some of the NFL's most renowned talents in R.C. Owens, Bob St. Clair, Leo Nomellini, John Brodie and Y.A. Tittle.

The players appreciated his honesty, and trusted his every move and word.

As the 1950's progressed, Morabito was warned by his doctors that a bad heart and the rigors of football were not a healthy combination. But Morabito wasn't going to let a health scare get in the way of his passion. "What the hell, if I'm going to die, I might as well die at a football game," he said.

On October 27, 1957, the 49ers hosted the Chicago Bears at Kezar. The 49ers entered the game with a 3–1 record behind the talents of Owens, Perry, Tittle, McElhenny, Billy Wilson, and others. The Bears had a 14–0 advantage in the first quarter before the 49ers scored to close the deficit at 14–7. Just as the 49ers lined up for the next kickoff, Morabito, who was sitting next to his wife, Josephine, and his brother, Victor, in the guest box, suddenly collapsed. The great heart that had been with the 49ers since the franchise's inception had failed.

Father Bill McGuire of St. James parish was summoned to the guest box and pronounced Morabito his final absolution. Morabito looked up at him and smiled.

"Thank you father," he said.

Those were his last words.

The 49ers were behind 17–7 in the third quarter when the team learned of Morabito's death. His players rallied and came back to defeat Chicago, 21–17, in an emotional last win for their owner. The 49ers finished the season with three straight victories and an 8–4 record, tying Detroit for the NFL Western Division title.

Victor, Tony's younger brother, kept the team in the family until 1964, when he too died of a heart attack. Both Victor and Tony's wives, Jane and Josephine, retained control of the 49ers with Lou Spadia as team president until 1977, when a new team owner, Edward DeBartolo Jr. of Youngstown, Ohio emerged to buy the franchise.

Morabito's conviction, passion and character birthed and kept an NFL franchise in San Francisco, and laid the sturdy foundation that enabled the 49ers to become one of the NFL's premier football powers over the past 60 years.

BOBB MCKITTRICK AWARD

This award is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best exemplifies the dedication, excellence and commitment of offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick, a five–time Super Bowl champion.

In 1999, the San Francisco 49ers, under the direction of Bill Walsh, established the Bobb McKittrick Award. The award is meant to honor those offensive linemen who have best represented the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by the late McKittrick during his 21 years of service with the 49ers.

"Bobb gave distinguished service to the organization since our renaissance in 1979," Walsh said. "He was a vital factor in five Super Bowl championships, the evolution of a dynasty and in the production of some of the finest offensive linemen in football. Offensive linemen don't receive the recognition they so richly deserve. This gives us a venue to honor their sacrifices and achievements."

A bronze plaque of McKittrick hangs in the 49ers locker room surrounded by the photographs of the McKittrick Award winners.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

The Ed Block Courage Award is named after Ed Block, the former head athletic trainer of the Baltimore Colts of 23 years. Block was a pioneer in his profession and a respected humanitarian whose most passionate cause was helping children of abuse. The award is presented in his name each year to the player that exemplified a commitment to sportsmanship and courage. Ed Block Courage Award winners from each of the 32 NFL teams are honored at a banquet in Baltimore, MD. All proceeds from the event benefit the Ed Block Courage Award Foundation's Courage House National Support Network. Named after the NFL team in a respective NFL city, a Courage House is a facility that provides support and quality care for abused children and their families in that community. The 49ers dedicated their Courage House in October 2003 at the Edgewood House in San Francisco.

EDWARD J. DeBARTOLO SR. 49ERS HALL OF FAME

The San Francisco 49ers are arguably one of the most fabled sports franchises in history. With the multitude of memories that the team's history holds, a place to honor and capture these tremendous times and legendary figures only seems appropriate.

During the 2009 offseason, the San Francisco 49ers and the York family proudly introduced the creation of the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame, named in honor of the beloved patriarch of the storied franchise. The 49ers Hall of Fame was established to recognize players, administrators and coaches who have made exceptional contributions to the organization.

A week after the creation of the new 49ers Hall of Fame, team President & CEO Jed York announced the name of its inaugural inductee, his uncle, Edward J. DeBartolo Jr., known as "Mr. D" to most close to the 49ers family. He was then officially inducted during halftime of the team's home opener versus the Seattle Seahawks on September 20, 2009.

Being inducted into the 49ers Hall of Fame is no easy task, and the selection process reflects the level of honor which it bestows. As a prerequisite for induction, all 49ers Hall of Fame candidates must have displayed one or more of the following qualifications: outstanding production and performance on the field, key contributions to the team's success, and/or the embodiment of the spirit and essence of the San Francisco 49ers.

A number of players and coaches have already been recognized in various ways throughout the years for their contributions to the game of professional football and the 49ers organization. Accordingly, the franchise has automatically enshrined members of the 49ers family who have either had their jersey numbers already retired by the organization or have been selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. These players include: John Brodie, Dwight Clark, Fred Dean, Jimmy Johnson, John Henry Johnson, Charlie Krueger, Ronnie Lott, Hugh McElhenny, Joe Montana, Leo Nomellini, Joe Perry, Bob St. Clair, Y.A. Tittle, Bill Walsh, Dave Wilcox and Steve Young.

During Alumni Weekend on October 11, 2009 against the Atlanta Falcons, the 49ers honored the automatic enshrinement of the above players during halftime of the game.

Members of the 49ers Hall of Fame were recognized at Candlestick Park, in a special display highlighted by plaques designed in each inductee's likeness.

In years to come, the 49ers organization will look to enshrine at least two members each season. A selection committee comprised of internal and external members will present ownership with an annual list of candidates. Once that list has been approved, the 49ers are welcoming their Faithful to help select each year's induction class via the team's official website, www.49ers.com.

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

1949

December 10, the NFL and AAFC announced that the two leagues will merge. The NFL agrees to adopt Baltimore, Cleveland and San Francisco as new franchises.

1950

The 49ers struggled in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."

1951

In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race until the season's final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by LB Hardy Brown and his famed shoulder tackle, the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the League. QB Y.A. Tittle and E Billy Wilson began their great 49er careers.

1952

After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in mid–season. HB Hugh "The King" McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become the NFL PLAYER OF THE YEAR and the most feared runner in football.

1953

The 49ers had their best NFL showing posting a 9–3 record, normally good enough for a championship. Detroit, however, was 10–2. Two of San Francisco's losses came with QB Y.A. Tittle sidelined because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. FB Joe "The Jet" Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. E Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

1954

The 49ers jumped out to a blazing start, posting a 4–0–1 record through the season's first five games. However the early momentum was slowed by injuries to three key members of the legendary "Million Dollar Backfield." QB Y.A. Tittle, HB Hugh McElhenny and FB Joe Perry all missed action with different injuries, but Perry returned to become the first player to record 1,000 yards rushing in consecutive seasons.

1955

With HB Hugh McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second–worst season in history under Norman P. Strader, who succeeded Buck Shaw as head coach.

1956

In head coach Frankie Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were in last place at mid–season with a 1–6 record. They went 4–0–1 in their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957

This undoubtedly was one of the most emotional and dramatic seasons in 49ers history. Every game was a cliffhanger and the Alley Oop pass from QB Y.A. Tittle to rookie HB R.C. Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trailing 17–7, the 49ers fought back for a great victory, 21–17. The magnificent E Billy Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8–4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31–27, after holding a 27–7 lead in the third quarter.

1958

An up–and–down season finished on a high note with victories over Green Bay and Baltimore. The 6–6 record, however, was blackened by the 33–3 and 56–7 lacings at the hands of the Los Angeles Rams. Head coach Frankie Albert resigned at the end of the year.

1959

With Howard W. "Red" Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and QB John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21–20 upset of Cleveland. HB J.D. Smith, a converted defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960

Howard W. "Red" Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his shotgun attack and the club captured four of its last five games, including a 30–22 upset of Baltimore.

1961

The success of Howard W. Hickey's shotgun amazed the football world, especially in a 49–0 victory over Detroit. QB Billy Kilmer, a passing–running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the shotgun stopped, QB John Brodie took over again in the T formation and had the finest season in 49ers QB annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second–place tie, plus a trip to the Runner–up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth–place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 will remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49ers history.

1962

For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished a frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false—the 49ers won only one of seven at Kezar Stadium, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963 – A multitude of injuries to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2–12 season. One of the victories, however, was a 20–14 upset of ultimate world champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

1964

Club Chief Executive Victor P. Morabito died of a heart attack in May. Injuries to key personnel prevented the 49ers from gaining enough offensive momentum to forge a winning season despite having one of the toughest defensive units in the league. Outstanding rookie performances by E Dave Parks, QB George Mira and LB Dave Wilcox also took some of the sting from the 4–10 record.

1965

Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. QB John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL, E Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie FB Ken Willard and veteran HB John David Crow, acquired in an offseason trade, led a strong ground game. The 7–6–1 record included a season–opening 52–24 victory over the Chicago Bears, marking the most points scored by the 49ers in NFL play.

1966

After a somewhat slow start, the 49ers got in gear just before the midway point and became one of only two teams to beat the eventual world champion Green Bay Packers. After that, they finished with a respectable 6–6–2 record and were in the battle for second place in the Western Division until the final league game. G John Thomas and E Dave Parks were All–Pro, and they joined G Howard Mudd, C Bruce Bosley, FB Ken Willard and LB Dave Wilcox in the Pro Bowl.

1967

An auspicious start (5–1) disintegrated into disappointment for the 49ers as injuries took a heavy toll and a six–game losing streak took them out of the running. QB George Mira came off the bench to lead the squad to two season–ending victories and salvage a 7–7 record. There were bright spots, however, as QB John Brodie and the 49ers were the only team to beat the power–laden Rams in a league game. G Bruce Bosley played in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season.

1968

Under new coach Dick Nolan, the 49ers posted a 7–6–1 record. The season turned on key wins over the New York Giants, 26–10, and Green Bay, 27–20. Brilliant performances by QB John Brodie, WR Clifton McNeil and RB Ken Willard led a prolific offense, while DT Charlie Krueger, LB Dave Wilcox and DB Kermit Alexander sparked a revitalized defense. McNeil and G Howard Mudd were chosen All–NFL and were joined by Wilcox, Willard and Alexander in the Pro Bowl.

1969

Beset by injuries that nearly decimated the defensive unit, the 49ers struggled through the early part of the season. They went winless in their first five games before beating Baltimore, the first time they had beaten the Colts in 13 previous games. The 49ers finished 4–8–2 and five players—HB Jimmy Johnson, LB Dave Wilcox, G Elmer Collett, RB Ken Willard and rookie WR Gene Washington—were selected to the Pro Bowl. Johnson was also All–Pro and winner of the Len Eshmont Award.

1970

This was the greatest year since the club became a member of the NFL in 1950. The team recorded a 10–3 record and captured the Western Division (NFC) Championship. QB John Brodie was the NFL'S Player of the Year, CB Bruce Taylor was NFC Rookie of the Year and Coach Dick Nolan was a near–unanimous choice as NFC Coach of the Year. Brodie, WR Gene Washington, LB Dave Wilcox and HB Jimmy Johnson were All–Pro and joined T Len Rohde in the Pro Bowl.

1971

The 49ers forged a 9–5–0 record and won their second consecutive NFC Western Division title, clinching the crown on the final day by beating Detroit, 31–27, the identical score by which the Lions had knocked the 49ers out of championship play in 1957. The season also was the club's first in its plush new home, Candlestick Park. C Forrest Blue, LB Dave Wilcox and CB Jimmy Johnson were All–Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington, RB Vic Washington, DE Cedrick Hardman and CB Bruce Taylor.

1972

Early–season inconsistency, compounded by an injury to QB John Brodie in the fifth game of the season, cast appall on the 49ers prospects for a third–straight NFC Western Division title, but QB Steve Spurrier stepped in for Brodie and turned things around with a brilliant, poised performance. In the final quarter of the final game against Minnesota, the recovered Brodie relieved Spurrier and threw two TD passes in a 20–17 win over the Vikings. The victory clinched divisional title number three, but Spurrier's nine–game contribution was the key. C Forrest Blue, DB Jimmy Johnson, TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington and LB Dave Wilcox were All–Pro selections.

1973

In what was both a disappointing and significant year, the 49ers were 5–9 after tackling the NFL's toughest schedule, a rash of key injuries and an unsettled quarterback situation. It also marked the end of the brilliant careers of QB John Brodie and DT Charlie Krueger, both of whom retired at year's end. C Forrest Blue and LB Dave Wilcox were voted All–Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, G Woody Peoples and P Tom Wittum.

1974

The 49ers used five different quarterbacks after an injury to starter QB Steve Spurrier, a week before the season opened, sidelined him for most of the year. After winning the first two games, the club lost a team–record seven straight and then closed with a rush, winning four of its last five to finish the season 6–8. RB Wilbur Jackson was named The Sporting News ROOKIE OF THE YEAR and was named to the NFL All–Rookie team along with QB Tom Owen and DB Mike Holmes. C Forrest Blue and P Tom Wittum were All–NFC and selected for the Pro Bowl along with HB Jimmy Johnson. A knee injury forced perennial All–Pro LB Dave Wilcox to retire after a brilliant 11–year career with the 49ers.

1975

A strong defensive performance throughout the season couldn't offset an erratic offense troubled by an unsettled quarterback situation and a rebuilding offensive line. The high point of the 5–9 season was a 24–23 win over Los Angeles to end a 10–game losing streak to the Rams. At season's end, DE Cedrick Hardman was the club's first ever two–time Len Eshmont Award winner.

1976

A turnaround year for the 49ers as the team, under coach Monte Clark, posted an 8–6 record, their first winning season since 1972. With new QB Jim Plunkett at the controls, the 49ers got off to their best start ever (6–1), before hitting a mid–season four–game losing streak knocking the club out of playoff contention. The season saw the emergence of a powerful defensive unit that led the league in quarterback sacks with 61. RB Delvin Williams set a 49ers single–season rushing record with 1,203 yards. DE Tommy Hart was named All–Pro and played in the Pro Bowl along with Williams, DE Cleveland Elam and LB Dave Washington. C Randy Cross was an All–Rookie team selection. Hart became a two–time winner of the Len Eshmont Award and CB Jimmy Johnson retired after a brilliant 16–year career with the 49ers.

1977

In the 32nd year of their existence, the 49ers began a new era. On March 31, 1977, the club became the property of Edward J. DeBartolo Jr. and came under the guidance of Joe Thomas as general manager. The changeover was made more dramatic because the San Francisco 49ers were one of the few NFL franchises which had never previously changed ownership or location. On the field, under Coach Ken Meyer, the 49ers ran hot and cold. The club lost its first five games, then won five of the next six before dropping the final three contests to finish 5–9. SS Mel Phillips was named winner of the coveted Len Eshmont Award. DE Cleveland Elam was selected All–Pro and played for the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

1978

The 49ers suffered through their longest season as the club fell to 2–14 and three coaches were hired and fired in less than 12 months. First Head Coach Pete McCulley departed after nine games with a 1–8 record, and his replacement, Fred O'Connor, was let go at the end of the year as the team won just one of its final seven contests. Bill Walsh was hired as the new coach and general manager. RB Paul Hofer, who replaced RB O.J. Simpson when the newly–acquired star went to the sidelines for the year with a shoulder injury, was named recipient of the Len Eshmont award.

1979

The 49ers suffered through their second consecutive 2–14 season, but there were several indications of improvement. San Francisco went from virtually the worst–ranked offensive team in the league in '78 to one of the most productive in '79, ranking first in passing offense in the NFC and sixth in total offense in the NFL. RB Paul Hofer again was the Len Eshmont Award recipient and individual leader, racking up 615 yards rushing and an additional 662 yards receiving on 58 catches in only seven starts. QB Steve DeBerg broke Fran Tarkenton's NFL record for completions by connecting on 347 passes. K Ray Wersching set a club record with an 83.3 field goal percentage and also led the league with that mark. RB O.J. Simpson retired from the 49ers and the NFL, finishing as the second leading rusher of all time with 11,236 yards.

1980

In their second season of the Bill Walsh era, the 49ers showed gradual improvement in their rebuilding program. A three–game winning streak to open the season, combined with a three–game victory string from Week 12 through Week 14, enabled the Niners to post a 6–10 season, tripling the number of victories from each of the previous two 2–14 campaigns. Week 14 was a day when the 49ers made NFL history. That December 7 at Candlestick Park, the 49ers overcame a 35–7 halftime deficit against the New Orleans Saints to win in overtime, 38–35. The 28–point comeback was the biggest comeback in NFL history. E Jim Stuckey and P Jim Miller were named to All–Rookie teams, while another rookie, FB Earl Cooper, led the NFC in receptions with 83, the most catches ever by an NFL rookie. WR Dwight Clark caught 82 passes to break the team wide receiver mark, and QB Joe Montana set the club passing percentage record at 64.5 with 176 completions in 273 attempts.

1981

It was a year of firsts and bests for the 49ers in 1981. In his third season as head coach and general manager, Bill Walsh guided San Francisco to a 16–3 record (best record in the league that year), the NFC Western Division title (first since '72), the NFC Championship crown (first ever for the 49ers) and the World Championship/Super Bowl XVI win (first ever for the 49ers). Walsh earned every possible NFC Coach of the Year award and all seven NFL Coach of the Year honors, while six 49ers were named to the Pro Bowl—WR Dwight Clark, C Randy Cross, QB Joe Montana, DE Fred Dean, S Ronnie Lott and S Dwight Hicks. Three San Francisco players were selected to All–Pro teams as recognized by the NFL—Cross, Lott and Dean. Montana, who led the NFC in passing in '81, was named MVP of Super Bowl XVI (for leading his team to a 26–21 win over the Cincinnati Bengals of the AFC). Dean was picked UPI NFL Defensive Player of the Year, NFL Outstanding Defensive Lineman of the Year (NFL Players Association) and NFC Defensive Player of the Year (Kansas City Committee of the 101). San Francisco opened and closed the season in Pontiac, MI in drastically different styles. The 49ers lost two of their first three games of 1981, including the season opener on the road against Detroit, then ran off seven wins—before a loss to Cleveland 15–12—and ran off eight more wins (including playoffs, the NFC Champion– ship and Super Bowl XVI). The 49ers won 15 of their last 16 games, beat five opponents twice—including all three postseason foes—and became the first team since Chicago in 1945–47 to go from the worst NFL record (2–14 in 1979) to the league's best (13–3 in '81) in just three seasons. All this happened with three rookies (S Carlton Williamson, CB Eric Wright and Lott) starting in the defensive secondary. Those three rookies, along with Montana, Clark, Cross, WR Freddie Solomon and Hicks, combined with "old veterans" Dean and LB Jack "Hacksaw" Reynolds, formed a nucleus of world championship vintage.

1982

As defending world champions, the San Francisco 49ers did not enjoy the 1982 season, but then not many NFL fans, coaches and players throughout the league did either (except maybe in Washington, where the Redskins were Super Bowl XVII champs). The Niners fell to 3–6 and missed out on the playoffs. In the strike–shortened season, San Francisco went winless at home (0–5) but did manage a 3–1 road record (the Niners were 0–2 prior to the 57–day players' strike and 3–4 following it). WR Dwight Clark had an outstanding season, leading the NFL with 60 receptions and being named consensus All–Pro and NFL Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated. LB Keena Turner (second–team All–Pro), S Ronnie Lott (Pro Bowl), C Randy Cross (Pro Bowl), S Dwight Hicks (Pro Bowl), T Keith Fahnhorst and QB Joe Montana (NFL record for five straight 300–yard passing games) were bright spots in an otherwise disappointing season.

1983

For the second time in three seasons, San Francisco played in the NFC Championship Game. The '83 49ers were 10–6 (third best regular season victory total in club history) and NFC Western Division Champions (fifth time since 1970, second time since 1981). In the playoffs, San Francisco squeezed past Detroit, 24–23, but lost to Washington, 24–21, in the NFC Championship contest. Individual standouts included QB Joe Montana (the league's No. 1 all–time QB entering the 1984 season), S Ronnie Lott (making his third Pro Bowl appearance in as many years), DE Fred Dean (leading the NFC in sacks with 17.5), DE Dwaine Board (second in sacks with 13), CB Eric Wright (team leader in interceptions with seven, two for scores), WR Dwight Clark (team leader with 70 receptions and eight TDs), WR Freddie Solomon (club record 21.4 yards per catch), K Ray Wersching (team–record 126 points, including a perfect 51–of–51 PATs), offensive linemen C Randy Cross, T Keith Fahnhorst and G John Ayers, RB Roger Craig (752 yards rushing, 427 receiving), RB Wendell Tyler (856 rushing yards, 285 receiving) and NFL All–Rookie team pick LB Riki Ellison.

1984

The 49ers experienced the most successful regular season in NFL history by winning a league record 15 games, including all eight road contests—setting yet another NFL standard. The Niners broke 14 team records in '84, while becoming the first NFC team to sweep all of its conference games, and the first NFC West unit to win all contests within the division. Led by RB Roger Craig and QB Joe Montana, San Francisco capped the year by routing the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XIX, 38–16. The win was the 18th victory of the '84 campaign, establishing an NFL standard for wins in a single season (including playoffs). San Francisco scored a then team–record 475 points. The 49ers defense was the stingiest in the NFL in '84, allowing a league–low 227 points scored. Honors were numerous, including Pro Bowl recognition for 10 of Bill Walsh's charges—Montana, RB Wendell Tyler, T Keith Fahnhorst, C Randy Cross and C Fred Quillan on offense and S Dwight Hicks, S Ronnie Lott, S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright (the entire Niners secondary), and LB Keena Turner on defense.

1985

At 10–6, San Francisco qualified for postseason play for the fourth time since 1981. Offensively, RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice emerged as potent weapons in the attack. Craig became the first NFL player to surpass 1,000 yards rushing and receiving in the same season. Rice was named NFC ROOKIE OF THE YEAR and set the team record for first–year players with 927 receiving yards. The defense experienced the influx of four new starters in '85 (NT Michael Carter, LB Todd Shell, LB Michael Walter and DE John Harty). Carter won a berth on the Pro Bowl team, as did DBs Eric Wright and Carlton Williamson.

1986

The 49ers captured their fourth NFC Western Division title since 1981. Offensively, the team was led by All–Pro wide receiver WR Jerry Rice, who paced the NFL with 1,570 receiving yards and 15 touchdowns. Those marks established club standards in addition to Rice's team–record 16 total scores. The defense managed 49 takeaways, tying the Kansas City Chiefs for NFL leadership. San Francisco's 39 interceptions and 578 return yards set team records, while five scores on interceptions returns tied another club mark. S Ronnie Lott tied HB Dave Baker's 1960 team record with 10 interceptions. The output by young players was vital due to major injuries suffered by many starting veterans. San Francisco made 20 roster moves during the season, shuffling players in and out of action. QB Joe Montana missed Weeks 2–9 due to back surgery, while backup signal–caller Jeff Kemp did not play Weeks 8–11 due to a hip injury.

1987

The San Francisco 49ers marched to an NFL regular season best 13–2 record. It marked a league–leading third time in the decade of the '80s that the team either tied or posted the best win–loss percentage during the regular season. San Francisco led the NFL with 5,987 total yards and was best among league defenders allowing 4,095 total yards. It was the first time in Niners history that the team led the league in fewest total yards allowed. WR Jerry Rice set NFL records with 22 receiving touchdowns and scoring receptions in 13 consecutive games. The durable wide out received postseason Most Valuable Player awards from nearly every news agency and sports publication. QB Joe Montana won the first NFL passing title of his nine–year career and set a team record with 31 touchdown passes. S Ronnie Lott, Montana and Rice were joined by NT Michael Carter and RB Roger Craig on the NFC squad in the 1988 Pro Bowl.

1988

The 49ers climaxed their 1988 season in thrilling fashion with a dramatic touchdown drive in the waning seconds of Super Bowl XXIII. QB Joe Montana's 10–yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor with 34 seconds remaining in the contest gave the Niners their third Super Bowl win of the decade and the rights to the title "Team of the 1980s." The world championship game against the Cincinnati Bengals was a microcosm of the entire '88 campaign. San Francisco opened the year strong with a 5–2 record, but by Week 12 were 6–5, two games out of first place with only five contests to play. That week's victory over Washington launched a four–game winning streak that resulted in the Niners moving up from third to first place in the NFC West standings and earning a third consecutive NFC Western Division title. As the season ended RB Roger Craig broke the team's single season rushing record (finishing with 1,502 yards) and K Mike Cofer established new Niners single–season standards for field goals attempted (38) and made (27). WR Jerry Rice went on a playoff tear that included: an NFL postseason record–tying three touchdown receptions against Minnesota, the Montana–to–Rice battery hooked–up on first half touchdowns of 61 and 27 yards at Chicago, and concluded with a Super Bowl XXIII MVP performance of 11 receptions for a Super Bowl record 215 yards and a touchdown. Defenders S Ronnie Lott, DE Charles Haley, NT Michael Carter, along with Rice, Taylor and Craig, were selected to the Pro Bowl.

1989

George Seifert was named head coach of the San Francisco 49ers just four days after the team had won its third World Championship under retiring head man Bill Walsh. Seifert's quest for the title was tested early and often as the 49ers endured nail–biting wins at Indianapolis (30–24) and Tampa Bay (20–16) to open the season. QB Joe Montana threw for 428 yards and five touchdowns, including a team–record four TD tosses in the fourth quarter resulting in a 10–point victory (38–28) in Philadelphia. Under first–year offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren, the Niners accumulated more yardage than any other NFL team. WRs Jerry Rice and John Taylor, RB Roger Craig, G Guy McIntyre and QB Joe Montana were 1990 Pro Bowl participants. Rice's 1,483 receiving yards paced the league. Craig exceeded 1,000 yards rushing for the second consecutive season and running mate FB Tom Rathman led NFC running backs with 73 receptions. Montana had the best season of his career. A consensus Player of the Year, Montana's 112.4 quarterback rating set a then NFL single–season record. Montana was selected by his teammates as the '89 recipient of the Len Eshmont Award. Fueled by Rice's 72–yard first quarter catch–and–run for a score, the 49ers exploded for 27 first half points and cruised to a 41–13 victory against Minnesota in their opening '89 playoff contest. The 49ers faced Los Angeles in the NFC Championship Game. The Niners started slowly, however. Two long, second–quarter scoring drives and a touchdown set up by an interception gave San Francisco a 21–3 lead at intermission. Cofer's three field goals cushioned San Francisco's lead as the team advanced to Super Bowl XXIV with a satisfying 30–3 win. The 49ers displayed optimal performance at the highest level of competition while securing their second consecutive World Championship. The resounding 55–10 defeat of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXIV was a convergence of talent and technique, planning and purpose. San Francisco tied or set nearly 40 Super Bowl records and Montana was honored with the game's MVP award for an unprecedented third time.

1990

The Niners finished the season with an NFL–best 14–2 mark and came within four seconds (in a 15–13 loss to the NY Giants) of earning their third consecutive trip to the Super Bowl. In addition to recording the NFL's best win–loss mark for the second straight season, the 49ers captured the NFC Western Division title for the fifth consecutive year and the eighth time since 1981 ('81, 1983–84, 1986–90). San Francisco claimed its 11th Division crown since the NFL/AFL merger of 1970, more than any NFC Western Division opponent (the Rams were second with eight), and second most in NFL history (behind Miami's 13 AFC East titles). San Francisco opened the 1990 season with a team–record 10 consecutive victories. The 49ers also posted an 8–0 mark on the road, giving them the longest road winning streak in league history (19 games, including postseason) heading into '91. QB Joe Montana and WR Jerry Rice again formed one of the most prolific aerial combinations in pro football. Montana, who was named 1990 Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated, finished his 12th NFL season by throwing for a then team–record 3,944 yards. He also tossed 26 touchdown passes (second in the NFC) and finished as the third highest rated quarterback in the conference. On the receiving end of many of those Montana passes was Rice, who became only the fourth player in league history to reach the century mark in receptions for a single season. Rice hauled in 100 passes for 1,502 yards and 13 TDs, and earned his fifth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl. In one of the most memorable performances of the season (if not team history), Rice tied an NFL record with five TD receptions in a 45–35 victory at Atlanta, October 14. The defensive side of the ball was led by LB–DE Charles Haley's 58 tackles and an NFC–high 16 sacks. For his efforts, the fourth–year player from James Madison University was named as a starter in the 1991 Pro Bowl. LB Bill Romanowski led the team in tackles with 79, while CB Darryl Pollard registered 74, including a team–high 72 solo stops. A number of team career records fell by the wayside in '90. Montana slipped past QB John Brodie to take over the career passing lead (34,998 yards), while RB Roger Craig became the all–time team record holder in career receptions with 508, moving ahead of WR Dwight Clark's total of 506. The 49ers placed five players on the 1991 NFC Pro Bowl squad, four as starters. Representing the 49ers were Haley, Rice, S Ronnie Lott and G Guy McIntyre, while Montana, selected as a starter, was unable to participate because of a finger injury suffered in the NFC Championship Game.

1991

It was a classic case of "too little...too late" for the San Francisco 49ers in 1991. After losing six of their first 10 games by a total of 26 points, the Niners won their remaining six contests (by a total of 95 points) but missed the playoffs for the first time since 1982. The 49ers finished the 1991 campaign in impressive fashion during that final six–game span, with a margin of victory that averaged almost 16 points. During that final six–game span, the Niners defeated three playoff teams (New Orleans, Kansas City and Chicago) while averaging 31.5 points per game in the process. WR Jerry Rice continued to register his place in club and league history taking over the club's career receiving record with 525 catches. Rice finished third in the NFC with 80 receptions and 1,206 yards, surpassing 1,000 receiving yards for a club–record sixth consecutive season, and he led the NFL with 14 TD receptions. QB Steve Young won the NFL passing title, despite missing six games due to a knee injury. Young, who passed for 2,517 yards and 17 TDs, finished with a 101.8 rating, besting Washington's Mark Rypien (97.9) for the title. When Young was injured at Atlanta November 3, QB Steve Bono (1,617 yards, 11 TDs) came off the bench to rally the team to five consecutive victories. On the defensive side of the ball, S Dave Waymer finished as the leader in total tackles (86), solo tackles (77), interceptions (4), interception return yards (78) and passes defensed (16) and tied CB Kevin Lewis for the lead in forced fumbles (3). LB–DE Charles Haley and DE Larry Roberts each posted seven sacks, while CB Don Griffin's 99–yard fumble return against the Bears set a team record and was the third longest return in league history. San Francisco placed three players on the 1992 NFC Pro Bowl squad, two as starters, as Rice, Guy McIntyre and Haley were all selected (Rice and McIntyre as starters). It was the sixth time in Rice's seven–year career that he was selected to play on the islands. McIntyre and Haley were each selected for the third time.

1992

The San Francisco 49ers continued their winning tradition as they once again posted the NFL's best regular season record (14–2), while winning their sixth NFC Western Division title in seven years, and advancing to the NFC Championship Game for the second time in three seasons. In the NFC Divisional Playoffs, the 49ers defeated defending Super Bowl Champion Washington (20–13). However, San Francisco fell to Dallas, 30–20, in the NFC Championship Game at Candlestick Park the following week. WR Jerry Rice continued to etch his name in football history, becoming the NFL's all–time touchdown reception leader with 103. He tied Steve Largent's mark of 100 in Week 13 against the Philadelphia Eagles (11–29), then broke the record the following week vs. the Miami Dolphins (12–6). QB Steve Young, who harvested a total of 34 awards, including the NFL'S Most Valuable Player Award, won the NFL passing title for the second straight year, finishing an amazing 16.3 points ahead of his closest competitor. Young, who passed for 3,465 yards and 25 TDs, finished with a 107.0 rating. Following his 101.8 rating in 1991, it marked the first time in league history that anyone had posted back–to–back seasons with ratings higher than 100 each year. RB Ricky Watters gained 1,013 yards to establish a team rushing record for first–year backs. K Mike Cofer's 107 points led the 49ers in scoring for the fifth consecutive year. On the defensive side of the ball, linebacking led the charge as LB Bill Romanowski finished as the leader in total tackles (80) and assists (15). LB Mike Walter (67 solo stops) and LB Tim Harris (17 sacks for 116 yards) also led defensive categories. CB Don Griffin paced the defensive backfield with five interceptions and 19 passes defensed. Fans at Candlestick saw the Niners rewrite part of the team's record book in '92 as they set team marks for total offense (598 yards) vs. the Buffalo Bills (Sept. 13) and points (56) in their win over the Atlanta Falcons (56–17, 10–18). San Francisco placed seven players on the 1993 NFC Pro Bowl squad, including four starters and five first–time participants. Rice, G Guy McIntyre, DT Pierce Holt and Young were all named as starters. TE Brent Jones, Watters and T Steve Wallace were also selected. It was the seventh time in Rice's eight–year career that he was selected to play on the islands and McIntyre was named for the fourth time, while the others made their first visits.

1993

The 1993 season was another in a long line of successes for the San Francisco 49ers. Among the team's accomplishments were: a 10–6 record, marking an NFL–record 11th consecutive season with 10 or more victories, the team's 10th NFC West title in 13 seasons and a third appearance in four years in the NFC title game. In addition, San Francisco led the National Football League in scoring and total offense and established or tied five of the team's nine major offensive records. The marks set included most net offensive yards (6,435), most TDs (61), most first downs (372) and highest average gain per play (6.3). The Niners also tied the team mark for net passing yards in a season with 4,302, equaling the record set in 1989. Individually, QB Steve Young became the first player in NFL history to lead the NFL in passing three consecutive seasons, when he posted a 101.5 rating in 1993. In addition, it was his third consecutive season with a rating over 100, also a league first. Young completed 68 percent of his passes (second highest in team history) for a then club–record 4,023 yards. His 29 scoring passes in '93 ranked third on the team's single–season charts. RB Ricky Watters led the ground game for the second consecutive season, narrowly missing the 1,000–yard mark with 950 yards. Watters posted 10 rushing TDs during the season and set an NFL single–game playoff record with a five–touchdown outburst vs. the New York Giants. WR Jerry Rice posted one of his best seasons, recording 98 receptions for 1,503 yards and 15 touchdowns on his way to being named NFL OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR by Associated Press. He also received the team's Len Eshmont Award. Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield was named the NFL DEFENSIVE ROOKIE OF THE YEAR, capping a season in which he registered 10.5 sacks. LB Bill Romanowski (105) and S Tim McDonald (91) topped the team in tackles. Young, Rice and McDonald were selected to the Pro Bowl, joining T Harris Barton, G Guy McIntyre, TE Brent Jones and C Jesse Sapolu with that honor.

1994

The 1994 San Francisco 49ers completed one of the most impressive seasons in NFL history by capturing their NFL–record fifth Super Bowl Championship at Joe Robbie Stadium in Miami. San Francisco defeated the San Diego Chargers 49–26 in Super Bowl XXIX to put the finishing touches on a 16–3 season and win an unprecedented fifth Vince Lombardi Trophy. The offseason started on a high note. Despite facing an NFL–imposed salary cap in 1994, the 49ers still managed to sign such veteran free agents as LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Gary Plummer, DE Tim Harris, DE Charles Mann, DE Richard Dent, LB Rickey Jackson, C Bart Oates, WR Ed McCaffrey and CB Toi Cook. Then, after some draft day maneuvering, San Francisco came away with two first–round picks in DT Bryant Young and FB William Floyd. Injuries, however, played a key factor early in the campaign. By the end of the second game in Kansas City, the 49ers had lost most of their starting offensive line, as well as the services of Dent, their top pass–rusher, to various injuries. Despite signing CB Deion Sanders prior to Week 3, the problems continued. Still playing with a decimated line, San Francisco suffered its worst loss in almost 14 years when it dropped a 40–8 decision to the Philadelphia Eagles in Week 5 at Candlestick Park. The season turned around the following Sunday at Detroit when the 49ers, trailing 14–0 at one point, rallied to defeat the Lions 27–21. That win started a winning streak that extended 10 games and saw the 49ers finish 13–3 and win the Super Bowl. Among the other highlights from the 1994 season, the 49ers offense was one of the most potent ever. During the 16–game regular season, the 49ers scored a team–record 505 points, a total that ranks as the fourth–highest total in NFL history. The 31.6 points per game average also established a team record. In addition, San Francisco scored 66 touchdowns, shattering the previous team mark of 61. QB Steve Young recorded one of the finest seasons in NFL history. He set a league record with a QB rating of 112.8 and became the first player in NFL history to lead the league in passing four consecutive seasons. He also set team records for completion percentage (70.2) and touchdown passes (35). In Super Bowl XXIX, he passed for a record six touchdowns, while being named the game's MVP. Rookie Floyd emerged as one of the league's brightest young stars, rushing for 305 yards and six TDs. The 49ers went 10–1 after he was named to the starting lineup in Week 6 at Detroit. Young finished third on the team in rushing with 293 yards and led the team with seven rushing touchdowns. WR Jerry Rice set a team record with 112 receptions for 1,499 yards and 13 touchdowns. However, his shining moment came in Week 1 vs. the Los Angeles Raiders when he eclipsed Jim Brown's all–time touchdown mark with 127. Norton Jr. led the 49ers with 92 total tackles and 79 solo stops. S Merton Hanks placed second with 79 tackles (66–13) while leading the team with seven interceptions. DT Dana Stubblefield's 8.5 sacks and 53.5 sack yards led the squad for the second consecutive season. And finally, Sanders, who joined the team in Week 3, shattered the team record with an NFL–high 303 interception return yards on six thefts. Among his three returns for touchdowns (tying a team mark) were efforts of 93, 90 and 74 yards. He was named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year as well as a starter in the Pro Bowl. Other Pro Bowl selections included Young, Rice, TE Brent Jones, Oates, G Jesse Sapolu, Hanks, Stubblefield, S Tim McDonald and RB Ricky Watters. CB Eric Davis had a team–leading 22 passes defensed during the regular season and four interceptions in the playoffs.

1995

San Francisco once again captured the NFC West Championship, despite battling through a season in which injuries wreaked havoc time and again. Among the key contributors who were sidelined during the campaign were starting FB William Floyd, whose season ended with a severe knee injury in the October New Orleans game, and QB Steve Young, who missed five games with a shoulder injury. Those injuries, in addition to several others in the offensive line throughout the season, would have crippled most teams; however, the 1995 49ers established a reputation as one of the grittiest in team history. The defensive unit created a new aggressive identity, finishing the season ranked number one in the NFL. Not only did it lead the league in scoring defense, it set team records for fewest rushing yards allowed (1,061) and fewest rushing yards per game (66.3). San Francisco's defense also excelled in takeaways, forcing a total of 34, including a team–record seven (five interceptions, two fumbles) that resulted in touchdowns. Among the standout performers were Pro Bowl selections CB Eric Davis, FS Merton Hanks and SS Tim McDonald, marking the second consecutive season the 49ers secondary included three Pro Bowl picks. LB Ken Norton Jr. racked up 127 tackles and set a team single–game record by returning two interceptions for touchdowns at St. Louis. LB Lee Woodall and DT Dana Stubblefield rounded out the Niners Pro Bowl defensive players. Offensively, WR Jerry Rice posted the finest of his legendary 11 seasons with the 49ers. He became the NFL's career leader with 942 receptions and 15,123 yards, while also establishing the league's single–season standard with 1,848 yards. He was named as a starter in the Pro Bowl for the 10th consecutive season. Young, who returned to quarterback the team for the final four regular season games, was also selected to the Pro Bowl, as was TE Brent Jones, who made the squad as an alternate. One of the highlights of the season was the emergence of QB Elvis Grbac. Playing in place of the injured Young, he directed the Niners to three of their biggest wins of the season at St. Louis, at eventual world champion Dallas and at Miami. Floyd was the recipient of the team's Len Eshmont Award.

1996

One streak continued and another ended for San Francisco in 1996. With a 12–4 record, the 49ers reached double digits in the win column for the 14th consecutive season, the longest streak in the NFL. However, the upstart Carolina Panthers unseated the Niners as NFC West Champions, ending their four–year reign. San Francisco remained one of the league's most dangerous teams with an aggressive defense and a productive offense. Despite losing QB Steve Young for four full games and parts of four others with various injuries, the 49ers offense ranked second in the NFC with 398 points and sixth in the NFL in total offense. WR Jerry Rice became the first player in NFL history to record four 100–catch seasons after making a league–high 108 receptions for 1,254 yards. The 12–year veteran earned his NFL record–tying 11th Pro Bowl invitation and was a first–team All–Pro selection. Young won his fifth NFL passing title with a QB rating of 97.2 and was named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth consecutive season. Defensively, the 49ers had the league's most imposing pass rushing trio in DE Roy Barker, DT Bryant Young and DE Chris Doleman. Barker finished fourth in the NFC with 12.5 sacks, while Doleman's 11 sacks moved him into seventh on the NFL's career list with 115.5. Young was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl team and earned first–team All–Pro honors after posting 11.5 sacks and 85 tackles. He also claimed the 49ers Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational and courageous player. The third–year veteran was joined on the Pro Bowl team by FS Merton Hanks, who was invited for the third consecutive season. As usual, Rice's assault on the record books continued. He became the first player in NFL history to register 1,000 career receptions and 16,000 receiving yards. Rice also surpassed K Ray Wersching as the team's all–time leading scorer with 982 points.

1997

Although they appeared vulnerable after first week injuries to QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice, the San Francisco 49ers rallied under the direction of rookie head coach Steve Mariucci, reclaimed the NFC West title and advanced to the NFC Championship Game. The 49ers finished with a 13–3 mark, including an 11–game winning streak, despite losing Rice for all but two games. They did it behind a new–found running attack and the league's top–ranked defense. Mariucci became one of 13 head coaches since the NFL–AFL merger in 1970 to lead his team to a division title in his rookie season, and he was the fourth to do it directly out of the college ranks. The former University of California skipper established an NFL record for consecutive wins by a rookie head coach with an 11–game streak (games 2–12). The 49ers claimed their 13th NFC West title in 17 years and posted 10–or–more wins for the 15th consecutive season. Young suffered a concussion against Tampa Bay on opening day, but remained healthy throughout the season and claimed his NFL record–tying (Sammy Baugh) sixth league passing title with a rating of 104.7. The 13–year veteran showed consistency while getting adjusted to a new coach, new running back and two young receivers. The 49ers made a commitment to a power rushing attack by signing G Kevin Gogan during the offseason. The additional size up front allowed the 49ers to finish fourth in the NFC in rushing yards. RB Garrison Hearst (1,019 yards) became the first 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards since 1992. With Rice out, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes became the primary receiving targets. Owens led the team with 63 receptions for 936 yards and eight touchdowns, while Stokes posted 58 receptions for 733 yards and four touchdowns. Rice returned for one game against Denver (12–15) and helped the 49ers clinch home field advantage throughout the playoffs with a 34–17 win. Rice became the first non–kicker in league history to reach 1,000 points with a 14–yard touchdown catch in the second quarter of the Broncos contest. The 49ers defense led the league in total yards allowed (250.8), finished second in takeaways (41) and was tied for third in sacks (54). They helped carry the burden as the offense adjusted to new personnel. For the second consecutive season, the 49ers had three players reach double figures in sacks. DT Dana Stubblefield (15.0), DE Chris Doleman (12.0) and LB Kevin Greene (10.5) led the sack attack. Stubblefield finished second in the league in sacks and was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year by Associated Press and earned the Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational player. Of the seven 49ers named to the Pro Bowl, five were from the defense. Stubblefield was joined by Doleman, FS Merton Hanks, LB Lee Woodall and LB Ken Norton Jr. Gogan and Young were San Francisco's offensive selections.

1998

Led by one of the most productive offenses in team and league history, San Francisco posted its 16th consecutive winning season and remained one of the NFL's elite teams. Behind the strong arm of QB Steve Young, the powerful legs of RB Garrison Hearst and the triple–threat receiving corps of WR Jerry Rice, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes, the 49ers rolled to a 12–4 regular season mark and an appearance in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game. Young opened the season in sizzling fashion. The 14–year veteran established an NFL record by throwing for over 300 yards in six consecutive games, breaking the previous record of five held by former 49ers QB Joe Montana. Young finished the season completing 322–of–517 (62.3) passes for 4,170 yards and 36 touchdowns. His final passing rating of 101.1 marked the seventh consecutive season he has surpassed the 100–point barrier and earned him his seventh consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl. The 49ers offensive line, led by Pro Bowl G Kevin Gogan, paved the way for Hearst's record–setting season. Hearst, and his team–record and career–high 1,570 yards rushing, were a major reason the 49ers led the NFL in rushing. His 198–yard performance against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football also set a then team–record and was a personal–best. His four plays of 70 yards or more led the league and helped earn him his first career Pro Bowl selection. The 49ers receiving corps was in the capable hands of Rice, Owens and Stokes. Rice, returning from a serious knee injury in 1997, earned his 12th career Pro Bowl nomination and finished with a team–high 82 receptions for 1,157 yards and nine touchdowns. The athletic Owens asserted himself among the league's best receivers and brightest young stars by catching 67 passes for 1,097 yards and 14 touchdowns. Stokes caught a career–best 63 passes for 770 yards and eight touchdowns. The 49ers defense was paced by the inspiring play of DT Bryant Young. Young was having an exceptional season with 54 tackles and 9.5 sacks before suffering a season–ending leg injury against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football. Young was still named Eshmont Award winner although missing the final four regular season games. LB Winfred Tubbs, in his first season with the 49ers, earned his first career Pro Bowl nomination after finishing with 112 tackles. CB Darnell Walker, FS Merton Hanks, S Zack Bronson and S Tim McDonald led the team with four interceptions each.

1999

San Francisco had a streak of 16 consecutive winning seasons snapped, after finishing the 1999 season with a 4–12 record. A season–ending injury to QB Steve Young in Week 3 sent the 49ers into a tailspin from which they did not recover. Replacing Young proved to be quite a task for QBs Jeff Garcia and Steve Stenstrom. Garcia received the first try at the job and responded admirably, posting a 24–22 victory, with a QB rating of 106.0, over the Tennessee Titans in his first NFL start. Garcia would start the next four games, but was replaced by Stenstrom in Week 10 at New Orleans. With Stenstrom struggling in starts against the Saints, Rams and Packers, the 49ers coaching staff returned Garcia to the starting lineup for a December 5 game at Cincinnati. And what a return it was. Garcia threw for a career–high 437 yards against the Bengals, including throwing two touchdown passes to WR Jerry Rice. The game proved to be an impetus for Garcia, who over the final five games of the season completed 121–of–182 passes for 1,441 yards, eight touchdowns and three interceptions for a quarterback rating of 98.3. During that stint, Garcia completed 66.5 percent of his passes and was sacked just three times for 25 yards. San Francisco also was faced with the task of replacing 1998 Pro Bowl RB Garrison Hearst and his team–record 1,570 yards rushing. A key off–season acquisition of RB Charlie Garner proved more than an adequate replacement. Garner rushed for a career–high 1,229 yards, caught a career–high 56 passes for 535 yards and finished third in the NFL with 1,764 total yards. The San Francisco running attack also was given a boost by second–year FB Fred Beasley's 276 yards rushing and 282 yards receiving, both marks were career–high's. Overall the 49ers led the NFL with 2,095 yards on the ground, becoming the first team to lead the league for consecutive seasons since Buffalo did it in 1991–92. The 49ers also led the league with a per–rush average of 5.0 yards. The San Francisco receiving corps was once again paced by Rice. He finished the year with 67 receptions for 830 yards and five touchdowns. Certainly not the kind of numbers that Rice is accustomed to, but over the final five games of the season, Rice caught 24 passes for 420 yards (17.5) and three touchdowns. In that span he posted two 100–yard games, including a six–reception, 143–yard effort at Atlanta (1–3) in the season finale. WR Terrell Owens added 60 receptions for 754 yards and four touchdowns while J.J. Stokes totaled 34 grabs for 429 yards and two touchdowns, including a five–reception, 130–yard performance at Atlanta (1–3) in the season finale. The 49ers defense struggled for much of the season, but was highlighted by several individual performances. DT Bryant Young was named the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year and earned a Pro Bowl selection. After overcoming a devastating leg fracture that ended his 1998 season and left his future clouded in doubt, Young answered all questions by earning a Pro Bowl nomination with his 11.0 sacks on the season. S Lance Schulters, in his first season as a starter, responded by finishing second in the NFC with six interceptions, including a game–winning 64–yard return against New Orleans (9–19) in the second week of the season. Schulters was named as the starting free safety for the NFC squad in the 2000 Pro Bowl.

2000

San Francisco opened its sixth decade in the NFL under new leadership. The transfer of ownership from Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. to his sister Denise DeBartolo York was approved by the NFL May 23, 2000. DeBartolo, Jr. ended his tenure after guiding the 49ers to five Super Bowl Championships and 16 postseason appearances. A young San Francisco team, which at one point started five rookies on defense, showed marked improvement throughout the season, winning four of the last six games, to finish 6–10. The offense again was one of the best in the league, which led to three starters being named to their first Pro Bowl – QB Jeff Garcia, RB Charlie Garner and WR Terrell Owens. Garcia, who was in his first season as the full–time starter, set the pace for the offense all season long. He set career–highs in every category, completing 355–of–561 passes for a team–record 4,278 yards, with 31 touchdowns and only 10 interceptions. He finished the year ranked fifth in the NFL with a 97.6 quarterback rating. Garcia started all 16 games and had six 300–yard passing games, including a 402–yard effort against Chicago in December, which was his third straight 300–yard passing performance and his sixth of the season. His productivity not only led to his first Pro Bowl appearance, but Football Digest also named him the NFL'S Most Improved Player. WR Terrell Owens was one of the many benefactors of Garcia's success. Owens posted his second career 1,000–yard season, catching a career–high 97 passes for 1,451 yards, which ranked him fourth in the NFL. Owens, who only played in 14 games during the season, also had five 100–yard games and scored a team–high 13 touchdowns. Owens had his best performance of his career against Chicago in December, breaking a 50–year old NFL record with 20 receptions for 283 yards and one touchdown. Owens broke Tom Fears' NFL record of 18 receptions in a game, which he set back in 1950 with the Rams. The 49ers backfield was again in the capable hands of Garner and FB Fred Beasley. Garner earned his first Pro Bowl appearance and became the fourth 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards in back–to–back seasons. Garner, behind the stellar play of the 49ers offensive line, ran for 1,142 yards on 258 carries and seven touchdowns. Also a receiving threat, Garner set career–highs with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns. In addition, he established a team record with 201 yards rushing vs. Dallas. Beasley also had a solid year, rushing for 147 yards on 50 carries and three touchdowns, while catching 31 passes for 233 yards and three touchdowns. The 49ers defense was young, but got better over the last half of the season. The defense was again paced by the efforts of DT Bryant Young, who posted 51 tackles and led the team in sacks with 9.5. LB Ken Norton Jr. was one of only three players to start all 16 games, extending his consecutive games streak to 160. The 49ers defense started five rookies in the final game at Denver and had seven different rookies start throughout the 2000 campaign. Rookies CB Ahmed Plummer, DE John Engelberger and CB Jason Webster all started at least 10 games. Six rookies—Plummer, Webster, Engelberger, LB Julian Peterson, DT Cedric Killings and S Ronnie Heard—participated in more than 20–percent of the total 1,096 plays.

2001

The San Francisco 49ers made their return to the playoffs after a two–year absence, as the young and improving team posted a 12–4 record. The year marked the return of RB Garrison Hearst, who came back from a devastating ankle injury that kept him out of football for two seasons. Hearst rushed for 1,206 yards, was named Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year and also earned his second career Pro Bowl nomination. In total, the 49ers had six players travel to the islands for the annual all–star game. In addition to Hearst on offense, QB Jeff Garcia and WR Terrell Owens made their second straight appearances, C Jeremy Newberry played in his first Pro Bowl, G Ray Brown made the first Pro Bowl appearance in his 16–year career, and on defense DT Bryant Young made his third Pro Bowl appearance, anchoring the 49ers defense that improved from ranking 29th in 2000 to 13th in 2001. The offense was again in the capable hands of Garcia. The Gilroy native proved that 2000 wasn't a fluke. He completed 316–of–504 passes for 3,538 yards. The third–year veteran also threw 32 touchdowns, becoming the first 49ers quarterback to throw for 30 or more touchdowns in consecutive seasons. Owens was one of Garcia's favorite targets, especially when it came to the endzone. Owens caught 93 balls for 1,412 yards and a career–high and NFL leading 16 touchdowns. While Hearst was the big story, the offensive line, which returned all five starters from the 2000 season, proved to be vital to the team's success. For the fifth consecutive season, San Francisco produced a 1,000–yard rusher, which set a new team record. The defense was still young, but improved as the season progressed. The defensive line added two new starters to the mix, although one of them was not so new. DT Dana Stubblefield returned to the 49ers after spending three seasons with Washington and rookie DE Andre Carter made an impression, especially in the last four weeks of the season when he was named NFC Rookie of the Month. Carter led the team in sacks with 6.5, adding 4.5 of those in the last five games. The unit as a whole improved over the last half of the season, posting a team–record three shutouts in the last month of the campaign. Another big addition was LB Derek Smith, who came over from the Redskins as well. Smith brought with him four consecutive seasons of 100 tackles or more. Smith kept that streak alive as he led the defense with 126 total tackles. Also helping the defense with its improvement was S Zack Bronson and CB Ahmed Plummer. Both players recorded career–highs with seven interceptions each. Bronson also returned two for touchdowns, including a career–high and team record 97–yard return at Chicago.

2002

The San Francisco 49ers entered 2002 with hopes of advancing past the first round of the NFC playoffs. The team accomplished the mission finishing the season with 10 wins and advancing to the NFC Divisional Playoffs in grand fashion with the second largest playoff comeback in NFL history. The 49ers finished the season with a 5–1 division record and won their first division title since 1997. The team's success came from its ability to minimize turnovers, along with a strong running game. The 49ers gained 2,244 yards on the ground for the second consecutive season and RB Garrison Hearst established a career–high with eight rushing touchdowns. Helping Hearst were Pro Bowlers G Ron Stone and C Jeremy Newberry, who anchored an offensive line that was third in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed. San Francisco had the least amount of turnovers in the NFC with 17. In his third season as director of the 49ers offense, QB Jeff Garcia earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl berth. He completed 62 percent of his passes and tied a team record by directing five fourth–quarter comebacks. WR Terrell Owens continued his dominance with a career–high 100 receptions and led the NFL with 13 receiving touchdowns. Owens surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the third consecutive season and earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl bid. Defensively, LB Julian Peterson had a breakout season with a career–high 104 tackles. He shut down several of the league's top tight ends and made history by playing four positions in a single game against Dallas (12–8). His effort earned him his first career Pro Bowl appearance. DT Bryant Young added an interior presence with his fourth career Pro Bowl nomination and S Tony Parrish proved to be an invaluable pickup with a career–high seven interceptions. He won the Len Eshmont and the Ed Block Courage Award, both firsts for a player in his inaugural season.

2003

Head Coach Steve Mariucci was released from the final year of his contract on January 15, 2003. The 49ers conducted an extensive search for Mariucci's successor and in the end hired Dennis Erickson. Erickson was introduced as the 14th head coach in 49ers team history on February 12, 2003. The Erickson era started with a 7–9 record for the 49ers in 2003. The team struggled on the road, winning only one game, but was impressive at home, scoring more than 45 points in two separate home games. The team was represented in the Pro Bowl, the 23rd consecutive year the 49ers had at least one team representative in the islands. In 2003, WR Terrell Owens made his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, LB Julian Peterson made his second consecutive trip and FB Fred Beasley made his first career appearance in Hawaii. On offense, QB Jeff Garcia missed three games due to injury, but threw for 2,704 yards and 18 touchdowns. In his place, QB Tim Rattay responded admirably, throwing for 856 yards and seven touchdowns while posting a 2–1 record in those three games. RB Kevan Barlow recorded his first career 1,000–yard rushing season after becoming the main tailback after RB Garrison Hearst went down with a knee injury and missed the final four games. Owens recorded his fourth consecutive 1,000–yard season, amassing 1,102 yards despite missing the final game of the year. The 49ers defense finished the year ranked 13th overall in the NFL and ninth against the run. The unit was led by Pro Bowler Peterson, who led the team in sacks with seven, and S Tony Parrish, who tied for the league lead with nine interceptions. The group as a whole recorded 42 sacks on the year, the highest total since 1998, which was good for second in the NFC and tied for fourth in the NFL. In addition, the 49ers defensive unit allowed only 268 yards per game, the lowest total since 1997. San Francisco also caused turnovers as evidence by its 13 fumble recoveries, its highest total since 1997.

2004

The San Francisco 49ers continued to build depth with a young squad of versatile and talented athletes in 2004. Despite a 2–14 overall record, the group was able to gain significant experience while individuals on both sides of the ball notched career milestones over the 16–game span. The 49ers also swept NFC West rival Arizona in two thrilling overtime battles in the confines of both Monster Park and on the road in Sun Devil Stadium. The team was also represented in the Pro Bowl for the 24th consecutive year as LS/TE Brian Jennings made his first trip to the Pro Bowl. Jennings was chosen to serve as a "need" player in Hawaii by the NFC coaching staff. On offense, TE Eric Johnson returned to the lineup after missing 2003 with a broken collarbone and paced the team with 82 receptions for 825 yards and two touchdowns. His performance was the best–ever by a 49ers' tight end. WR Brandon Lloyd led the scoring attack with six touchdown receptions while RB Kevan Barlow steadied the ground game with 244 carries for 822 yards and seven touchdowns. Under center, QB Tim Rattay battled shoulder, forearm and foot injuries to play in nine games, including a career–best 417–yard performance in the 49ers first of two bouts against Arizona. Rattay rallied the offense from a 16–point fourth–quarter deficit to win 31–28 in overtime. In the process, he completed a team–record 38 passes en route to his first 400–yard game. DT Bryant Young's 11 years of NFL experience served as the veteran voice behind the defensive unit. Young led the line with 79 tackles and three sacks and enjoyed a career game against Chicago after notching 10 tackles and two sacks, his 17th career multi–sack game. For his efforts, Young was presented the team's Len Eshmont and Bill Walsh Awards. It was an unprecedented fifth Len Eshmont award win for Young. DE John Engelberger responded with a career year, with a career–high 64 tackles. He led team with 6.0 sacks. Also a steady rock on defense was SS Tony Parrish, who started all 16 games to give him 112 consecutive career starts, the third–longest active streak at his position. LB Derek Smith also chipped in at the linebacker post, reaching the 100–tackle plateau for the eighth straight year. Smith and fellow LB Jeff Ulbrich led the team with 167 tackles. After a season–ending Achilles injury to LB Julian Peterson, LB Jamie Winborn stepped up with 104 tackles, 4.5 sacks and three forced fumbles. The 49ers also saw much promise from a handful of young participants. Second–year T Kwame Harris played in 14 contests and did not allow a sack in the last five games after returning to the starting lineup on the left side. Also gaining experience on the line was rookie G Justin Smiley who played in all 16 games with nine starts. On the opposite side of the ball, rookie RCB Shawntae Spencer finished third in the league with 12 starts as a rookie. He also led the defensive unit with 12 passes defensed. Second–year DT Anthony Adams continued to flourish in his role, registering a career–high nine stops against Washington. The special teams unit remained staunch, led by the efforts of rookie P Andy Lee. Lee finished the season with a 41.6–yard average, the highest since P Reggie Roby during the 1998 campaign. He led all rookies in the NFC in gross average and boomed an 81–yard punt against Tampa Bay (11–21–04) which was the longest of 2004 and the fourth–longest in team history. Another rookie, S Keith Lewis, also made his presence felt as he became the first player in 49er history to block a punt, force a fumble and recover a fumble in the same season. Lewis was able to accomplish this trifecta on only special teams plays.

2005

The San Francisco 49ers faced a tremendous amount of adversity during the 2005 campaign under new Head Coach Mike Nolan, but utilized both the highs and lows as opportunities to grow and improve. With a mix of veteran experience and young talent, the team doubled their win total from 2004 with a 4–12 record, including a series sweep over NFC West division rival St. Louis, a home win against playoff contender Tampa Bay, and a nail–biting overtime victory in the 2005 season finale against Houston. The 49ers also made a historic trip to Mexico City to play NFC West division rival Arizona in front of an NFL–record 103,467 fans. Even though the 49ers lost a league–high 101 games by starters, including three of the four starters in the secondary, there were many individual and team bright spots, including strong showings from five players who started every game in 2005 (LB Derek Smith, NT Anthony Adams, G Justin Smiley, T Kwame Harris and C/G Eric Heitmann). Of the 11 original 2005 draft selections, 10 went on to spend the 2005 season on the 49ers roster and contributed on offense, defense and special teams. Six of the 10 started in some capacity throughout the season (RB Frank Gore, QB Alex Smith, G David Baas, T Adam Snyder, TE Billy Bajema and CB Derrick Johnson). On offense, four different quarterbacks saw time under center. The most experienced of the four in the quarterback rotation, Tim Rattay, took the initial starting reins and led the 49ers to a 28–25 opening day victory against St. Louis. Shortly after, first overall draft pick Alex Smith made his professional debut, stepping in to relieve Rattay at Arizona in Mexico City. With the eventual trade of Rattay in Week 7 to Tampa Bay, and a knee injury to Smith, both Ken Dorsey and Cody Pickett also stepped in to call plays in the pocket. Smith returned to the starting lineup and gained valuable playing experience, seeing action in nine games with seven starts while showing outstanding poise and maturity in the pocket. WR Brandon Lloyd led the aerial attack with 48 catches for 733 yards including five touchdowns from four different quarterbacks. WR Arnaz Battle also gained ground after rebounding from a knee injury, averaging 11.3 yards per catch while snagging three touchdowns. On the ground, RB's Kevan Barlow, Frank Gore and Maurice Hicks all chipped in 100–yard single–game performances and three touchdowns each. Gore had a stellar first season while pacing all 49ers rushers with 127 carries for 608 yards. After losing C Jeremy Newberry and LT Jonas Jennings to injuries, the offensive line was able to develop some consistency in the second half of the season with rookie LT Adam Sndyer and rookie G David Baas making significant strides as starters. Eric Heitmann also held strong as both a guard and center. Defensively, veteran leader DE Bryant Young led the team with eight sacks (including three multi–sack contests), his most since 2000. His 77.5 sacks put him into third place on the 49ers all–time sack leader list. For his stellar performance, Young was voted by his teammates as the 49ers recipient of the Len Eshmont and Ed Block Courage Awards. Also paving the way was LB Derek Smith, whose 163 tackles led the 49ers, his fifth straight time to pace the unit. The team's co–MVP/Bill Walsh Award winner also notched his ninth straight 100–yard campaign. In the absence of an injured Jeff Ulbrich, LB Brandon Moore responded by finishing second on defense with career highs in tackles (93), sacks (5), interceptions (1) and fumble recoveries (1). Before he was lost for the season with a fractured fibula, S Tony Parrish posted two interceptions, returning one for a touchdown. His teammates, CBs Mike Adams and Shawntae Spencer led the team with four interceptions and a touchdown return each. The special teams unit played a big part in the team's scoring efforts as co–MVP Bill Walsh Award winner K Joe Nedney accounted for 97 49ers points off of 28 field goals (including a 56–yard career long) and 19 extra points. P Andy Lee's three touchbacks in 107 punts placed him with the third–best ratio of touchbacks–to–punts among punters with 30 or more kicks in 2005. Special teams ace Terry Jackson stayed true to his form by leading the coverage unit with 21 tackles. And rookie return man Otis Amey got the season off to an electrifying start after returning a 75–yard punt for a touchdown in the season opener against St. Louis. Amey became the fifth 49ers rookie to return a punt for a touchdown and the first to do so on his first–ever return. He also became the second 49ers player (behind WR Nate Singleton) to score a touchdown on his first touch.

2006

Under the direction of second–year Head Coach Mike Nolan, the 49ers continued to build a framework for success – that included utilizing young talent sprinkled with enough veteran leadership to mentor and keep the group heading in the right direction. After a 4–12 campaign in 2005, the 49ers significantly increased their win total to seven and closed the year with two, morale–boosting road wins in Seattle and Denver to finish 7–9. The organization picked up some key free agents prior to the start of the 2006 season, including All–Pro and future Hall of Fame G Larry Allen, speedy playmaker CB Walt Harris and 13–year NFL veteran and proven Super Bowl winner QB Trent Dilfer. Their acquisitions paid immediate dividends. Allen and Harris joined second–year RB Frank Gore at the Pro Bowl to mark the 25th time in club history the team has been represented, and Dilfer served as a sturdy mentor to second–year starting QB Alex Smith. The 49ers also added talent through the draft, picking up nine immediate contributors. Eight of the nine draft picks (TE Vernon Davis, LB Manny Lawson, WR Brandon Williams, RB Michael Robinson, DE/LB Parys Haralson, TE Delanie Walker, S Marcus Hudson and DE Melvin Oliver) saw action during the season while three (Davis, Lawson and Oliver) were starters. Offensively, the 49ers grew by leaps and bounds, largely in part to the schemes and game plans run by new Offensive Coordinator Norv Turner. QB Alex Smith began to flourish under Turner's guidance and became the first–ever 49ers quarterback to take every snap for the entire regular season while showing dramatic improvement in year two. He set career highs in every offensive category and led the 49ers to a fourth–quarter comeback win (24–14) in Seattle in his first career primetime game. C Eric Heitmann held strong under center, serving as the line's vocal and emotional leader and Bobb McKittrick Award winner. Leading the offensive production was RB Frank Gore, who plowed behind the line and new free agent FB Moran Norris en route to setting a franchise–record 1,695 rushing yards, tops in the NFC, and another record 2,180 combined yards. His 212–yard performance against Seattle was the highest single–game rushing total in 49ers history and was one of nine 100–yard rushing performances on the season. Gore was voted the team's co–MVP/Bill Walsh Award winner and Ed Block Courage Award recipient. Also chipping in was rookie TE Vernon Davis, who scored on his first NFL touch, a 31–yard touchdown catch in the season opener at Arizona. The defensive unit overcame some early struggles and improved significantly during the second half of the season. LB Brandon Moore led the unit in tackles (114) and sacks (6.5) in his first year as a full–time starter. Consummate veterans LB Derek Smith (93 tackles), DT Marques Douglas (75 tackles, three sacks) and seven–time Len Eshmont Award winner DE Bryant Young (60 tackles, 5.5 sacks) led the group up front while CB Walt Harris and S Keith Lewis (72 tackles, two interceptions, one sack) proved to be new, impact presences in the secondary. Harris finished with one sack and a career–high eight interceptions including a 28–yard touchdown return at Denver. Rookie LB Manny Lawson wrapped his inaugural campaign with 65 tackles, 2.5 sacks, one interception and a blocked punt while rookie DE Melvin Oliver had 50 stops, one sack and a 12–yard fumble return for a touchdown. On special teams, K Joe Nedney amassed 116 points, the second–highest total of his career and eighth most in team history. Nedney was also successful on three onsides kicks. RB Maurice Hicks continued to play a key role in the special teams effort. He led the unit with 20 tackles, one fumble recovery and also returned 57 kickoffs for a franchise record 1,428 yards, third best in the NFC. Also making a difference on the special teams unit was rookie RB Michael Robinson, who finished with 16 stops and a 33–yard return for a first down on a fake punt at Seattle.

2007

Head coach Mike Nolan and his team entered the 2007 season believing that anything less than the playoffs would be a disappointment. Unfortunately, the team fell far short of that mark with an overall 5–11 record as four different quarterbacks took the helm of the 49ers offense. 49ers fans did experience some highlights in 2007, including another 1,000–yard rushing season for RB Frank Gore and a stellar season by LB Patrick Willis. The 49ers top pick out of Ole Miss won Defensive Rookie of the Year and Pro Bowl honors. Willis was also the only NFL rookie to be named All–Pro in 2007, becoming the first 49ers defensive rookie to earn the honor since CB Ronnie Lott in 1981. His 226 tackles was an unofficial NFL record and Willis earned numerous additional accolades. P Andy Lee joined Willis at the Pro Bowl as he put together one of the greatest punting season in NFL history. Lee set an NFL record for punts downed inside the 20–yard line with 42, while ranking second in gross punting average (47.3) and net punting average (41.0) behind Oakland's P Shane Lechler. The 49ers went 2–1 in primetime games in 2007, winning the season opener on Monday Night Football against the Arizona Cardinals and defeating the Cincinnati Bengals on a Saturday night game in December. QB Alex Smith started the season with a 2–1 record before experiencing a shoulder injury in the fourth game of the season against Seattle. He eventually was placed on Injured Reserve in December and underwent surgery. QB Trent Dilfer stepped in for Smith and led the team with 1,166 passing yards on 113–of–219 passing. Dilfer eventually would suffer a concussion vs. Minnesota (12–9), and QB Shaun Hill replaced the veteran in Week 13 of the season. Hill was sharp during his three games of action, completing 54–of–79 passes for 501 yards with five touchdowns and one interception. However, Hill would also succumb to injury, being sidelined with a back injury for the season finale. QB Chris Weinke saw action in the final game of the season. Despite inconsistency on offense, the 49ers special teams unit was among the league's most elite in 2007. K Joe Nedney connected on 17–of–19 field goal attempts, while Lee booted 49 punts of 50 or more yards (16 more than any other punter). At the conclusion of the season, one of the all–time great 49ers, DT Bryant Young, retired from the NFL after 14 seasons with San Francisco. Young led the 49ers with 6.5 sacks and finished with 89.5 sacks for his career, which is third on the 49ers all–time sack list behind Cedrick Hardman and Tommy Hart. He earned his eighth Len Eshmont Award, given to the player who best exemplifies the inspirational and courageous play of Len Eshmont.

2008

The San Francisco 49ers entered the 2008 season following a simple mantra, 'One game at a time.' Throughout the year, 49ers players and coaches experienced several transitions and tribulations, but did not allow their minds to linger in the past, nor venture too far into the future. The focused approach proved effective as the team won five of its final seven games to close out the season. After a promising 2–1 start to the year, San Francisco dropped four straight contests before making a change at head coach. In his fourth season at the helm of the 49ers, Mike Nolan was replaced by assistant head coach/linebackers coach Mike Singletary. Upon accepting the position, Singletary said the foundation was in place to take the team to the 'next level.' The response by his players and staff proved positive as the 49ers finished with a 5–4 record under Singletary's direction. Immediately following the conclusion of the season finale against Washington, team President Jed York announced to onlooking players and coaches in the locker room that Singletary would remain the 49ers head coach moving forward. The quarterback position was one of the first areas that Singletary addressed when taking over midway through the 2008 season. QB J.T. O'Sullivan started the first eight games of the year and showed an ability to make big plays, but costly turnovers proved to be problematic for the signal caller. O'Sullivan was replaced at the end of the first half of Singletary's first game as head coach against Seattle. Singletary later announced QB Shaun Hill would take over the starting role for the remainder of the season. The move appeared to be the right one as Hill went on to post a 5–3 record and a 87.5 overall passer rating. While Hill made his season debut midway through the year, RB Frank Gore was once again the centerpiece of the 49ers offense. Despite missing two games with an ankle injury, Gore became the first 49ers player to rush for over 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons, finishing the year with 1,036 rushing yards and 1,409 total yards from scrimmage. WR Isaac Bruce, who earned the team's coveted Len Eshmont Award in his first season in a 49ers uniform after spending 14 years with the Rams, recorded team–highs in receptions (61), receiving yards (835) and touchdown catches (7). TE Vernon Davis, who was named as an alternate for the Pro Bowl, finished the season ranked fourth on the team in receptions (31) and receiving yards (358). On defense, Singletary consulted with defensive coordinator Greg Manusky and transitioned the unit into a more simplified, yet productive 3–4 alignment midway through the season. Over the final nine games of the year, the 49ers improved from 23rd in total defense to finish 13th (326.0) in the NFL. LB Patrick Willis earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl nod after totaling a team–high 185 tackles, while LB Takeo Spikes ranked second on the team with 122 tackles to go along with three interceptions in his first year with San Francisco. LB Parys Haralson had a breakout season with eight sacks, the most by a 49ers linebacker since Kevin Greene posted 10.5 in 1997. The 49ers defensive line got a boost with the offseason signing of DE Justin Smith, who ranked second on the team with seven sacks and fourth on the squad with 104 tackles. As one of the most experienced units in the NFL, the 49ers secondary finished the season strong, allowing an average of 177.4 passing yards per game over the final five contests, which ranked third among NFL teams during that time span. For the second year in a row, the 49ers special teams unit ranked among the best in the NFL. Led by special teams coordinator Al Everest, P Andy Lee, KR/PR Allen Rossum and RB Michael Robinson were all named alternates for the Pro Bowl. Lee finished the season ranked third in the NFL with a career–high and team–record 47.8 gross average.

2009

The 49ers took a step forward in 2009, recording their best finish since 2002 with an 8–8 record in head coach Mike Singletary's first full season, which included a 5–1 record against the NFC West. The 49ers opened the season with a bang against the defending NFC Champion Arizona Cardinals. LB Patrick Willis, who was named to his 3rd consecutive Pro Bowl as a starter at year's end, recorded the first of his career–high 3 INTs on the year to propel his team to a 20–16 road victory. RB Frank Gore also played a large role in the win, scoring the go–ahead TD in the 4th qtr. as part of a 2–score performance. On the season, he went on to set personal bests with 10 rushing TDs and 13 total TDs, while becoming the only 49er ever to post four 1,000–yd. rushing seasons, despite missing two games to an ankle injury. Gore repeated his 2–TD performance the following week in a 23–10 victory at home against Seattle, running for scores of 79 and 80 yds. to join RB Barry Sanders as the only players in NFL history to register 2 TD runs of 75+ yds. in a single game. With the momentum of a spotless division record, San Fran traveled to Minnesota for what would be an action–packed matchup. In a game where an ankle injury felled Gore on his first attempt, TE Vernon Davis rose to the occasion and recorded 2 TDs, one of which gave the 49ers a 4–point lead in the 4th qtr., which they held until Minnesota's last drive. Vikings QB Brett Favre milked every last second as he fired a 32–yd. TD pass with 2 seconds remaining, stabbing the hearts of 49ers fans. The 49ers bounced back the next week against St. Louis, defeating the Rams 35–0 to mark the first shutout by the team since 2002. Following a crushing 45–10 loss to Atlanta at Candlestick Park, San Fran added another weapon to its arsenal as rookie WR Michael Crabtree joined the team over the bye weekend after missing the first 5 games of the season because of a contract impasse. Crabtree hit the ground running and went on to lead all NFL rookies with a 56.8 yds./game avg. over the final 11 contests. In his debut at Houston, the rookie dazzled the crowd with some acrobatic catches, but the show would eventually turn to two 49er veterans. After falling behind 21 points at halftime, Singletary made a change at quarterback, inserting Alex Smith into the lineup for Shaun Hill. Smith, who hadn't seen any action in nearly two years, responded by throwing a career–high 3 TDs in the final 2 qtrs., all of which were caught by Davis. Following the Texans game, Smith would go on to start the remainder of the season and register career–highs in passing TDs (18), completion pct. (60.5) and quarterback rating (81.5), while Davis proceeded to put up historic numbers on his way to being named a starter in his first Pro Bowl. The talented tight end finished the year with 965 yds. and tied the NFL single–season record for TD receptions (13) by a tight end. The next week at Indianapolis, the team lost starting LT Joe Staley on the first offensive play to a knee injury. Behind the crafty play–calling of defensive coordinator Greg Manusky, the 49ers became the only team to hold NFL MVP QB Peyton Manning without a TD on the season. Despite the unit's valiant effort, the 49ers fell 18–14. A 34–27 loss to the Titans at home inspired the squad for a prime–time, Thursday Night Football showdown against Chicago. In what was a microcosm of the defense's season, the unit recorded 5 INTs, including SS Michael Lewis' victory–sealing pick in the end zone. After digging themselves a 23–3 hole at Green Bay, San Fran valiantly battled back in the final 2 qtrs., only to come up short by less than a TD in the 30–24 defeat. The defense exacted revenge at home against Jacksonville the following week, allowing just 3 points as Davis and Gore each scored in the 20–9 victory. Despite a career–high 310 yds. passing from Smith, the 49ers lost in Seattle, 20–17, before returning home for a prime time, MNF rematch against Arizona. A statement game for the defense, the 49ers forced 7 turnovers (5 FRs, 2 INTs), including a franchise record 7 FFs, as the 24–9 win sealed the season sweep of the Cardinals. The Niners penchant for forcing turnovers allowed them to post the NFL's 5th–best turnover ratio in 2009 (33 takeaways; 24 giveaways). In the blizzard–beaten city of Philadelphia the following Sunday, the Niners struggled with turnovers in a 27–13 loss to the Eagles. Facing Detroit a week later, TDs from Davis and Gore led the way as the 49ers outgunned the Lions 20–6. San Fran would move toward its final game in St. Louis with a chance to secure its first non–losing season since 2002. Overcoming a slow 1st half, Alex Smith and Co. put up 28 points in the final half, including a 73–yd. TD catch by Davis to register his record–tying total. Gore capped off the day with 2 TDs and his 5th 100–yd. performance of the year, giving him 20 such career games and tying him with Joe Perry for the franchise record.

2010

The San Francisco 49ers entered the 2010 season with high hopes, having finished the previous season with their best record since 2002 and having five players named to the Pro Bowl. The 49ers dug themselves an insurmountable deficit with a 0–5 start that they ultimately could not overcome. San Francisco finished the year with a 6–10 record and a third place finish in the NFC West. The 49ers opened the season on the road against the Seattle Seahawks. With the arrival of former USC head coach Pete Carroll, the 49ers were not completely certain about what to expect and were stunned by a 31–6 loss. The Niners opened their home slate on Monday Night Football against the Super Bowl Champion New Orleans Saints to Candlestick Park. RB Frank Gore rushed for 112 yds., and 1 TD on the ground and 1 through the air. 49ers QB Alex Smith passed for 275 yards, but his heroics were not enough as New Orleans posted a late FG giving the Saints a 25–22 victory. A dismal offensive performance in a 31–10 loss in Kansas City influenced head coach Mike Singletary to let offensive coordinator Jimmy Raye go and promote QBs coach Mike Johnson to the role of play–caller. In week 4 the Niners traveled to Atlanta. The 49ers started fast but their inability to finish, however, ultimately cost them a win as the Falcons edged them,16–14. San Francisco returned home for its 2nd primetime matchup in as many home games. NBC's Sunday Night Football pitted them against the Philadelphia Eagles. Again, San Francisco showed up under the brightest of lights, posting 309 yds. through the air including 3 TDs, but a late game INT gave the 49ers their 5th straight loss of the season, 27–24. The 49ers added some rays of hope against the visiting Oakland Raiders. Gore accounted for 149 yds. rushing, leading the 49ers offense to 349 yds. of total offense and earning the Niners their first win of the season, 17–9. The 49ers next test would be at Carolina. The Niners failed to capitalize on a late–game lead and allowed the Panthers to mount a 20–23 comeback victory on a game–winning FG as time expired. Starting QB Alex Smith suffered an injured shoulder during the 4th qtr. At 1–6, the team boarded a plane and traveled to London for a week–long road trip to square off with the Denver Broncos in the 2010 International Series game. With QB Troy Smith at the helm due to the injury to Alex Smith a week earlier, the "home team" defeated Denver, 24–16. After the bye week, the 49ers returned home to defeat division foe St. Louis 23–20 in OT, behind the big–play arm of Troy Smith and the Frank Gore run game. The ensuing 21–0 shutout by Tampa Bay at Candlestick, the first home shutout since 1977, inspired the squad for a prime–time, MNF showdown at Arizona. The defense held the Cardinals to just 13 yds. rushing and forced 2 turnovers. Unfortunately, perennial Pro Bowl RB Frank Gore suffered a fractured hip during the contest ending his season. After a forgettable 34–16 loss to Green Bay at Lambeau Field, San Fran erupted for a season–high 40 points against the visiting Seahawks. Mike Singletary had handed the started QB role back to Alex Smith after the GB loss, and he went on to throw for 255 yds. and 3 TDs in the 40–21 win. Despite the momentum the Niners seemed to gain they lost, 34–7, at San Diego in a Thurday night matchup. Despite a 5–9 record, San Francisco was still in NFC West hunt. Looking for a spark Singletary once again switched QBs, this time to Troy Smith. The spark that was expected never came to be and the 49ers suffered a devastating, 25–17, loss at St. Louis. With the division title and all playoff hopes out of reach, team President and CEO Jed York relieved head coach Mike Singletary of his duties that evening. Defensive line coach Jim Tomsula was later promoted to interim head coach for the final week of the season. The 49ers battled to finish the season with a favorable taste in their mouths vs. Arizona. RB Brian Westbrook notched 2 TDs while Alex Smith threw for 276 yds., 2 TDs and a QB rtg. of 107.8, in a 38–7 win.

The San Francisco 49ers 2011 season began with great hope surrounded by as much, if not more, uncertainty, due in large to the arrival of head coach Jim Harbaugh and the lack of an offseason for the new coaching staff to gel with its players. By season's end, Harbaugh had led his team to a 14–4 record, a NFC West Division Title and a berth in the NFC Championship Game.

Although the 49ers became a blue collar unit focused solely on wins, individual honors were plentiful for the team in 2011. Harbaugh was named AP Coach of the Year at season's end and the team boasted a league–high five First Team AP All–Pros – DT Justin Smith, LB Patrick Willis, LB NaVorro Bowman, K David Akers and P Andy Lee (LT Joe Staley and CB Carlos Rogers were named to the Second Team). San Francisco also posted a NFL–high nine Pro Bowl selections – Smith, Willis, Akers, Lee, Rogers, Staley, S Dashon Goldson, RB Frank Gore, and LS Brian Jennings.

Led by Willis and Smith, both finalists for Defensive Player of the Year, the 49ers defense possessed the most dominant front seven in the game, a unit that produced 40 of the team's 42 sacks and a Defensive Rookie of the Year finalist, LB Aldon Smith, who set the franchise's rookie sack record (14). The unit began the year without allowing a rushing TD in its first 14 games, a feat never before achieved in league history. The defense's NFL–high 38 takeaways allowed the 49ers to lead the league with a team–record turnover differential (plus–28). By the end of the year, the defense ranked 1st in the NFL against the run, 2nd in points allowed, and 4th in total defense.

The San Francisco offense played a physical brand that controlled the tempo of games, rarely made mistakes and made plays when it was ultimately needed. Six times in 2011, QB Alex Smith, RB Frank Gore and the Niners offense mounted come–from–behind wins. The offense tied NFL single–season records for fewest turnovers (10) and interceptions (5). Gore became the franchise's all–time leading rusher surpassing Joe "The Jet" Perry. Smith put together his finest year as a pro, finishing the season with a 90.7 QB rating, a 61.4 completion percentage and the NFL's lowest interception percentage (1.1). The quarterback also tied the franchise record with four, 4th quarter come–from–behind wins on the road (QB Joe Montana – 4 in 1989).

Special teams lived up to its name for the 49ers in 2011, as the unit finished the season ranked atop the NFL. The team featured two record–setting specialists in Akers and Lee. Akers set the NFL record for most field goals made (44) and most points in single–season, no touchdowns (166), while Lee registered a 44.0 net punt average, also setting a new NFL record. KR Ted Ginn Jr. became the first player in franchise history to record a punt return for a touchdown and a kickoff return for a touchdown in the same game in the season opener versus Seattle.

Inside the friendly confines of Candlestick Park, San Francisco posted a 7–1 record. The Niners never trailed by more than 3 points at home all season and averaged 27.6 points per game, ranking 6th in the NFL. The 49ers also boasted a 6–2 record away from home. The 6 wins on the road were the most by the team since 1996 (6–2).

In the 49ers first postseason game since 2002, they defeated the New Orleans Saints, 36–32. TE Vernon Davis shined as he registered 7 receptions for 180 yards and 2 touchdowns, including the game–winning 14 yarder from Alex Smith with :09 remaining.

A magical season came to an end in the NFC Championship game, as the 49ers fell to the eventual Super Bowl Champion New York Giants in overtime, 17–20.
